

More Items On List For Big March Of Dimes Radio Auction On KFLW Tonight

Moving? Tune in to KFLW Thursday, Jan. 21, from 7 to 8 p.m. and bid on a complete local moving job, anywhere in Klamath Falls. Moving will be done by City Delivery Service for the highest bidder on the Lions-sponsored radio auction. Willis Robinson donated the service.

And with TV coming more and more to the fore, Thompson's Kitchen Center has contributed an $80 TV antennae up to 90 feet high, plus installation. This will be up for auction either Thursday from 7 to 8 p.m. or Saturday beginning at 9 and running to conclusion, with a break for the 10 p.m. news.

Valuable merchandise donations also include two $2.50 bus tickets from Klamath Bus Co.; a $15 permanent from Helen's Beauty Shop; $10 meal ticket from Court Cafe; a General Electric Mixer, Payless Drug. A complete flash camera with bulbs, Leo's Camera Shop; an assortment of winter flowers including four winter bouquets, and one dozen eggs. Mrs. Pinely, 3668 Hilyard; a hand loomed rug, made and donated by Mrs. Molly Burgess, 728 No. 9th.

Weed American tire chains were donated by Hitchcock and Mosher; a sport shirt, Drew's Manstore; 1000 letter heads on bond paper, Guide Printing Co.; a TV chair, Stanley Home Products; a used, extra large Evans oil heater, Mrs. W. B. Redkey; an adjustable desk lamp, Hafter Furniture.

One coat of paint, any color, on any bedroom walls and ceiling from L. P. Brockman; an 11 by 14 inch oil picture, single, double or a group, from Miller-Williams Studio; an electric floor heater, Long Bell Lumber Co.; a flannel shirt, Army Store; plastic towel holders, Swan Lake Moulding Co.; $10 worth of bowling, Lucky Lanes Bowling Alley.

A car baby bed, F. T. Boyd; a five horsepower Bendix outboard motor, W. W. Thompson; ten sacks of insulation, Copeland Lumber Co.; one Speed Way drill, Moly and Van Dyke; a Stevens bolt action 1 gauge shotgun, Peterson's Market; a General Electric hot pad, B and B Electric and a box of Crane's stationery, Shaw's Stationery.

Tuesday night's radio auction brought a $15 cash donation from California Oregon Power Co. and sale of various items not mentioned previously, including a nylon par golf bag, Dick Reeder's; an ensemble of assorted chocolates and novelty candies, Pelican Candy Jar; a 28 inch blue tinted round mirror, Goeller's Paint Store; $5 worth of merchandise from Dickey's Grocery. 4208 Shasta Way; three rolls, 100 feet to a roll, of 3/4 inch plastic pipe from Carlson, Klamath's newest manufacturing company; two sport shirts, Don's Men's Store.

A devil's food cake donated by Mrs. Roy Andrews was delivered to the Herald and News office during the auction proved too much of a temptation, and instead of being auctioned off, the cake brought 50 cents apiece from interested bystanders who drew for it, then cleaned up!

COLORFUL

AMERICAN FALLS, Idaho (AP)—Colorful is just about the only way to describe properly the American Falls jail.

The walls are leaf-green. The floor is maroon. And the cell bars are silver.

The jail was empty for a few days recently and Power county commissioners said it seemed a good time to redecorate.
