Top Five Stick in AP Poll

Irish Go To Sixth In Vote

By HUGH FULLETON JR.
NEW YORK (AP)—Until one of the five top teams takes a resounding tumble, the race for the top of the college basketball heap looks like a closed affair, with five "haves" outdistancing a large group of "have nots."

The first five teams in the weekly Associated Press poll remained unchanged this week, although there was one change in their order, as 127 sports writers and broadcasters sent in ballots.

The undefeated (11-0) Kentucky Wildcats retained the No. 1 spot with first-place votes from 42 of the 127 experts. Their point total, on the usual basis of 10 for first, 9 for second, etc., mounted to 1,106.

SECOND
Duquesne, in second place, received 30 firsts and 995 points and third-place Indiana 16 firsts and 905 points.

Western Kentucky, running its winning streak to 16 straight games, moved ahead of Oklahoma A&M into fourth place, reversing their positions of a week ago. Western polled 769 points to the Aggies' 697.

Then came a big drop in the point ratings and, indicative of the quick changes that can take place when one of the leaders is beaten, Notre Dame was ranked sixth with 221 points.

IRISH UP
A week ago the Irish collected only a few scattered points in the poll, but Notre Dame handed Holy Cross its first defeat last week. And this, combined with an otherwise good record, moved the Irish into the place vacated by the Crusaders.

Holy Cross dropped to eighth behind Oklahoma City. Other major switches in the rankings saw George Washington, also beaten for the first time, slip from seventh place to 10th and Duke, taking its fourth defeat, from ninth to 12th.

The leading teams on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 point basis (first-place votes in parentheses):

1. Kentucky (42) 1,106
2. Duquesne (30) 995
3. Indiana (16) 905
4. Western Kentucky (9) 769
5. Oklahoma A&M (7) 697
6. Notre Dame (2) 221
7. Oklahoma City (5) 211
8. Holy Cross (1) 198
9. Minnesota 171
10. George Washington (7) 144
11. Wichita (1) 144
12. Louisiana State 123
13. Duke 122
14. Maryland (1) 115
15. California 105
16. Seattle (2) 97

The National Guard stock took a big jump last night although the City Basketball leaders didn't do a thing.

Eldorado Lumber, figured to have the best chance of overtaking the unbeaten Guards, lost by forfeit to Klamath Sons when the Lumbermen couldn't field the quota of registered players. They played anyway but the 66-38 win for Eldorado doesn't count.

The Beatty Laker trimmed Klamath Creamery, 75-63, in the other game on the program.

The Guards have won five straight games without a setback and their closest challengers are two games back at 3-2 — Metter Bros. and Klamath Creamery.

Benny Moore scored 31 points on 13 field goals and five free throws to lead the Lakers to victory. Larry Willis popped in 19 for the Creamery. Ralph Weiser collected the same number to help Moore.

Gene Gentry's 23 points went for naught in Eldorado's win over the Sons.

Wilson Signs Bronc Contract

LEWISTON, Idaho (AP)—The Lewiston Broncs of the Western International Baseball League Monday signed Artie Wilson for his third season with the Broncs.

Business manager Tom Tabor said Wilson, originally an outfielder but converted to a shortstop last year, signed for a "slightly higher" figure than in 1951.

Milwaukie High on Prep Poll

Cavemen Eighth In Balloting

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Milwaukie's rangy veterans, undefeated in 11 games, are Oregon's best high school basketball team, sportswriters believe.

They were far in front in the first Associated Press poll of the season, polling eight of the 11 votes for first place and getting 94 points in the balloting.

Corvallis, another tall team, nosed out Marshfield, defending state champion, for second place with 76 votes to 74.

Eugene, 1953 state tournament finalist, was fourth with 47 points, one more than Rosevelt of Portland, No. 5. Next, in order, came Gresham, Redmond, Grants Pass and Central Catholic of Portland. Albany and Baker tied for 10th.

