

MR. AND MRS. DON RALPH . . . Bonanza, announce the marriage of their daughter, Margaret, to Duane Joseph Chartrand, Saginaw, Michigan. The wedding, October 2, was at the home of his parents in that state. The couple is now living at Pensacola, where he is stationed with the U. S. Navy. Margaret is a graduate of Bonanza High School; and was in the WAVES until her marriage.

MR. AND MRS. ROSCOE PAINE . . . of Junction City, recently announced the engagement of their daughter, Joan Louise, to Lt. Harold E. Balin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Balin, Spring Lake District. The Balins are a pioneer family in the Klamath Basin, and Lt. Balin received his early schooling here. He is a graduate of Henley High School and Oregon State College, where he was affiliated with Delta Upsilon fraternity. He is now in flight training at Hondo Air Force Base, Texas.

THE FORMER Jacqueline Schroeder, daughter of Mrs. Norman Wimer, Chiloquin and Orville Schroeder, Bonanza, became the bride of Albert Joe Rossi, son of Nick Rossi, Chiloquin, Monday, December 29, in Reno. The bride wore a rose colored dress with black and amethyst accessories.

A NEW PERSONALITY . . . at Lackland Air Force Base, Antonio, is Mary Ann Kirkpatrick, who arrived there recently for training in the WAFS. Mary Ann was graduated from Klamath last year, and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Kirkpatrick, 1981 Harriman.

Fort Klamath

BY MYRTLE WIMER
Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ober Brown were her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Morstad, Michael and Beverly, Klamath Falls. The group started to Crater Lake to take pictures of the "Gem of the Cascades" in its wintertime setting of snow, but turned back at the Annie Springs checking station, as the road to the rim was closed. Morstad owns and operates Leo's Camera Shop in Klamath Falls, and had intended to take pictures in connection with his work. Instead the visitors spent the rest of the day with the Browns.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kephart left Monday, January 25, for their home near Modesto, California, after having visited since the previous Wednesday at the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Rightmeyer. The former is reported much improved in health and is under the care of a Klamath Falls physician.

Omission of a line of type from the account of the recent death of Ernest H. Burnham, gave the impression that his widow, Callie Hartley, is the Stockton resident. Instead her stepmother, Mrs. Frank Hartley, is the Stockton resident. Mrs. Burnham lives at Forest Grove, where she and her husband resided for many years.

Lloyd O. (Blackie) Hauptman has made a welcome donation to the Civic Improvement Club. While making changes in the Old Fort Tavern which he recently leased, he decided the shuffleboard should be removed from the cafe, and gave it to the local women's organization. A volunteer moving crew transported it to its new home in the C. I. clubhouse, where it will provide recreation for Boy Scouts and others. A vote of thanks is extended by the community to Hauptman for his generosity. Hauptman has been located here only since January when he assumed management of the Old Fort Tavern, Cafe and Bronco room from its previous owners, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Thomas.

While looking for a suitable residence into which they plan to move soon, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Olson, Vodine and Christine spent the weekend in Medford visiting friends and relatives. They plan to move soon. They have been operating the Crater Lake Cafe and Tavern since purchasing it last summer from Charles J. Brice, now at Merrill, Wisconsin, and the coming move is made necessary due to Olson's physical condition. Definite arrangements in regard to managing his local property have not as yet been completed. In the meantime, Don Wimer will continue in charge of the business for the Olsons.

Sharon Hescocq was released Friday, January 22, from Klamath Valley Hospital in Klamath Falls, where she underwent an appendectomy the previous Tuesday. Sharon is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur B. Hescocq, and is recuperating from the recent surgery. She will be able soon to resume her studies at Chiloquin High School.

Also returning home from the same hospital the same day was Donald Sanders Sr., who underwent major surgery Saturday, January 18. He is also getting along fine now.

R. Seth Dixon made a business trip here and to Klamath Falls last week from San Francisco, California, where he and Mrs. Dixon are spending the winter months.

