

Blood Bath Leaves Four Gun Victims

DENVER (AP)—A calm 26-year-old laborer, muttering "I want to go home" in his native Italian tongue was held today as police traced a year-long family quarrel which erupted in a shotgun "blood bath" yesterday.

Held for investigation was Frank Archina, arrested in a tavern three blocks from the home where his parents-in-law lay dead, their son fatally wounded and a daughter critically shot.

Officers said Frank A. Macri, 63, and his wife Elizabeth, 58, were killed instantly by blasts from a 12-gauge shotgun. Their son Frank Jr., 22, died five hours later at Denver General Hospital. A daughter, Mary, 20, was in critical condition.

Archina, held without charge, denied through an interpreter that he fired the fatal shots.

The young Italian immigrant is married to a second daughter of the dead couple, Rose, 19. Police quoted her as saying she would have been shot also "but he ran out of shells."

Officers said they were told that Archina and his brother Gene were married to Rose and Mary Macri, respectively, in a double ceremony in Italy a year ago.

After emigrating to the United States, they moved into the Macris' modest, two-story frame home.

Then, according to Mike Carabatta, a nephew of the slain couple, the Macris began pleading with the two couples to remarry in a church, since their Italian wedding was a civil ceremony. Patrolman Steve Mastin said the sisters had been living in one upstairs bedroom and the brothers in another.

Their frequent quarreling over the remarriage apparently broke out anew at an afternoon luncheon, the officer said.

Snowslide Hits Rail Worker

WEST GLACIER, Mont. (AP)—Glen Stewart, signal maintainer for the Great Northern Railway, was swept 60 feet yesterday by a snowslide which thundered down on the road's main tracks.

Stewart, about 25, from Sand Point, Idaho, lost several teeth but apparently escaped serious injury. It was the sixth major snowslide in three days. This one was 1,000 feet long and 4 to 10 feet deep. Railroad traffic was restored late in the day.

SPOKANE (AP)—Mrs. Heather A. McHugh's anger turned to tears Friday night when she grabbed a dish and took a mighty backswing to throw it at her husband. Her arm went through a window just behind her. She was taken to a hospital for care of damaged tendons, artery and vein in her wrist.

Demos Plot Floor Flight Over Proposed Tax Cuts

WASHINGTON (AP)—Some House Democrats talked today of a drive to get more tax relief for families and less for stockholders and businesses in any tax revision program enacted this year.

They threatened a floor fight aimed at drastically revising a two-billion-dollar tax reduction and revision plan strongly championed by President Eisenhower and other Republicans.

Several Democrats on the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee said they hope to eliminate sections providing sharp reductions in taxes on stock and bond dividends, and much more.

changes in tax laws which will benefit everybody.

"Actually, he said, 'the plan appears to be a fundamental change in the tax structure to shift the burden of taxation from corporations and stockholders—those most able to pay—to wage earners and salaried people.'"

Eberhart said after the dividend proposal reaches full effect, a taxpayer with $2,100 in wages would pay $422 in taxes but a man with the same income from dividends would pay only $100 in taxes.

However, Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey said last night in an NBC television interview, "What helps business helps the people. . . Things that help business create more tools, more jobs and keep our economy going."
