Tokyo Sees Book Burning

TOKYO (AP)—A public book-burning destroyed 13,000 books in downtown Tokyo today.

The publisher himself did the job while newsmen watched and photographers clicked away.

The edition wasn't a Communist book—they sell like Japanese hot chestnuts on a winter night.

It was "I Think Like This," the autobiography of Masumoto Ito, a fantastically successful stock speculator who finally crashed last year.

His downfall left publisher Minoru Yamazaki with a fine collection of nicely printed waste paper.

Normally, a publisher would call in the second-hand paper man and ask for a bid. But Yamazaki invited the press, struck a match, and got himself stories and pictures in almost every Tokyo newspaper.

Tokyo Shimbun reported Yamazaki expects to recoup on a foreign sex book he is printing.

They sell like hot chestnuts, too.

Expanding Market In US Seen

NEW YORK (AP)—Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield says a huge and ever-expanding market exists in America "for businessmen who go after it."

In a speech last night before the National Industrial Conference Board, a private organization, Summerfield said "there is no cause for alarm" over business conditions.

"There are big markets here in the United States still to be tapped," he said.

He cited the nation's growing birth rate and pointed out that one out of every three American families still is without an automobile, 88 out of every 100 lack home-freezing units, and 98 out of 100 do not have air-conditioning.

NO RITE
PITTSBURGH (AP)—Post 86 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars has postponed the mortgage-burning ceremony it planned next month.

Only a few weeks ago the club paid off the last installment on its mortgage. Last night the club was heavily damaged by fire.

A DRESS FOR KOREA was included in the thousands of pounds of men's clothing collected in the last 10 days by Rudy's to be sent to Korea, for distribution through the Church World Service. Inspecting part of the collection are, from left: Rudy Jacobs, of Rudy's Mens Store; Al Lynch, agent for Ore.-Nev.-Cal. Fast Freight, Inc., who is transporting the packages to Oakland for shipping after they are cleaned, free of charge, by Bob Henry, top, of the New Method Cleaners. A trade-in allowance on a new garment in the same category was given for each used piece of men's clothing brought to the store.

Mamie Van Doren Wants Out Of Marilyn's Mold

By ROB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Mamie Van Doren, a blonde bundle of sex, wants to resign as her studio's answer to Marilyn Monroe.

"The comparison to Marilyn was okay at the beginning of my career," says Mamie. "The publicity helped draw attention to me. But now I don't want to be the answer to anybody. I want to stand on my own two feet."

"I'm afraid she won't find it easy to shed the reference to Monroe. The resemblance between the two girls is considerable. Both are blondes with Petty-girl faces and curvaceous figures. Both exude a

Bayocean To Receive Aid

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—An Army Engineer board approved Thursday the $1,775,000 project to save Bayocean Peninsula and preserve shipping channels in Tillamook Bay, Ore.

The Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors recommended that the government pay 85 percent of the cost in building up a sand dike to close the breach pounded by the ocean in the peninsula.

The shipping lanes there will be destroyed if the dike is not built, the board said.

The board recommended to the chief of Engineers that the job be undertaken if Tillamook Bay interests would provide without cost all land, easements and rights of way necessary for the construction.

That the local government promise to "hold the United States free from all damages" due to construction, and that local interests put up 15 per cent of the cost. That would make the local share about $250,000.

Record Run Falls Flat

SEATTLE (AP)—A Pan American DC6B set a new record of 5 hours, 15 minutes on a flight from Fairbanks to Seattle Thursday, then spent the next hour and 30 minutes circling the Seattle-Tacoma International Airport while crews cleared the field of snow.

The new record was set in a pre-inaugural flight staged by Pan American before the start of regular DC6B service to Alaska. It was the first use of pressurized planes on the run.

The ship carried 52 passengers including Seattle newsmen and Ketchikan, Junior and Fairbanks Chamber of Commerce officials, and a crew of 6.

The new record cuts 57 minutes off the old mark set in 1949 by a Pan American DC4. Thursday's flight was aided by a tailwind averaging 30 miles an hour. The previous record was set with the assistance of a 67 mile an hour average tailwind.

The plane left Fairbanks at 4:53 p.m. (PST) and arrived over the Seattle airport at 10:06 p.m. It flew at around 20,000 feet.