LANGELL VALLEY — Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Graves entertained with a turkey dinner at their home January 2 in honor of their daughter Mary Jo, of Klamath Falls who was celebrating her birthday.

Guests were Mary Jo, Pat Cornish and Mrs. Mary Smith and Stevie of Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith Jr., Brett, Cheryl, and Craig Smith and Alice Graves.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kephart left Monday, January 25, for their home near Modesto, California, after having visited since the previous Wednesday at the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Rightmeyer. The former is reported much improved in health and is under the care of a Klamath Falls physician.

Omission of a line of type from the account of the recent death of Ernest H. Burnham, gave the impression that his widow, Callie Hartley, is the Stockton resident. Instead her stepmother, Mrs. Frank Hartley, is the Stockton resident. Mrs. Burnham lives at Forest Grove, where she and her husband resided for many years.

Lloyd O. (Blackie) Hauptman has made a welcome donation to the Civic Improvement Club. While making changes in the Old Fort Tavern which he recently leased, he decided the shuffleboard should be removed from the cafe, and gave it to the local women's organization. A volunteer moving crew transported it to its new home in the C. I. clubhouse, where it will provide recreation for Boy Scouts and others. A vote of thanks is extended by the community to Hauptman for his generosity. Hauptman has been located here only since January when he assumed management of the Old Fort Tavern, Cafe and Bronco room from its previous owners, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Thomas.

While looking for a suitable residence into which they plan to move soon, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Olson, Vodine and Christine spent the weekend in Medford visiting friends and relatives. They plan to move soon. They have been operating the Crater Lake Cafe and Tavern since purchasing it last summer from Charles J. Brice, now at Merrill, Wisconsin, and the coming move is made necessary due to Olson's physical condition. Definite arrangements in regard to managing his local property have not as yet been completed. In the meantime, Don Wimer will continue in charge of the business for the Olsons.

Sharon Hescocq was released Friday, January 22, from Klamath Valley Hospital in Klamath Falls, where she underwent an appendectomy the previous Tuesday. Sharon is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur B. Hescocq, and is recuperating from the recent surgery. She will be able soon to resume her studies at Chiloquin High School.

Also returning home from the same hospital the same day was Donald Sanders Sr., who underwent major surgery Saturday, January 18. He is also getting along fine now.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kephart left Monday, January 25, for their home near Modesto, California, after having visited since the previous Wednesday at the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Rightmeyer. The former is reported much improved in health and is under the care of a Klamath Falls physician.

Omission of a line of type from the account of the recent death of Ernest H. Burnham, gave the impression that his widow, Callie Hartley, is the Stockton resident. Instead her stepmother, Mrs. Frank Hartley, is the Stockton resident. Mrs. Burnham lives at Forest Grove, where she and her husband resided for many years.

Lloyd O. (Blackie) Hauptman has made a welcome donation to the Civic Improvement Club. While making changes in the Old Fort Tavern which he recently leased, he decided the shuffleboard should be removed from the cafe, and gave it to the local women's organization. A volunteer moving crew transported it to its new home in the C. I. clubhouse, where it will provide recreation for Boy Scouts and others. A vote of thanks is extended by the community to Hauptman for his generosity. Hauptman has been located here only since January when he assumed management of the Old Fort Tavern, Cafe and Bronco room from its previous owners, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Thomas.

While looking for a suitable residence into which they plan to move soon, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Olson, Vodine and Christine spent the weekend in Medford visiting friends and relatives. They plan to move soon. They have been operating the Crater Lake Cafe and Tavern since purchasing it last summer from Charles J. Brice, now at Merrill, Wisconsin, and the coming move is made necessary due to Olson's physical condition. Definite arrangements in regard to managing his local property have not as yet been completed. In the meantime, Don Wimer will continue in charge of the business for the Olsons.

Sharon Hescocq was released Friday, January 22, from Klamath Valley Hospital in Klamath Falls, where she underwent an appendectomy the previous Tuesday. Sharon is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur B. Hescocq, and is recuperating from the recent surgery. She will be able soon to resume her studies at Chiloquin High School.

