OCU Five Stumbles In West

NEW YORK (AP)—Oklahoma City University's basketball team should be pretty mad at Horace Greeley, the "go West" man.

OCU was doing just fine while it stayed in or near its own back yard. It had won 11 games and lost only to mighty Oklahoma A&M, certainly no disgrace. The nation's experts voted OCU No. 7 in the country.

Then the team headed West. The first rude awakening came Saturday night in Laramie, Wyo., where the University of Wyoming whipped the Oklahomans 57-38 and held high-scoring Arnie Short to a mere six points.

PASTING

OCU moved on to Seattle last night and took another pasting, 79-64. Short revived to the tune of 32 points but his mates still looked homesick.

OCU dropped down a notch to No. 9 after the Wyoming beating and probably is due to drop some more. It meets Seattle again tonight.

Seattle, beaten only by Wichita in its opening game, now has won 17 straight and ranks No. 11 in the country. Joe Pehanick topped Seattle scoring with 24 points.

Oklahoma's other ranked quintet, the Cowboys from A&M, fared much better in a Missouri Valley conference game at Houston, winning handily 64-48. Big Bob ...tick connected on his first four shots from the floor and ...ound up high man with 22 points. A&M is tied for fourth with W...stern Kentucky in the latest As...ciated Press poll.

IN ACTION

Minnesota, No. 8, was the only other ranking team in action last night. It broke loose l... the second half for an 80-64 decision over Purdue.

Iowa's hustling sophomores, one of the few clubs with a chance of overhauling Indiana in the Big Ten race, outscored Northwestern by 11 points in the final quarter in winning 65-52.

Georgia Tech bowed for the 12th straight time this season and for the 18th time in a two-year span, 77-66 to Murray (Ky.) State.

Texas Christian toppled Abilene Christian 74-65.

Furillo Signed

NEW YORK (AP) — National League champ Carl Furillo signed his 1954 Brooklyn contract today, crossed his fingers and said:

"Here's hoping for another good year."

Thus within less than 24 hours the Dodgers reached contract agreements with the batting champion and the league's most valuable player, catcher Roy Campanella.

BEING CHASED—But from 3000 miles away. That's the situation Gordon Pirie, 22-year-old English track star, is in as he splashes over sodden course to victory in cross-country event at Wimbledon. A bank clerk, Pirie is being sought after by several American universities, who are offering track scholarships. (NEA)

LEAD COLT — Wilbur (Weeb) Ewbank, longtime assistant to Paul Brown as tackle tutor of the Cleveland Browns, is the new head coach of the Baltimore Colts of the National Football League.

Only nine points separate first-place Bing's Fountain and ninth-place So. Ore. Music in the 10-team league.

Strangely enough, Stone's, 18 points back in the cellar, gathered in most of the scoring honors last night. The Signal girls rolled the high series, 2494 and the second high game of 889.

Little Sweden rolled the top team game, 915 and the second best series, 2475.

Ruby Phelps of Stone's Signal Service had the high series of 510 on the best game of 196 and added lines of 139 and 175. Clara Beard, Oregon Wool, rolled a 186 game and Doris Benedict, Louie's Food, 491 series.

"I ought to," replied Brunts, "He paid for it!"

Kentucky, Dukes One-Two Again

NEW YORK (AP) — Unless their unbeaten strings are unexpectedly snapped, Kentucky and Duquesne figure to stay in the forefront of the college basketball picture.

Again this week, these powerful quintets dominate the weekly Associated Press poll with Kentucky, as usual, on top. The Wildcats (12-0) received 30 first place votes and a point total of 764 Monday from the 93 sports writers and sportscasters casting their ballots.

Duquesne, although idle last week, gained ground on the pacesetters. The Dukes (15-0) grabbed off 15 first place votes and 707 points, figured on the basis of 10 points for first place, nine for second etc. Last week Kentucky topped Duquesne by 111 points as 127 voted.