Marshfield, Albany and Redmond each received one first-place vote, which brought 10 points in the balloting. A second-place vote was good for 9, third-place 8, etc.

The poll with season record for each team:

- | Points | Record |
|--------|--------------------------|
| 84 | 1. Milwaukie, 11-0 |
| 76 | 2. Corvallis, 10-2 |
| 74 | 3. Marshfield, 10-4 |
| 47 | 4. Eugene, 6-3 |
| 47 | 5. Rosevelt, 7-2 |
| 46 | 6. Gresham, 8-1 |
| 35 | 7. Redmond, 9-1 |
| 30 | 8. Grants Pass, 8-3 |
| 20 | 9. Central Catholic, 7-5 |
| 19 | 10. Albany, 11-3 |
| 18 | 10. Baker, 6-5 |

Others: The Dalles and Salem 17, Klamath Falls and Pendleton 12, Madras 10, Lincoln of Portland 9, La Grande 8, Hillsboro 7, Benson of Portland 5, St. Helens and Cleveland of Portland 4, Grant of Portland and Reedsport 3, Roseburg 2, Franklin of Portland and Elkton 1.

Don Schlundt Cracks Big 10 Scoring Mark

By BEN PHLEGAR
NEW YORK (AP)—At his present pace Don Schlundt is going to run out of records to break long before he finishes his spectacular basketball career at Indiana University.

The 6-foot-9 center, just approaching the midway point in his junior year, already owns the individual scoring records for many of the Midwest's main basketball arenas. Last night, he added two more prizes to his long string—the Big Ten mark and the record for his home floor at Bloomington. Shooting with amazing accuracy, he scored 47 points as the hurrying Hoosiers ran away from Ohio State 94-72 for their sixth straight conference triumph.

OLD MARK
The old Big Ten mark of 43 by Iowa's Dick Ives had stood for 10 years. Schlundt's total was 11 above the former Indiana field-house mark as he connected on 16 field goals in 27 attempts and on 15 of 17 free throws.

Indiana, No. 3 behind Kentucky and Duquesne, was the only member of the nation's top 10 teams in action last night. Three of the second 10 were busy with Maryland, No. 14, whipping Virginia 70-56; Kansas, No. 17, defeating Iowa State 76-61; and Illinois, No. 20, getting beaten by Iowa 79-70.

SECONDS
Wisconsin made 25 of 30 free throws in defeating Michigan State 57-53 in a Big Ten game. Two foul shots by sub Bobby Dupluis with seven seconds left gave Tulane a 63-61 Southeastern Conference decision over Tennessee. Davidson surprised Virginia Tech with a second-half spurt that brought an 87-69 Southern Conference victory.
Tulsa held Murray State to four points in the final 15 minutes in scoring a 61-51 overtime verdict. Wyoming climbed into a tie with Colorado A&M in the Skyline Con-

Late Splurge Buries Owls; Second Tonight

By RED HURD
Oregon Tech was a three-quarter basketball club again last night, fading before a fourth-period onslaught by the Southern Oregon College Red Raiders to finish on the runner-up end of a 65-56 count.

The Owls host the Raiders again tonight on Hilltop Court in the second of the two-game king-of-the-hill series. Tip off time is 8 o'clock.

The Owls, starting with a makeshift lineup that carried just one regular, center Keith Thompson (and he's been an off-and-oner), did right well in the early going and built up a 12-4 lead before the surprised Raiders knew they were in a game.

Jerry Overen and Thompson led this early flurry but the Raiders, finally hitting from the field for the first time when Bob Smith scored to bring the count to 6-12, started to roll and closed the margin to 12-15 at the end of the first period.

PERK UP
Strangely enough, the Red Raiders started to perk up when they lost Leon Keece, their hot-shot center, with 5:16 gone on the clock.

Keece, who went into the game with an 18.9 average in SOG's 15 mid-court misap when he turned too quickly in an attempt to steal the ball. A doctor called from the crowd thought it was torn ligaments. It's doubtful if Keece will see action in tonight's game.