Also returning home from the same hospital the same day was Donald Sanders Sr., who underwent major surgery Saturday, January 18. He is also getting along fine now.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kephart left Monday, January 25, for their home near Modesto, California, after having visited since the previous Wednesday at the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Rightmeyer. The former is reported much improved in health and is under the care of a Klamath Falls physician.

Omission of a line of type from the account of the recent death of Ernest H. Burnham, gave the impression that his widow, Callie Hartley, is the Stockton resident. Instead her stepmother, Mrs. Frank Hartley, is the Stockton resident. Mrs. Burnham lives at Forest Grove, where she and her husband resided for many years.

Lloyd O. (Blackie) Hauptman has made a welcome donation to the Civic Improvement Club. While making changes in the Old Fort Tavern which he recently leased, he decided the shuffleboard should be removed from the cafe, and gave it to the local women's organization. A volunteer moving crew transported it to its new home in the C. I. clubhouse, where it will provide recreation for Boy Scouts and others. A vote of thanks is extended by the community to Hauptman for his generosity. Hauptman has been located here only since January when he assumed management of the Old Fort Tavern, Cafe and Bronco room from its previous owners, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Thomas.

While looking for a suitable residence into which they plan to move soon, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Olson, Vodine and Christine spent the weekend in Medford visiting friends and relatives. They plan to move soon. They have been operating the Crater Lake Cafe and Tavern since purchasing it last summer from Charles J. Brice, now at Merrill, Wisconsin, and the coming move is made necessary due to Olson's physical condition. Definite arrangements in regard to managing his local property have not as yet been completed. In the meantime, Don Wimer will continue in charge of the business for the Olsons.

Sharon Hescocq was released Friday, January 22, from Klamath Valley Hospital in Klamath Falls, where she underwent an appendectomy the previous Tuesday. Sharon is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur B. Hescocq, and is recuperating from the recent surgery. She will be able soon to resume her studies at Chiloquin High School.

Also returning home from the same hospital the same day was Donald Sanders Sr., who underwent major surgery Saturday, January 18. He is also getting along fine now.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kephart left Monday, January 25, for their home near Modesto, California, after having visited since the previous Wednesday at the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Rightmeyer. The former is reported much improved in health and is under the care of a Klamath Falls physician.

Omission of a line of type from the account of the recent death of Ernest H. Burnham, gave the impression that his widow, Callie Hartley, is the Stockton resident. Instead her stepmother, Mrs. Frank Hartley, is the Stockton resident. Mrs. Burnham lives at Forest Grove, where she and her husband resided for many years.

Lloyd O. (Blackie) Hauptman has made a welcome donation to the Civic Improvement Club. While making changes in the Old Fort Tavern which he recently leased, he decided the shuffleboard should be removed from the cafe, and gave it to the local women's organization. A volunteer moving crew transported it to its new home in the C. I. clubhouse, where it will provide recreation for Boy Scouts and others. A vote of thanks is extended by the community to Hauptman for his generosity. Hauptman has been located here only since January when he assumed management of the Old Fort Tavern, Cafe and Bronco room from its previous owners, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Thomas.

While looking for a suitable residence into which they plan to move soon, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Olson, Vodine and Christine spent the weekend in Medford visiting friends and relatives. They plan to move soon. They have been operating the Crater Lake Cafe and Tavern since purchasing it last summer from Charles J. Brice, now at Merrill, Wisconsin, and the coming move is made necessary due to Olson's physical condition. Definite arrangements in regard to managing his local property have not as yet been completed. In the meantime, Don Wimer will continue in charge of the business for the Olsons.

Sharon Hescocq was released Friday, January 22, from Klamath Valley Hospital in Klamath Falls, where she underwent an appendectomy the previous Tuesday. Sharon is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur B. Hescocq, and is recuperating from the recent surgery. She will be able soon to resume her studies at Chiloquin High School.

