Over 100 at Farewell Party For Mrs. Keith Fields and Daughters

Over one hundred women and girls of the Bible Baptist Church honored Mrs. Keith Fields and her five daughters, Elizabeth, Nancy, Jean, Joan and Patsy with a farewell party recently.

Sharon Hawthorne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hawthorne, (missionaries in Bolivia), is making her home with the Rev. and Mrs. Keith Fields and has been attending high school here. Guests included women from the Immanuel Baptist Church, Newell Church and Covenant Church.

Program was given by a group of the women and girls of the Bible Baptist Church. Tea was served following the program. Mrs. Bob Caster and Mrs. Bill Grimes poured. Cocoa, served to the girls, was poured by Jewell Ann Larson. Open face sandwiches, cookies, nuts and mints were served with tea, coffee and cocoa.

The table was beautifully decorated in pink and yellow, centered with a bouquet of pink and yellow carnations and pink rose buds, with pink candles on either side. The piano was decorated with two candelabra, which had six pink candles in each.

Hostesses were Mrs. Boyd Sprague and Mrs. Jerry Rhodes. This was a farewell for Mrs. Keith Fields, who is leaving with her husband, to make their home in Ontario, Ore., where they will establish a new Conservative Baptist Church.

The Rev. and Mrs. Keith Fields have been in the Bible Baptist Church for nine and one-half years. Mrs. Fields has been the choir director, Sunday school teacher, counsellor of the different missionary groups and led a Bible class on Tuesday mornings. She will be greatly missed by the congregation and those from other churches who know her.
