KASRU To Meet Friday

The Klamath Air Search and Rescue Unit will hold a meeting Friday, January 29 at 8 p.m. at the Pilot's Club.
Two out of town visitors will be guests at the meeting, Earl W.
Snyder, newly elected director of aeronautics for the state of Oregon will be the principal speaker, and George Douglas, state safety engineer for the board of aeronautics will also speak.
Snyder will present two colored films, "The flying business man" and "Helicopters."

Hungry Thief Is Little Trouble

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Mrs. Harry Declovich was having a peaceful slumber in her living quarters behind the cafe she operates.
An intruder barged in during the night, apparently with burglary motives.
The noise aroused Mrs. Declovich, who found the culprit behind the counter.
He said he was hungry and would settle for some ham and eggs.
She served his breakfast and he departed with a "thank you" and no loot.
Mrs. Declovich told sheriff's deputies that the man said he preferred food to money.

FOUL PLAY

NEW BEDFORD, Mass. (AP)— Patrolman Samuel Batey Jr. was sure there had been foul play when he found a woman's dress and handbag on a beach.
Fellow police hurried to the spot and as they searched for the victim they were informed the clothes had adorned a snow woman which disappeared under the sun.

an added inducement is that the guests will be participating in a philanthropic cause since all funds raised will go to the program of the Library club for paying for colleagues on local needy children.

All women in the Klamath Basin are invited to the bridge and tea party. Card playing will start at 1:00 and tea will be served at 3:30.