THIRD

Indiana, with a 12-1 record, remained third. The Big Ten conference leader grabbed off 13 first place votes and 640 points.

Otherwise, there was no wholesale shakeup in the first ten, although some of the teams changed positions.

Oklahoma A&M climbed into a fourth-place tie with Western Kentucky with 541 points apiece. The Aggies, who whipped Houston 64-48 Monday night, collected eight first place votes while Western Kentucky (18-0) was rated first on seven ballots. The Aggies now are 17-1.

Notre Dame, with a 10-2 slate, remained in the No. 6 spot.

Oklahoma City, victim of a 57-38 defeat by Wyoming Saturday night and a 79-64 lacing by Seattle Monday night dropped from seventh to ninth, enabling Holy Cross and Minnesota (11-2) each to move up a notch. The Crusaders (13-1) took over seventh while Minnesota, which trounced Purdue 80-64 Monday night, moved into eighth.

TENTH

George Washington, at 12-1, remained in tenth place.

Seattle and LaSalle made the most progress among the second ten teams. The West Coast club moved from 16th to 11th while LaSalle, on the strength of its 83-78 triumph over North Carolina State Saturday, climbed from 19th to 12th.

The leading teams on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 point basis (first place votes and won-lost records through Sunday in parentheses):

Grader Fatally Stabbed

DETROIT (AP) — A street fight between two 12-year-old boys after a grade school basketball game ended Monday night in the stabbing death of one of them.

James Horton, 12, died of a knife wound in the stomach on arrival at receiving hospital.

Police held a 12-year-old fifth grade classmate for investigation of murder.

Only last week school authorities banned all major high school athletes at night because of the icepick stabbing of Ross DeBoskey, 17, star basketball player, after a night basketball game. DeBoskey was badly hurt.

After Monday night's incident police said the accused boy admitted striking James with a knife but claimed it was self-defense. James, he said, attacked him in an argument that started during a regularly scheduled night contest at Cheney Elementary School. The boys, Negroes, played on opposing teams.

Witnesses said that they did not see James hit the boy. However, they told police that James threw a heavy hunting knife at him after he had been knifed and was being held up by Louis Reed, 13.

The City Council is considering an ordinance that will prohibit all students from carrying knives or other weapons, also a result of the near fatal DeBoskey stabbing.

The accused boy has been turned over to juvenile authorities.

Chiefs Win Seventeenth

SEATTLE (AP) — The second installment of the Seattle University-Arnold Short basketball series goes on stage here Tuesday night with Short and his Oklahoma City University stable mates gunning for revenge.

Short, virtually a cinch to make All-America honors, scored half of OCU's points Monday night, but the well-rounded Seattle University squad had too much soup for the Olkahomans and romped to a 79-64 victory.

BREEZE

The locals had clear sledding over OCU, rated the No. 9 team in the country in the latest Associated Press poll, as they jumped off to a 9-0 lead with only a shade over two minutes gone in the game.

The issue from then on was never in doubt as Coach Al Brightman gave the reserves lots of action against Oklahoma City.

Seattle, ranked No. 11 in the nation, handed OCU its second straight defeat on a Western road trip. The Oklahomans dropped a 57-38 decision to Wyoming last Saturday night and went into the Seattle series with an 11-2 record.

SEVENTEEN

The win extended Seattle's victory skein to 17. The Chieftains lost their season's opener to Wichita and haven't been headed since. Their record is one of the country's tops.

Seattle, with Pehanick getting 14 points and Cal Bauer eight, stormed into a 28-14 lead at the end of the first quarter. Brightman started thumbing in subs during the second quarter and switched back to the first string only late in that period when the Oklahomans started clicking.

OPEN IN DAYLIGHT

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The Cardinals will open their 1954 National League home season in a daylight game for the first time since 1949. The Cards meet the Cubs on April 13 at Busch Stadium.