Hal Titus took Keece's place and, although he did little damage to the Owls the rest of the first half, he and Dick Price, a small but dynamic set shot artist, paced the Raiders after intermission.

ADEQUATE
Charles Garcia, who with Overen has seen only intermittent action this season, turned in an adequate job at a guard position. Both he and Overen played altogether more than three quarters. Forward Ed Schallhorn, who has gathered more splinters than either Overen or Garcia, and guard Alan Cunningham, who recently lost a starting job to Gary Dorn, were the other starters. Dorn sat this one out with a sprained ankle suffered in Friday night's game in Monmouth. The Raiders chopped away at Tech's 15-12 first-quarter lead and Smith twice tied the score in the second — at 18-all and 20-all — with lay-ins.

Then Lloyd Hoffine gave the Asahand club a 22-21 lead and the Raiders stayed in front, noting a squeaky 23-27 lead at the rest period.

But the Owls had plenty of zip left and Don Suptin, who entered the game with Jerry Wyatt (both regulars) midway in the second, put the Owls topside early in the third quarter as 34-32 after Wyatt had tied the score at 32 with a two-pointner from the corner.

TIED
Price tied it 34-all for SOG then but Overen hooked one in to give Oregon a 36-34 lead and the Owls stayed ahead until 2:25 was left in the third stanza when Titus and Gary Keece, parlayed a field goal and free throw to put Southern Oregon even at 41-41.

But Overen and Thompson, who re-entered the game after being pulled out late in the first with four personal fouls, panted together two shots, Suptin scored on a steal and the Owls were up 47-41. Two free throws by Ernie Bretzel nudged the Raiders up to 43-47 at the end of the third period.

Price found center on two long shots and Dale Bates scored from the charity stripe and Southern Oregon had a 48-47 lead early in the fourth.

STAY AHEAD
The Raiders never lost this lead although the Owls tied it at 48 on Thompson's free throw, at 54 on Suptin's long shot and at 55 on Bob Edgren's one point on the basket.

Newton and Price went to work then to pace the Raiders in a scoring march that put SOG ahead 62-56 with two minutes to go when the Raiders started a freeze job.

The Owls were almost as cold as the weather outside, hitting on 21 of 76 attempts for a .276 average. Southern Oregon had a 24 for 51 performance for a respectable .471.

Suptin was high for the Owls with 14; Overen and Edgren added 10 each. Price led the Raiders with 18; Titus had 14, Hoffine 13 and Newton 10.

NEW YORK (AP)—The Chicago White Sox and the Chicago Cubs each had another big catch in the contract bag today. But Milwaukee slugger Eddie Mathews joined the increasing group of dissatisfied major leaguers.

Lefty Billy Pierce, who along with Virgil Trucks kept the Chisox in the American League pennant running last season, came to terms for 1954 and "became one of the highest paid pitchers in the club's history," according to General Manager Frank Lane.

Pierce won 18 games and dropped 12 last year, finished second in earned runs with 40 1-3 scoreless innings. Trucks already is in the White Sox fold.

Slugging Hank Sauer has signed a Cubs' contract and promised to "fight with all I've got" to return to his form of two seasons ago. He slumped to 19 home runs after hitting 37 the previous year. Ralph Kiner, the Cubs' other home run threat has signed.

Mathews, the National League's home run king last year, hasn't talked turkey with John Quinn, Braves' general manager.

"After last season the club tried to get me to sign," he explained. "But I wasn't satisfied with what they offered me. I doubt if we'll get together very fast."

Besides Sauer, the Cubs also signed outfielder Hal Jeffcoat and rookie infielder Don Robertson. The Philadelphia Athletics signed five players, including outfielder Ed McCabe and pitcher Bob Cain, recently acquired from Baltimore.

CORRECTION
Monday's sports section erroneously reported that Klamath Falls Creamery won Grants Pass Friday night. The two teams were tied in the second round of the playoffs. A split would have given the game up to the men. Two wins for the three-game bulge which the men would be one game by winning both games.