Also returning home from the same hospital the same day was Donald Sanders Sr., who underwent major surgery Saturday, January 18. He is also getting along fine now.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kephart left Monday, January 25, for their home near Modesto, California, after having visited since the previous Wednesday at the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Rightmeyer. The former is reported much improved in health and is under the care of a Klamath Falls physician.

Omission of a line of type from the account of the recent death of Ernest H. Burnham, gave the impression that his widow, Callie Hartley, is the Stockton resident. Instead her stepmother, Mrs. Frank Hartley, is the Stockton resident. Mrs. Burnham lives at Forest Grove, where she and her husband resided for many years.

Lloyd O. (Blackie) Hauptman has made a welcome donation to the Civic Improvement Club. While making changes in the Old Fort Tavern which he recently leased, he decided the shuffleboard should be removed from the cafe, and gave it to the local women's organization. A volunteer moving crew transported it to its new home in the C. I. clubhouse, where it will provide recreation for Boy Scouts and others. A vote of thanks is extended by the community to Hauptman for his generosity. Hauptman has been located here only since January when he assumed management of the Old Fort Tavern, Cafe and Bronco room from its previous owners, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Thomas.

While looking for a suitable residence into which they plan to move soon, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Olson, Vodine and Christine spent the weekend in Medford visiting friends and relatives. They plan to move soon. They have been operating the Crater Lake Cafe and Tavern since purchasing it last summer from Charles J. Brice, now at Merrill, Wisconsin, and the coming move is made necessary due to Olson's physical condition. Definite arrangements in regard to managing his local property have not as yet been completed. In the meantime, Don Wimer will continue in charge of the business for the Olsons.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kephart left Monday, January 25, for their home near Modesto, California, after having visited since the previous Wednesday at the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Rightmeyer. The former is reported much improved in health and is under the care of a Klamath Falls physician.

Omission of a line of type from the account of the recent death of Ernest H. Burnham, gave the impression that his widow, Callie Hartley, is the Stockton resident. Instead her stepmother, Mrs. Frank Hartley, is the Stockton resident. Mrs. Burnham lives at Forest Grove, where she and her husband resided for many years.

Lloyd O. (Blackie) Hauptman has made a welcome donation to the Civic Improvement Club. While making changes in the Old Fort Tavern which he recently leased, he decided the shuffleboard should be removed from the cafe, and gave it to the local women's organization. A volunteer moving crew transported it to its new home in the C. I. clubhouse, where it will provide recreation for Boy Scouts and others. A vote of thanks is extended by the community to Hauptman for his generosity. Hauptman has been located here only since January when he assumed management of the Old Fort Tavern, Cafe and Bronco room from its previous owners, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Thomas.

While looking for a suitable residence into which they plan to move soon, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Olson, Vodine and Christine spent the weekend in Medford visiting friends and relatives. They plan to move soon. They have been operating the Crater Lake Cafe and Tavern since purchasing it last summer from Charles J. Brice, now at Merrill, Wisconsin, and the coming move is made necessary due to Olson's physical condition. Definite arrangements in regard to managing his local property have not as yet been completed. In the meantime, Don Wimer will continue in charge of the business for the Olsons.

Sharon Hescocq was released Friday, January 22, from Klamath Valley Hospital in Klamath Falls, where she underwent an appendectomy the previous Tuesday. Sharon is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur B. Hescocq, and is recuperating from the recent surgery. She will be able soon to resume her studies at Chiloquin High School.

Also returning home from the same hospital the same day was Donald Sanders Sr., who underwent major surgery Saturday, January 18. He is also getting along fine now.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kephart left Monday, January 25, for their home near Modesto, California, after having visited since the previous Wednesday at the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Rightmeyer. The former is reported much improved in health and is under the care of a Klamath Falls physician.

Omission of a line of type from the account of the recent death of Ernest H. Burnham, gave the impression that his widow, Callie Hartley, is the Stockton resident. Instead her stepmother, Mrs. Frank Hartley, is the Stockton resident. Mrs. Burnham lives at Forest Grove, where she and her husband resided for many years.