This doesn't mean a change in policy for the St. Louis club which plays most of its home contests under the arcs. A heavy program of 53 night games is scheduled. Only 24 day affairs are listed, half of them on Sundays.

Wildcats May Miss Tourney

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—A newspaper's report that three top Kentucky basketball players apparently will be ineligible for the NCAA Tournament started a flurry of action on the campus today.

Athletic Director Bernie Shively said he would look into the matter immediately.

In a story appearing in today's Louisville Courier-Journal, staff writer Larry Boeck said Cliff Hagan, Frank Ramsey and Lou Tsioropoulos apparently are ineligible for the tournament under an NCAA rule disqualifying graduate students.

DEGREE

Tsioropoulos received his bachelor of arts degree last August. Hagan, an All America center two years ago, and Ramsey expect to receive their degrees at the end of the current semester this month.

Thus, Kentucky, the nation's top ranked collegiate team, would be deprived of the services of its one-two-three scoring punch if it hopes to try for the national championship.

Kentucky's one-year suspension from basketball competition for overemphasizing the sport brought on the new difficulties. Although maintaining their playing eligibility in the Southeastern Conference, the players continued to progress academically.

RULING

Oliver K. Cornwell of the University of North Carolina, a member of the NCAA Eligibility Committee, told the Courier-Journal that Kentucky had not asked an eligibility ruling on the three players to his knowledge.

"It is my opinion that all three boys are ineligible for the NCAA championship tournament," Cornwell told the paper.

Hagan, Ramsey and Tsioropoulos remained eligible for regular-season play under a Southeastern Conference rule requiring only that a player finish his four years of playing eligibility within fve years.

Coach Adolph Rupp was shocked at the disclosure.

"Why, I'm sure all three of these boys are eligible," he said. "Graduates have played in the NCAA meet before, to my certain knowledge."

Bobsled Troubles

CORTINA D'AMPEZO, Italy (AP) — The feuding United States bobsled squad was trying to patch together a pickup team Tuesday to enter the four-man championships at this Italian resort.

The American squad was thrown into an uproar Monday with the sudden departure of veteran driver Stan Benham of Lake Placid, N. Y., and his brakeman, Jim Bickford of Saranac Lake, N.Y.

They packed and left for home immediately after they finished third in the two man world championships which were won by Guglielmo Scheibeler, an Italian innkeeper. Italo Petrelli of Italy, a jet pilot, finished second.

Benham and Bickford were supposed to be the driver and brakeman on the No. 2 U.S. sled in the four man championships. They claimed they were forced to leave early because they were unable to get plane reservations immediately after the title races.

Some members of the American aggregation suggested Benham left because he figured he couldn't beat the No. 1 U. S. sled.

It will be driven by Lloyd Johnson of Rapid City, S. D., suurprise winner of last year's world title, and will be manned by an all-soldier crew of Lt. Joseph W. Smith, Cullman, Ala.; Sgt. Pat Biesiadecki, Ware, Mass., and Sgt. Ralph Durant, Burlington, Vt.

Eldorado Climbs In Loop

Eldorado Lumber may still be a threat to league-leading National Guards in the City Basketball League.

The Lumbermen trounced Metler Brothers, 61-49, last night for their fourth win in six starts and are just two games away from the unbeaten Guards.

In the other game, Klamath Creamery walloped Klamath Sons, 63-36.

Eldorado led 11-8 and 24-20 at the first two quarter stops, then pulled away with a 19-point third quarter. Eldorado's Floetke scored 29 points and Gary Dawes added 19 for the bulk of Eldorado's points.

Metlers' Hiatt and Marcum had 12 and 11 for the losers.

Larry Wills, Dick Young and Baldy Foster hit two figures with 14, 13 and 11 for the Creamery five that led the Klamath Sons 30-16 at the half and piled on a 20-point third quarter to win going away.

Games Wednesday night at Altamont pair Southern Pacific against the Metlers and the Guards against Hilltop Cafe.
