

Eisenhower Urges Big Tax Cuts In Budget Message

CHARLES F. BARRETT WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower today urged upon Congress a big tax revision project which would reduce revenue about $10,000,000 next year—and then draw a line against further cuts now.

The revision program, he said in his budget message, would rewrite a tax structure he termed "haphazard," easing burdens for millions of persons and promoting business expansion to push America "to ever higher standards of living."

But Eisenhower said this program and the five billion dollars in annual tax cuts which took effect Jan. 1 are all the reductions "our national security and well-being will permit" right now.

He thus raised a barrier against growing talk by some Congress members in this election year for (1) a further general cut in individual income taxes and (2) a lowering of all excise or sales taxes which are above 10 per cent to that level.

The President reiterated his request, first made last May and renewed in his State of the Union message, for extension of present rates of excise and corporation income taxes. They are due to drop April 1 to their pre-Korea levels, three billion dollars under present levels.

The revision program would reduce taxes an estimated two billion dollars annually when it reaches full effect in later years.

It included one big surprise — changing the annual deadline for some 60 million individuals to file income tax returns from March 15 to April 15. A Treasury spokesman said there was no thought of making the change effective this year.

The President also called for bigger tax deductions for medical expenses, a new deduction for child-care expenses of working mothers and widows, a new allowance for dependents who make more than $600, sharp cuts in taxes on income from dividends, and a tax break for single heads of households.

For business, he proposed more liberal immediate allowances for depreciation, a 14 - percentage - point drop in corporation taxes on income from branches abroad, immediately lowered taxes on research and development expenses, and easier treatment of retained earnings.

For farmers, the president urged a tax deduction for soil conservation expenses of up to 25 per cent of the farmer's gross income.

The message indicated these and other changes would save individuals about $85 million dollars and corporations about $30 million dollars on their tax bills for 1954—and more later.

The tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee already has started page-by-page action on the program, the product of more than a year's labor by congressional and Treasury staff experts.

As for the future, the President said: "Total government expenditures and taxes are now so high that we must choose our path carefully between inadequate revenues on the one hand and oppressive taxation on the other."

"It is the determined purpose of this administration to make further reductions in taxes as rapidly as justified by prospective revenues and reductions in expenditures."

He said the excises scheduled for reduction April 1—on liquor, sporting goods, beer and wine—should be continued at present rates. "Any adjustments in the other excise taxes (should) be such as to maintain the total yield which we are now receiving from this source," he added, noting that excises "provide a relatively small proportion of our total tax revenues."

Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey said, "the Treasury still is studying possible changes but has not yet reached any specific conclusions." He added he hoped the decisions would be reached in time to take them up at this session of Congress.

But any new proposals, he told newsmen, will follow the budget message policy of no further overall reductions in revenue.

OF Youth Pilgrimage Essay Contest Ready To For Local Contestants

and regulations governing the United Nations Youth Pilgrimage Contest sponsored by the Y and Yeshiva lodges in Clatsop and Lake counties are ready for local contestants, according to Herbert Munsell, chairman of the Y Pilgrimage committee.

The contest is open to all high school seniors and juniors, between the ages of 15 and 17 attending high school in Clatsop and Lake counties.

Those desiring to enter the contest are advised to study the regulations of the United Nations so prepared when the topic essay is announced on Jan. 25.

The topic will pertain to the United Nations, Munsell stated.

Applications of all students entering the essay contest shall be turned in to the principal of their respective high schools by February 12.

The essay must not exceed 5,000 words in length, and must be completed and in the hands of the principal by February 23. The name of the essay writer shall not appear on a separate sheet and attached to the front of the essay.

The contest within each high school will be under the supervision of the principal who will select three teachers as judges.

Qualifications considered in selecting the delegate to the Youth Pilgrimage will be based on the following:

Character and personality, community and civic-mindedness, leadership, participation in extra-curricular activities, interest in world affairs and church participation 25 per cent and essay contest judging 75 per cent.

The winning contestant of each high school will be required to prepare and present a five minute speech before a board of three outside judges. These judges to have no connection with any high school or affiliation with the IOOF. These judges will judge each essay of the winners and will also judge each speech given by the winning participants at a public gathering to be held before March 31. Contestants will be notified to the exact date by the chairman of the committee. Decisions of the judges shall be final.

The student winning the essay contest will be provided with an expenses paid trip by bus, along with winners from other northern districts, to a six day tour of the United Nations.

This trip is slated to start from Spokane around July 10, and the tour of the U.N. will start July 14. One adult leader for every ten young people will accompany the delegates on the trip.

The contest rules state that the winning contestant must agree to make requested talks on the U.N. Pilgrimage, upon return from the trip, to civic and fraternal organizations as requested by the Odd-fellows through the youth chairman.

SRU Slates Medford Trip

with Air Search and Rescue will hold its fly-in to Medford and Roseburg Sunday, Jan. 24, weather permitting.

The fly-in was scheduled for last year but was canceled because of inclement weather.

Eugene Fire Safety Best

BOSTON (AP) — Eugene was the leading city in Oregon among Fire Prevention Week contest winners.

Not only did the Lane County city rank first in its state, but it was placed 27th nationally by the National Fire Protection Assn. which announced its 1953 awards Thursday.

In the Class V competition nationally for cities in the 20,000 to 49,999 population group, Eugene ranked fifth, which gave it an honorable mention. But it was in fast competition in that class for all six cities mentioned for awards were among the top 30 in the U. S.

In Oregon, following Eugene, was Portland in second place, Dallas in third, and Oswego with an honorable mention for fourth. Only Eugene got a national rating in the top 30.

The cities in Eugene's class group in the order in which they finished in that class and nationally: Wausau, Wis., 1st, 6th nationally; Tuscaloosa, Ala., 2nd, 11th nationally; Oak Ridge, Tenn., 3d, 15th nationally; Richland, Wash., 4th, 17th nationally; Eugene, 5th, 27th nationally; Parkersburg, W. Va., 6th, 29th nationally.