Lloyd O. (Blackie) Hauptman has made a welcome donation to the Civic Improvement Club. While making changes in the Old Fort Tavern which he recently leased, he decided the shuffleboard should be removed from the cafe, and gave it to the local women's organization. A volunteer moving crew transported it to its new home in the C. I. clubhouse, where it will provide recreation for Boy Scouts and others. A vote of thanks is extended by the community to Hauptman for his generosity. Hauptman has been located here only since January when he assumed management of the Old Fort Tavern, Cafe and Bronco room from its previous owners, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Thomas.

While looking for a suitable residence into which they plan to move soon, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Olson, Vodine and Christine spent the weekend in Medford visiting friends and relatives. They plan to move soon. They have been operating the Crater Lake Cafe and Tavern since purchasing it last summer from Charles J. Brice, now at Merrill, Wisconsin, and the coming move is made necessary due to Olson's physical condition. Definite arrangements in regard to managing his local property have not as yet been completed. In the meantime, Don Wimer will continue in charge of the business for the Olsons.

Sharon Hescocq was released Friday, January 22, from Klamath Valley Hospital in Klamath Falls, where she underwent an appendectomy the previous Tuesday. Sharon is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur B. Hescocq, and is recuperating from the recent surgery. She will be able soon to resume her studies at Chiloquin High School.

Also returning home from the same hospital the same day was Donald Sanders Sr., who underwent major surgery Saturday, January 18. He is also getting along fine now.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kephart left Monday, January 25, for their home near Modesto, California, after having visited since the previous Wednesday at the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Rightmeyer. The former is reported much improved in health and is under the care of a Klamath Falls physician.

Omission of a line of type from the account of the recent death of Ernest H. Burnham, gave the impression that his widow, Callie Hartley, is the Stockton resident. Instead her stepmother, Mrs. Frank Hartley, is the Stockton resident. Mrs. Burnham lives at Forest Grove, where she and her husband resided for many years.

Lloyd O. (Blackie) Hauptman has made a welcome donation to the Civic Improvement Club. While making changes in the Old Fort Tavern which he recently leased, he decided the shuffleboard should be removed from the cafe, and gave it to the local women's organization. A volunteer moving crew transported it to its new home in the C. I. clubhouse, where it will provide recreation for Boy Scouts and others. A vote of thanks is extended by the community to Hauptman for his generosity. Hauptman has been located here only since January when he assumed management of the Old Fort Tavern, Cafe and Bronco room from its previous owners, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Thomas.

While looking for a suitable residence into which they plan to move soon, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Olson, Vodine and Christine spent the weekend in Medford visiting friends and relatives. They plan to move soon. They have been operating the Crater Lake Cafe and Tavern since purchasing it last summer from Charles J. Brice, now at Merrill, Wisconsin, and the coming move is made necessary due to Olson's physical condition. Definite arrangements in regard to managing his local property have not as yet been completed. In the meantime, Don Wimer will continue in charge of the business for the Olsons.

Sharon Hescocq was released Friday, January 22, from Klamath Valley Hospital in Klamath Falls, where she underwent an appendectomy the previous Tuesday. Sharon is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur B. Hescocq, and is recuperating from the recent surgery. She will be able soon to resume her studies at Chiloquin High School.

Also returning home from the same hospital the same day was Donald Sanders Sr., who underwent major surgery Saturday, January 18. He is also getting along fine now.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kephart left Monday, January 25, for their home near Modesto, California, after having visited since the previous Wednesday at the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Rightmeyer. The former is reported much improved in health and is under the care of a Klamath Falls physician.

Omission of a line of type from the account of the recent death of Ernest H. Burnham, gave the impression that his widow, Callie Hartley, is the Stockton resident. Instead her stepmother, Mrs. Frank Hartley, is the Stockton resident. Mrs. Burnham lives at Forest Grove, where she and her husband resided for many years.

