Membership Drive At "Y" Opens This Week; Group Seeking Adult Interest

Your YMCA is having a campaign this week to enroll as many adult members as possible in the organization. This is economically necessary in order to keep the program operating at least at its current level of 12 hours a day six days a week with the basic ideal of service to youth.

Charges by District Attorney Frank Alderson that city and county officials declined to cooperate with him in filing charges against Paula Benton for alleged operation of a bawdyhouse brought "no comment" Monday.

In the meantime, a hearing has been set in District Court for Thursday on the charge of armed robbery against Raymond J. Bodinet, 31, Portland, who is alleged to have participated in a holdup at the establishment purported to have been operated by the Benton woman at 648 Spring St.

When asked about the missing witnesses, Alderson said the FBI may be asked to aid in locating them. There is a federal statute under which the Federal Bureau of Investigation can apprehend persons for flight to escape prosecution.

Two women involved in the alleged holdup, Tinka Taylor and Terry Miller, have not been subpoenaed for Bodinet's preliminary hearing. They are now at liberty under $500 bail each as material witnesses.

Bonds of $50 each were forfeited when they failed to appear on vagrancy charges. Subpoenas have been issued for the Benton woman and Elizabeth Caldwell, Negro maid at the Spring St. establishments, to appear at the preliminary hearing.

Weston Trucker, of Youth for Christ International, will speak at the Salvation Army extensively on Tuesday, February 2, through Sunday, February 7, at 7:45 p. m.

Trucker has just returned to the United States from an evangelistic tour of India under the auspices of India-Ceylon Youth for Christ. After a stay of five months in India, Trucker visited the Youth for Christ personnel and work in Italy, France and Germany and concluded his world tour in Belfast, Ireland, where he conducted a two-week evangelistic campaign.

Trucker has had a varied ministry, having traveled extensively in the United States and Canada in evangelistic work. Prior to his association with Youth for Christ, Trucker served for three years as an officer in the Salvation Army. Upon his resignation from that organization he attended the Moody Bible Institute, and has since been actively engaged in the work of Youth for Christ in the Pacific Northwest.

Communists Accuse U. S. Ambassador

Rome (AP) — Communists opened fire on U.S. Ambassador Clare Boothe Luce with posters Monday as President Luigi Einaudi began another weary search for a premier.

The 79-year-old President first received elder statesman Enrico de Nicola at the Quirinale Palace, opening consultations with the nation's political leaders on how to pull Italy out of its chronic political crisis.

About the same time, Italian police tore down posters assailing the American envoy and accusing her of meddling in Italian politics.

The posters carried an unflattering picture of Mrs. Luce. They charged she had conferred with center political leaders during the recent — and now continuing — political crisis.

"Non siamo una colonia americana," they declared. De Nicola was received in his capacity as first president of the Italian Republic.

There were indications that the premier — designate might once again be veteran and pro-American statesman Alcide de Gasperi. His battered Christian Democrat Party Monday appeared once again to be aiming at a center group coalition to solve the nation's six-month-old crisis.

KF Man In Art Picture

The January 23 issue of "Saturday Evening Post" carries a feature article on the Art Center School in Los Angeles. Among the pictures is one of a group of students at the school, and on the far right of the group is George McMahan, for six years a student at the school.

McMahan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert McMahan, 932 Owens. He graduated from Klamath Union High School and attended OTI one year.

Bloodmobile Trip Slated

Folks at Chiloquin, the Klamath Agency, Fort Klamath and Modoc Point will have a chance to contribute blood February 10 at Chiloquin instead of driving to Klamath Falls for a visit of the Red Cross Bloodmobile, according to an announcement made by Mrs. Virginia Dixon, Red Cross secretary, today.

This is the first time the big truck has made a visit to Chiloquin and the quota for that area is 150 pints of blood.

Volunteers from here and from the various towns in the perimeter of the planned visit will assist. Chairman of the receiving committee for Chiloquin is Mrs. Walter Zimmerman. Mrs. Lucille Bralton and Mrs. Myrtle Wimer are chairmen for Fort Klamath. Mrs. Dorothy O'Neill, Modoc Point and Mrs. E. J. Diehl, Klamath Agency.

Hours will be from 4-7 p. m. in the Chiloquin high school gym. All persons eligible to donate are urged to sign pledge cards or to go to the gym to contribute.

The next visit of the bloodmobile here in Klamath Falls, will be March 29-30.

There will be initiation of new members by the American Legion auxiliary Tuesday, February 2, at the Memorial hall, Fourth and Klamath avenue.

Past presidents will be in charge of initiation.

Officials Silent On Legal Case

Charges by District Attorney Frank Alderson that city and county officials declined to cooperate with him in filing charges against Paula Benton for alleged operation of a bawdyhouse brought "no comment" Monday.

Alderson stated Saturday that he asked the chief of police and the sheriff to sign complaints against the Benton woman and both refused.

One official who refused to be quoted criticized Alderson "off the record." He said he and three women were bound and gagged. Two women are reported to have been robbed. The way the case is being handled, I doubt very much if the suspect in jail can be convicted. The only material witnesses in the case besides the policeman have themselves been charged with crimes by the district attorney. Also, they have all left Klamath Falls and their whereabouts are unknown.

Bonds of $50 each were forfeited when they failed to appear on vagrancy charges. Subpoenas have been issued for the Benton woman and Elizabeth Caldwell, Negro maid at the Spring St. establishments, to appear at the preliminary hearing.

Weston Trucker, of Youth for Christ International, will speak at the Salvation Army extensively on Tuesday, February 2, through Sunday, February 7, at 7:45 p. m.

State Sues For Land

SALEM (AP) — The State Board of Control brought suit Monday to get possession of a lot it needs for construction of the $400,000 State Department of Finance building.

The lot, located on the corner of 12th and Ferry streets, was sold to the board by Mr. and Mrs. Hjalmar Anderson, Turner.

But Clifton H. Erickson, who rented the property for his wheel aligning shop, refused to vacate it, saying he has an option to lease the property for the next five years. Erickson had been leasing it on a month-to-month basis, and the state served him with a 30-day notice to vacate on last Dec. 8.

The board already has awarded the $359,799 construction contract to A. V. Peterson, Portland. The contract provides that construction start in February, and the board fears that a delay in taking over the property might result in cancellation of Peterson's contract.

The court action was brought in Marion County district court.

Boys Blamed For Fire In Home

PORTLAND (AP) — Two boys playing with matches were blamed for a fire which did an estimated $5,000 to $10,000 damage to a home here Saturday.

One of the boys, Charles Rowland, 4, suffered hand and face burns. Tommy Otis, 6, son of the owner of the home, escaped injury.

There will be initiation of new members by the American Legion auxiliary Tuesday, February 2, at the Memorial hall, Fourth and Klamath avenue.

Past presidents will be in charge of initiation.
