Scrap Leads To Jail

Wayne D. Hickman, 38, was lodged in the city jail about 3 a.m. this morning after he had allegedly stuck a knife in the ribs of a Mr. Taylor while the two were seated at the counter of the Town Club.

According to arresting officers three persons, two men and a woman were observed standing in the doorway of the club apparently having an argument.

The officers stopped and found that Hickman had a long bladed pocket knife in his hand and was talking to Taylor. Asked to give up the knife he did so, saying "take me in if you want to."

When told by the officers to finish his coffee and go with them, Hickman, after taking a couple of swallows, suddenly grabbed Taylor by the throat and started choking him. It was necessary to use force to put him in the paddy wagon, the officers stated.

After lodging Hickman in jail the officers checked his room at the Baldwin Hotel but nothing irregular was found.

In Municipal Court this morning Judge Frank Blackmer deferred judgment in the case and set bail at $100. Hickman had been charged with disorderly conduct.

School Panel To Be Held

The proposal for the expansion of Klamath Union High School, a vital subject to parents of all students, will be the subject of a panel discussion at a meeting of Parents and Patrons in the KUHS auditorium, Wednesday, February 3, 7:30 p.m.

Speaking on the panel will be Arnold Gralapp, superintendent of city schools, Scott Warren, and Howard Perrin, Klamath Falls architect. Questions from the audience will be welcomed by the panel.

Bob Thompson, president, will preside.

A band concert, under direction of LaMar Jensen, will precede the discussion. The group will present four numbers.

Some of the questions placed by parents in the question box will be answered at this meeting. Questions pertaining to the physical education department will be answered by Joe Peak and the "work-part-time-program", will be discussed by John Lake.

Refreshments will be served in the cafeteria after the meeting by the French club with Mr. Labos in charge. The silver tea offering will go to the French club projects.

India Facing UN Defeat

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — India faced almost certain failure Friday in her request that the U. N. General Assembly meet again soon to debate Korean problems. A widespread view was that such a session would only duplicate the talks now on in Berlin and Panmunjom.

This was the last day for the 60 member nations to say whether they were for or against reconvening the Assembly Feb. 9. Only 19 of the needed majority of 31 had approved the idea—including India and the Soviet bloc. Sixteen had turned it down—including the United States and nine of her 15 Korean War allies.

Further replies before the deadline—midnight Friday—were not expected to produce the favorable majority needed to start the Assembly on the date proposed by Mrs. Vijaya Lakshmi Pandit, the Indian Assembly president. But already there was talk of an Assembly meeting in April if a Korean peace conference is no nearer.

BASIN BRIEFS

Returns Home — Mr. and Mrs. Wes Guderian have returned from Portland where they attended a photographers' convention. Guderian was reelected to the board of directors of the Photographers Association of Oregon, as well as receiving two gold seal awards for photos entered in the print quality contest. The two pictures winning the awards were of his daughter Carol and the other of Susan Lee, daughter of Ben Lee, operator of Gino's Drive Inn.

Business Trip—Walter T. (Bud) Franklin, Medo-Land Dairy, returned the first of the week from a trip to Portland.

Vacation—Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Johnson, Henley, are home from a two-weeks vacation, most of which time was spent in California visiting relatives.

March of Dimes—will receive proceeds from the sale of a 1,700-pound registered two-year - old Hereford bull donated by the Chamberlain Estate ranch of Lincoln, California, at the Red Bluff bull sale on February 4, 5 and 6. Helen O'Connel, Capitol recording singing star, will help sell the bull.

Degrees—will be given 62 midterm graduates at Pacific University, Forest Grove, on February 2, Pacific's charter day which was exactly 100 years ago. Inaugural ceremonies for Pacific's 11th president, Dr. Charles J. Armstrong, take place same day.

No Sledding—skiing or ice skating according to an announcement by the Recreation Department.

Radio Auction—purchasers who have not received delivery of their items are asked to call Roy Rowe at 5425. Money for the items or to cover pledges on the tricycle may be sent to Jess Litwiller, March of Dimes treasurer, in care of the First National Bank of Portland, Klamath Falls. The March of Dimes committee says that pledge money is coming in fine, but they would appreciate everyone responding immediately so that books may be closed.

Enrollment Up—Final enrollment figures for the winter term now underway at Southern Oregon college reflect an 8.6 per cent increase over last year at the same time. A total of 579 students are enrolled.

Named—Beverley Jones, teacher education student from Klamath Falls, has been named senior class representative at Southern Oregon college.

Shasta PTA—will observe annual "Dad's Night", Friday, January 29. There will be a panel discussion, "Our Children's Heritage," with the following taking part: Harold Ashley, Vincent Bousquet, George Alder and Ronald Phair. There will also be other entertainment. Fourth grade mothers will serve refreshments.

