Athletics Win Sixth; Dorris, Inners Close

The Malin Athletics captured their sixth win without a loss in the Klamath Basin Independent League last night—and the Dorris Townies and Tulelake Inners stayed right on the Athletics' heels with wins. The Athletics outlasted the Dorris Lions, 59-56. The Dorris Townies walloped the Malin Townies, 81-24. Tulelake had little trouble hurdling the Chiloquin Parks, 87-48. The Chiloquin Townies kept their chances alive with a 71-41 win over Merrill. The Dorris Townies and Tulelake Inners have lost just once in six starts while the Chiloquin Townies hold a 4-2 record behind the Athletics (6-0). With Wilbur Welch potting 29 points and Haskins adding 20, the Dorris Townies led all the way against the Malin Townies. The Athletics stayed a jump ahead of the Lions with Jim Conroy and Rod Detrick pacing the attack with 21 and 20 points. The Athletics led 17-13, 30-23 and 47-37 at the first three periods. Branham and Moschenbacher pumped in 15 each for the Lions. Wayne Hatcher drilled the net for 24 points as the Chiloquin Townies played well in front of Merrill. J. King was the top scorer for Tulelake with 24 in that team's win over the Chiloquin Parks. Games Monday night send the Tulelake Inners against the Malin Townies in a doubleheader at Malin; the Dorris Townies face Langel Valley at Bonanza and the Dorris Lions go to Keno to face the

Weinmeister With Lions

VANCOUVER, B. C. (AP) — Arnie Weinmeister of Seattle, rated as one of American professional football's all-time greats, has signed a two-year contract with the new British Columbia Lions. It was announced Thursday. His salary was not disclosed but a club official said the Canadian-born tackle would be "one of the highest-paid players ever to play in Canada." Weinmeister, born in Rhein, Sask., and who moved with his parents to Portland, Ore., when he was an infant, was all-star tackle four straight years with New York Giants of the National Football League. He is 30 years old, six feet four inches tall and weighs 235 pounds. He is still technically the property of the Giants. They still have an option on his services for 1954, but no contract.

Beavers Go to Moscow

Webfoots Home To Huskies

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Northern Division basketball teams renew interstate rivalries this weekend with a set of games expected to unravel a knot at the top of the standings and give one of the contenders a bulge that may lead to the championship. Idaho and Oregon State hook up in a pair of games at Moscow, Idaho, Friday night and Saturday night. At the same time, Oregon will be host to Washington's Huskies at Eugene. Oregon State and Oregon are tied at the top of the league, entering the crucial stand, with three wins and a loss apiece, but Idaho is only half a game behind and is rated on a par with the States. Idaho and Oregon State split in their last meeting at Corvallis at the start of the season. And Oregon, facing the underdog Huskies who have won only one of 12 games this year, will be hoping for a repeat in the Vandal-Beaver collision at Moscow. Rawls In Tampa Lead

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Betsy Rawls, 1a23 easilybyzzy miliaes 21 who finished fast to post the day's best nine-hole score yesterday, held a two-stroke lead going into the second day of the 72-hole Tampa Women's Open Golf Tournament today. The Spartanburg, S. C., pro came through with 35, three under par, on the home nine to give her a par 75 for the tricky, 6,093-yard Palma Ceia course. Bunched behind her were Babe Zaharias of Tampa, who has won the tournament twice; Polly Riley, another former winner, from Fort Worth, Tex., and Jackie Pung, Honolulu. Mrs. Zaharias and Miss Riley, the top amateur, played along steadily, the former hitting 38-39 and the latter 39-38. Mrs. Pung had a good round going out, par 37, and was doing well on the way back until she hit into a trap on the 18th and took 7 for the par 5 hole. Louise Suggs, the little Georgian who is still the favorite to make this her third Tampa Open victory in a row, also had troubles on the back nine. After a brilliant first nine 36, everything went wrong and she trudged home with 43 and a total of 79. That put her in a tie for

Ogden In San Diego Golf Lead

RANCHO SANTA FE, Calif. (AP)—The wreckage that was paraded the Rancho golf course Friday as upward of 130 golfers headed into the second round of the $15,000 San Diego Open Tournament. An astounding number of 49 players out of 134 starters broke par 72 in the first round, and tournament officials sought to tighten up the course. Leading the procession into Friday's 18 holes was 27-year-old Bill Ogden of Chicago, whose 33-32-68 looked none too secure in the face of the par crackers just behind. The Rancho course measures almost 6,800 yards and has a par of 36-36-72. One stroke back of Ogden, a former Sacramento, Calif., amateur star until he turned pro four years ago, were three players. They were U.S. Amateur champion Gene Little of San Diego and pros Earl Stewart Jr., Dallas, and Bob Harris, San Jose, Calif.

PORTLAND (AP) — The resignation of Mike Stipac as football coach at Franklin High School was reported here Thursday. Stipac, former sunnyside, Wash., and Aberdeen, Idaho, high school coach, said he will continue to teach at Franklin and will help with the track team. Stipac's football teams won five games and lost nine during his two years as Franklin coach.

TUNA MATCH

NEW YORK (AP)—The 1954 International Tuna Cup Match will be held at Wedgeport, Nova Scotia, on Sept. 8, 9 and 10. Mexico won the trophy in 1953 with Argentina second, Cuba third and the Netherlands fourth. The U.S. last won the match in 1949.