Lloyd O. (Blackie) Hauptman has made a welcome donation to the Civic Improvement Club. While making changes in the Old Fort Tavern which he recently leased, he decided the shuffleboard should be removed from the cafe, and gave it to the local women's organization. A volunteer moving crew transported it to its new home in the C. I. clubhouse, where it will provide recreation for Boy Scouts and others. A vote of thanks is extended by the community to Hauptman for his generosity. Hauptman has been located here only since January when he assumed management of the Old Fort Tavern, Cafe and Bronco room from its previous owners, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Thomas.

While looking for a suitable residence into which they plan to move soon, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Olson, Vodine and Christine spent the weekend in Medford visiting friends and relatives. They plan to move soon. They have been operating the Crater Lake Cafe and Tavern since purchasing it last summer from Charles J. Brice, now at Merrill, Wisconsin, and the coming move is made necessary due to Olson's physical condition. Definite arrangements in regard to managing his local property have not as yet been completed. In the meantime, Don Wimer will continue in charge of the business for the Olsons.

WSCS TEA COMMITTEE MEMBERS . . . The above were responsible for the successful benefit tea given by the Woman's Society of Christian Service January 21 in the parlors of the First Methodist Church. Proceeds went to the Methodist Home in Salem.

Pouring, Mrs. Earl Redman, left, past president of WSCS; and Mrs. Joe Bramhall, president, now serving her second term. Standing, from the left, Mrs. Frank P. Steele, secretary of social relations; Mrs. E. B. Sinclair, Mrs. M. W. Hoyer, promotion secretary; Mrs. Lorena Ward, spiritual life secretary; Mrs. H. K. Tavenner, Mrs. Steve Moss, sub-district president, Mrs. Eldred Putnam, secretary local church activities — and also chairman of the recent tea; and Mrs. Earl Sheridan, vocal soloist for the afternoon.

later at the Dearborn home. Present were Michele Brett, Alice Graves, Mary Anne Leavitt, Catherine Dearborn, Kenneth Stalnaker, Harold Snyder, Bill Morris, Gary Cunningham and Billy Dearborn.

LANGELL VALLEY — A group of young people enjoyed a toboggan party at Partridge Hill Sunday evening, with refreshments served at the Dearborn home. Present were Michele Brett, Alice Graves, Mary Anne Leavitt, Catherine Dearborn, Kenneth Stalnaker, Harold Snyder, Bill Morris, Gary Cunningham and Billy Dearborn.

LANGELL VALLEY — A group of young people enjoyed a toboggan party at Partridge Hill Sunday evening, with refreshments served at the Dearborn home. Present were Michele Brett, Alice Graves, Mary Anne Leavitt, Catherine Dearborn, Kenneth Stalnaker, Harold Snyder, Bill Morris, Gary Cunningham and Billy Dearborn.

LANGELL VALLEY — A group of young people enjoyed a toboggan party at Partridge Hill Sunday evening, with refreshments served at the Dearborn home. Present were Michele Brett, Alice Graves, Mary Anne Leavitt, Catherine Dearborn, Kenneth Stalnaker, Harold Snyder, Bill Morris, Gary Cunningham and Billy Dearborn.

LANGELL VALLEY — A group of young people enjoyed a toboggan party at Partridge Hill Sunday evening, with refreshments served at the Dearborn home. Present were Michele Brett, Alice Graves, Mary Anne Leavitt, Catherine Dearborn, Kenneth Stalnaker, Harold Snyder, Bill Morris, Gary Cunningham and Billy Dearborn.

LANGELL VALLEY — A group of young people enjoyed a toboggan party at Partridge Hill Sunday evening, with refreshments served

Hollywood Bread advertisement featuring a woman's portrait and text describing the bread's benefits and availability.

Crater Lake's Waters advertisement featuring a cartoon character and text promoting the purity of the water.

Lee Hendricks beauty products advertisement featuring a woman's face and a list of products.

Cascade Laundry & Dry Cleaners advertisement featuring a cartoon character and text about laundry services.