Bonanza Girls Form New Club

BONANZA (AP)—The eighth grade girls of Bonanza have organized a Home Ec club, under the direction of their teacher, Marnette Sobn. The girls plan a field trip to Klamath Falls to buy certain material, and some pottery. Before buying the club will plan and budget for the money they have.

A cake raffle was held by the club between the ball games the night of Jan. 15 and 16. The cakes were baked by the members, and were all large luscious cakes. $28 was cleared by the sales.

State Property Tax Seen Coming

SALEM (AP)—The 1955 Legislature probably will have to levy a state property tax in order to make ends meet, State Sen. Howard C. Belton, Canby, chairman of the Legislative Interim Tax Committee, told the Salem Lions Club Thursday.

Belton said a property tax would be needed because the state is spending more money than it is taking in.

There has been no state property tax since 1940.

Highlights In Congress For Today:

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's proposal to drop the minimum voting age to 18 faces a possible test vote in a Senate Judiciary subcommittee.

Backers of the proposed constitutional amendment argue that youths old enough to fight are old enough to vote. Some opponents claim 18-year-olds are too immature to vote. The legal voting age in 7 states is 21. Only Georgia permits voting at 18.

Taxes—Key Democratic representatives plan to carry to the House a fight for upping individual income tax exemptions from $600 to $700. The proposal was beaten yesterday by the House Ways and Means Committee: 15 Republicans against, 10 Democrats for. The committee continues its general overhaul of the nation's tax structure, termed "haphazard" by Eisenhower.

New OES Officers Hold Meet

MALIN (AP)—Prosperity Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, No. 160 met Thursday, January 14, for their first meeting with the newly installed officers.

Preceding the entrance of the officers, courtesy girls brought in the Star Point emblems and, after a short addendum, placed them upon the pedestals.

Officers were escorted into the Chapter Room and seated at their respective stations.

Seated in the East, in charge of the meetings, were the new worthy matron and patron, Doris and Jess Smith.

During the business meeting the worthy matron announced the following appointments for the year of 1954: finance committee, Agnes Schreiner, Jess Smith and Frances Kalina; examining committee, Charles Hamilton, Marian Wilson and Gladys Halousek; instruction committee for Malin, Mary Victoria, Joe Halousek and Ethel Hamilton; instruction for Merrill, Ann Fruits, Eugene Beasley and Thelma Stukel; sickness, Emma Wilde and Hazel Bowman; relief, Hazel Kalina, Eva Bowman and Harvey Glugston.

Appointed to serve on the Rainbow Board were Hazel Bowman, Marian Wilson, A. E. Street, Jerri Lou Waltemeyer, Mildred Lovelace, Agnes Schreiner, Marie Oltman, Betty Halousek, Ann Kandra, Emma Wilde, Mervyn Wilde, Doris Smith and Jess Smith.

Social club officers will be president, Emma Wilde and secretary-treasurer, Thelma Glugston. Mrs. Ethel Hamilton will have the next meeting of the social club at her home January 28.

During the business meeting members voted in favor of carrying out an alphabetical system of names for the purpose of procur-

Pendleton Faces Fluorides Fight

PENDELTON (AP)—A Pendleton group intends to try to stop fluoridation of the city's water, started about a year ago.

The group, headed by Bill Meyers, owner of a health food store, and Dr. Frank Spaulding, a naturopath and chiropractor, said petitions would be circulated, calling for an election on the matter. The group adopted the title of Pure Water Committee.

Refreshment hostesses for meeting nights. Each member will be expected to serve in this capacity as her name appears on the alphabetical list.

Other business decided upon included making final plans for the guinea fowl supper, and the serving of sandwiches and coffee for the Malin Firemen's dance February 6.

Obligation night was observed at this meeting with an impressive candlelight addendum. The obligation was given by the worthy patron and repeated by the officers and members.

Refreshments were served in the newly decorated dining room by Emma Wilde and Beulah Reber.

Big Springs Park Aided by Sale

BONANZA (AP)—The cooked food sale given for the benefit of the Bonanza Big Springs Park on Jan. 16, was very successful; netting over $40. Mrs. Isobel Hazeltine was in charge of the sale.

The land has been surveyed for the tennis court and Tom O'Connor has started to level the land. After the completion when the weather gets cold it will be flooded with water so young folks and old ones too, can ice skate.
