

MRS. OLIVE VAN KIRK . . . who was honored on her 80th birthday Jan. 11, on the eve of her actual birthday anniversary. A party was given for her and Edna Arnold, close friend, who has the same birth date. They have celebrated their natal dates together for many years—and this year at the Henry Conrad home, Mrs. Conrad, in the group picture, standing, Mrs. Perry Wilson, left, and Mrs. Neil Palmer, were hostesses entertaining with a "pollo alla cacciatora and spaghetti" dinner for the two celebrants.

Two very special cakes were baked for the occasion, the one pictured made by Mrs. Frank Bogatay; and another by Mrs. Perry Wilson. Most of the guests who assembled at the charming Conrad home, 2529 Homedale Road, were fellow employees of the honored two at Miller's.

Siroky, Myrle Schieferstein, Annes Goodwin, Bernice Mouldin, Beatrice Wilkes and Hazel Bethune. Kathie Edwards, Dorothea Williams, Maida Tedrick, Irene Wilkinson, Lucille Wirtz, Florence McConnell, Jan Linkhart, Juno Parsons, Averil Teppel, Lillian Otterbein and Priscilla McDonald. Edna Arnold is head of the alteration department at Miller's. Olive Van Kirk is the senior employe at Miller's—has been there 22 years—starting before H. N. Moe sold the "Woman's Store" to Miller's. She worked for two years at Clifton's (womens wear) across the street from Miller's—now part of La Pointe's. The remarkable "Vannie" is head of the corset department at Miller's—and has 55 years of work behind her. Perhaps accounting for her amazing bounce and energy, is that her hobbies are "Good music, Good food and Good friends!" —Photos by Kettler

Lockrem-Dingman Nuptials In Peace Memorial Church Dec. 27

Poinsettias, white chrysanthemums and candlelight were used in the effective background for the wedding of Carol Dingman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dingman, 1812 Worden; to Curtiss Lockrem, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lockrem, 1848 Bisbee.

The 1:30 p.m. service was read by the Rev. Dwayne L. Proett, Sunday, Dec. 27, in Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Lorne Simons, organist, accompanied Mrs. Tom Mahoney (Jeri Jarvis), soloist. Candelights, who lighted the tall red tapers, were Danny and Gary Dingman, young cousin of the bride from Eugene.

Given in marriage by her father, Carol wore traditional white satin with a long train; white nylon rose-point lace bodice designed with an off-the-shoulder effect, long sleeved; and with a sheer net yoke. Her white net veil cascaded from a lace headband, and she carried a large bouquet of red roses. For sentiment, Carol wore the pantaloons which Curtis's grandmother, Mrs. Charles Wiseman had worn at her own wedding.