Pension Changes To Wait

By JACK HAND
NEW YORK (AP) — Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick insists there can be no changes in the disputed player pension plan before 1956 when the current $1,100,000-per-year contract for World Series radio-TV expires. "Nobody knows how much we will be able to get on a new contract," Frick said yesterday at a press conference where he distributed a financial report on the seven years of the pension plan. "I have read where people talk of five million dollars," he said. "You must remember we are talking about only what baseball will receive. If we were paid that much, a sponsor would have to pay five million dollars more for line charges, time and other expenses. I doubt very much if anybody can pick up a 10-million-dollar tab for five or seven days. NEGOTIATIONS "Let's not get overoptimistic. I expect to start negotiations in 1955. It could be with a group of advertisers rather than one organization. One thing is certain. If we get more money under our new contract, the pension fund will be restudied to give the players every benefit possible." The player representatives in September asked changes in the fund to raise monthly payments from $50 to $80 for five-year men and $100 to $150 for 10-year men. They also asked that annuities begin at 45 instead of 50 with lower player costs. Frick said he had been advised that would cost anywhere from 2 1/2 million to over $9,780,000 additional. "Personally, I would rather see the pension go to some men who were not able to stay as long as five years," Frick said. "Even if it would be only $2 a month, I'll throw that into the hopper when we discuss any new plan." BALANCE Frick's report showed a balance of $388,400.02 in the major leagues central fund from which pension costs and other costs are paid. Total receipts for seven years included $913,352.64 from players and $6,976,247.77 "attributable to clubs." The All-Star Game receipts and Series radio-TV cash were counted in the clubs' payments. That, of course, is the catch. The players claim all the radio-TV money from the Series goes to the pension fund. The majors insist it goes into a central fund that amounts to a joint bank account of the 16 clubs. In addition to pension payments, a share of the costs of the commissioner's office and refunds to clubs for income tax liability on the radio-TV cash come out of the central fund.

STAN MUSIAL

Musial Inks For $80,000

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The St. Louis Cardinals, in the midst of a rebuilding program, still have two big salary problems—Red Schoendienst and Harvey Haddix—to tackle before they can go full speed ahead with their plans for 1954. Schoendienst, runner-up to National League batting champion Carl Furillo last season and Haddix, a 20-game winner, are far from satisfied with the contracts they've been tendered for the upcoming campaign. Both Schoendienst and Haddix are reportedly asking $10,000 more than they received in 1953. Red is said to have received $35,000 last season and Haddix $8,000. The Cardinals bagged their biggest catch of the contract signing season Thursday—Stan Musial. The six-time National League batting king put his signature on a pact calling for a reported $80,000—tops in the senior loop. Eddie Mathews, another of the National League's foremost sluggers, also signed his contract Thursday. Best guess was that Eddie's salary for next season will be around $25,000.

East Cagers Shade West

NEW YORK (AP) — George Mikan says the 1954 National Basketball Assn. all star game was the greatest ever played anywhere. George ought to know. He was picked as the outstanding basketball player of the last half century in The Associated Press poll. He starred in college ball at DePaul and has been the mainstay of the Minneapolis Lakers, National pro champions, for seven seasons. Thursday night Mikan was on the losing team. The East squeaked past the West 98-93 in overtime at Madison Square Garden. Mikan personally extended the game the extra five minutes. With the East leading 84-82 and the clock showing absolutely no time left, big George shot, missed and drew a foul giving him two free throws. Mikan bounced the ball half a dozen times, then sent it swishing through the nets twice in a row. Bob Cousy of Boston, whose one hander had given the East the lead with two seconds to play, stole the show in the extra period, scoring 10 points for a game total of 20 and controlling the ball almost constantly with his tremendous dribbling. The display won him the most valuable player award.

A SHOE SWITCH

MIAMI (AP) — The English horse Olympi, now racing at Hialeah, has had his shoes switched. The ones that normally go on the hind feet are on the forefeet. Trainer Ivan Parke believes the slight heel on the rear shoes gives the horse the traction needed for grass racing.

Canadian-U.S. Grid Hassle Opens Again

By FRED WALTERS
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — United States and Canadian professional football executives primed their checkbooks and mustered their legal forces today in an all-out war over football talent. The feud over Canadian forays into American football player pools has blown hot and cold for several years. Yesterday it was announced that Arnie Weinmeister of the New York Giants, one of the NFL's all-time top tackles, had signed a two-year contract with the new British Columbia Lions. NO CONTRACT The 6-foot-4, 235-pound lineman no longer has a contract with the Giants, but the club still holds an option on his services for 1954. Commissioner Bert Bell of the NFL promptly declared, "The war is on" between the U. S. and Canadian pro leagues. He indicated the NFL might reverse the normal procedure and raid Canadian player resources. "They had better start counting their players," he said. "We have a list of all Canadian players, some of whom could make some of our teams. We'll go after them if they go after our boys." THREAT Meanwhile, Giants' President John V. Mara threatened legal action for breach of contract against Weinmeister. Mara said the Giants had already notified Weinmeister of their intention to exercise their option on his services. In Vancouver, B. C., Lions' Coach Annis Stukus said the club feels it has "fulfilled" all obligations concerning the Giants. "He told them at the close of the season that he would not be back and that he was retiring from the National Football League," Stukus said. HIGH The offer that drew Weinmeister to Canada was not disclosed, but a club official said the Giant lineman would be "one of the highest-paid players ever to play in Canada." At Seattle Weinmeister also said he believes he was within his legal rights in signing with Vancouver. "I did not violate any contract with the Giants," he said. "There was no misunderstanding. They knew 1953 was my last year with them. Attorneys have told me I'm perfectly free to go ahead with my contract with Vancouver even without the letters I have from the Giants' management. In their opinion, the option which the Giants hold on me for 1954 is not legally binding." Weinmeister follows an impressive list of American college and pro players who have found the lure of Canadian football more attractive than the NFL.