Services—Sunday, January 31, at the Congregational Church, 2150 Garden Street will be conducted 11 a.m. by the Rev. Albert O. Broyles, local retired minister.

Pictures—"Let's Get Out," released by General Motors, will be shown by Paul Mauldin, now with Parker Pontiac at a social meeting of the Merrill grange.

Planned—a "Folk Lore Festival of Speech," on the Old Oregon Trail, is to be presented in the recreation hall of the LDS Church, 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, February 2. Several pioneers are expected to be on the program that will be directed by Mrs. Jessie Lee Hosford.

Away—Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Roycroft left January 28 for Eugene on the Shasta Daylight where they will attend the annual conference of the Willamette Agency of the Standard Insurance company. Roycroft will appear on the panel discussions with other agents and home office officials and at the agency banquet will receive the '30 Grand Cup," for the fifth consecutive year. They will be at the Eugene hotel and will return on the Daylight Sunday.

Improving — Mrs. Della Frailey, Tulelake, patient at Hillside for medical treatment has improved enough to return to her home.

Home — Mr. and Mrs. Scott Thompson, Rt. 1, Box 858 have returned from an extended vacation in Florida, Indiana and Detroit, Michigan. They left here December 5.

To Salem—Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Morgan, 1226 Division, spent Wednesday in Salem, visiting their daughter Linda, who attends school there.

Kalpine Plywood—company will start dryer operations Sunday night at midnight and the regular crew will begin work Monday morning, at 8 o'clock.

On Business—Vint Green, field representative for the veterans affairs administration, was a business visitor in Klamath Falls this week, from his home in Bend.

Alsike Meet Set Feb. 1

TULELAKE—Alsike clover seed producers of the Klamath Basin will meet Monday, February 1 at the office of the Tulelake Growers Assn., to discuss the advisability of sending a representative from this area to Washington, D.C., to attend a hearing, February 16, called by the U.S. Tariff Commission.

Purpose of the meeting is to study the present tariff laws affecting imports of clover seed.

The meeting here has been called following a letter from U. S. Congressman Claire Engle, California, who believes that a delegate to the meeting, who is well-advised on the clover seed situation on the West coast, should be sent East.

It had been previously suggested that a hearing be held in the West.

Representatives of various agricultural groups will attend the Tulelake meeting.

State Cops Nail 41,402

SALEM (AP) — Oregon's state police made 41,402 arrests in 1953 for violations of traffic laws, and issued 175,158 warnings for such offenses, State Police Supt. H. G. Maison said Friday.

Fines and sentences for these traffic offenses totaled $552,606 and 33,219 days in jail.

The officers made 1,255 arrests for drunken driving, 4,346 for violating the basic speed law, and 681 for reckless driving.

The state officers also made 5,245 arrests for general crimes. These include 17 for murder, 12 for manslaughter, 208 for assault, 23 for robbery, 235 for burglary, and 1,449 for drunkenness.

Maison said his game law enforcement division made 2,750 arrests and issued 2,878 warnings, these fines totaling $110,373.

There were 194 arrests and 250 warnings for violations of commercial fishing laws.

The state police bureau of investigation now has 1,027,562 index cards on file. It has 455,455 fingerprint cards of known criminals, and 12,811 fingerprint cards of civilians.

The crme detection laboratory made 428 examinations, including 49 autopsies.

SNOW

LONDON (AP) — Europe's cold wave eased a bit Friday but snow and ice snarled road, rail and river transport in parts of England and the continent.

Gouzenko Puts Caution Tag On Red

WASHINGTON (AP) — Igor Gouzenko, the Soviet embassy code clerk who tipped off authorities to a spy ring in Canada, has tagged Georgi N. Zaroubin, Soviet ambassador to the United States, as a man to be watched.

Gouzenko was interviewed in Canada by Drew Pearson. The interview was filmed for television use and the transcript made public here Friday.

Pearson brought out in his questioning that Zaroubin was ambassador to Canada while Gouzenko, before his desertion in 1945, was handling coded intelligence messages to Moscow.

Gouzenko spoke of the Soviet espionage organization in Canada and said Zaroubin "knew about the general setup; he didn't know, of course, about details."

Pearson asked, "Would you consider him a dangerous man to have in Washington...?"

"I would suggest to watch him, to be careful," Gouzenko replied.

Gouzenko wore a mask during the interview. Pearson explained "his life is constantly in danger." The exact location of the interview was not disclosed. Gouzenko's whereabouts have been kept secret since he went under Canadian protection.

Most of the interview reviewed Gouzenko's story, told during the Canadian spy investigation, of how Soviet espionage operated and how he broke with the embas... in touch with Canadian ...
