CAROL DINGMAN BRIDE OF CURTISS LOCKREM
In Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church

TRADITIONAL WHITE SATIN . . . was worn by Carol Dingman for her wedding, Dec. 27, when she exchanged vows with Curtiss Lockrem in a 1:30 p.m. service read by the Rev. Dwayne L. Proett. Carol is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dingman, 1912 Warden; and Curtiss is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lockrem, 1848 Bisbee.

Shirley Anderson. Flower girl (with back to camera), is Kimberly Ann Jarvis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Jarvis; and ring bearer is David Dingman, cousin of the bride, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dingman, Eugene.

Next to Shirley Anderson, Mrs. Dingman gives daughter Carol a big smile of approval — and right, top, the new Mrs. Lockrem's husband gets a big bite of the wedding cake.

In circle below, Carol entering the church, escorted by her father, who gave her in marriage. Far left, with her cousin, Mrs. Melvin Frost (Jo Anne Dingman), Redding, who is six days' Carol's senior, and a bride of a few more months. Lower right, are aunts of the bride at the reception table in the church parlor. All are sisters of Carol's mother, and all live here. From the left, Mrs. J. W. Ward, Mrs. E. E. Benner, Mrs. Wayne Cody and Mrs. Allen Davis.

BRIDE'S SISTER . . . Mrs. Ursal (Jo Anne — "Chuckie") Snapp, adjusts the bridal veil for her sister. The 3 p.m. ceremony read by the Rev. George A. Milne, was beautiful and impressive in its simple dignity.

SHE WAS LOIS LEA KANDRA . . . youngest of the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis S. Kandra, widely known pioneer residents of Merrill, before her marriage to Forney William Scronce, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Scronce, Vale, N. C.

WITH HER FATHER . . . who gave her in marriage, pictured before he escorted her down the aisle. Mrs. G. Mosser Taylor (Bernice), sister of the bride, represented Mrs. Kandra, unable to attend because of illness, at the wedding and in the receiving line.

THE "JUSTWEDS" . . . smile their way down the aisle on the way to receive wedding guests at the reception. After a honeymoon to Reno and San Francisco, the couple is at home in Merrill. The pioneer Kandra family have long been closely identified with business, civic, club and social life in the Basin; and Lewis Kandra is known for his quiet philanthropies.
