Full House in Sight For Wrestling Return

Advance ticket sales indicate those that miss Wednesday night's season-opening wrestling program at the Armory will wish they hadn't.

Matchmaker Mack Lillard, back at the old stand after a winter vacation, is opening with a mat menu that should satisfy even the most particular customers.

The Great Atlas, claimant of the "world's strongest man" title, is back in Klamath Falls after more than two years absence. His opponent will be David Jons, a London lad who scored a smashing hit here on several early-winter cards.

Atlas is a New York strongman who backs up his muscle-rippling with prodigous feats of strength. He's a television star of long standing who has whipped some of the top wrestlers in the country.

Jons, no hooligan, is junior heavyweight champion of England, a good-looking workman who plays it straight with a broad knowledge of wrestling's holds and the various gimmicks in the trade.

This top bout is booked for one hour or shorter if one of the principals scores two falls before the 60 minutes expires.

Two supporting bouts are 30-minute affairs—also with the two-of-three-fall stipulation—one of which brings back Mr. Popularity himself, Georges Dusette, the powerful Canadian who comes back after a long stay-away.

Dusette faces the only newcomer on the card, one who promises to earn the fans' wrath in short order. He is Jack (Cueball) Rush, a rough, tough character who calls Boston home.

Danno McDonald and Bronco Lublich, two pleasing performers, warm the house in the 8:30 curtain-raiser.

Brisk ticket sales at Castleberry Drugs, 530 Main, are expected to pick up even more today and tomorrow for the return of the mid-week mayhem.

The Pacific Coast Conference Northern Division basketball chase headed into its second half Monday and only one thing was certain—the eventual outcome still is uncertain.

The University of Oregon Ducks have the inside track at present, leading the five loop members with a 6-2 record and a chance to widen the breach Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

The Ducks host on those nights the Washington State Cougars, who, for the most part, have been completely ineffective this season.

Oregon State, the second-place team at 5-3, takes over host chores for the Cougars Friday and Saturday nights. At the same time, Idaho, in the No. 3 spot with 4-4, travels to Seattle and a two-game series with Washington.

FOURTH

Washington State holds down fourth place with a 2-4 record, while Washington's Huskies bring up the tail - end of the standings at 1-5.

Oregon State, pre-season favorite to cop the division title, found prosperity too hard to take after last Friday night's 52-41 victory over Oregon and dropped a 42-40 decision in the second game of the series Saturday night.

The Ducks took control of the final game of the series early in the first half and managed to stay ahead the rest of the way, although the Staters pushed the Ducks all the way. Oregon's Max Anderson topped individual scoring with 18 while OSC's Wade (Swede) Halbrook was held to 10.

Idaho and Washington State were idle Saturday night following WSC's 71-61 victory over the Vandals Friday night.

HUSKIES WIN

Washington, taking on an intersectional foe, won its second victory in 16 starts Saturday night by outlasting Brigham Young, 55-51. The hapless Huskies dropped the opener of the series, 89-79 in overtime, Friday night.

Karl Voegtlin was the big gun in the Husky attack as he netted 18 points, four better than BYU's top individual effort, by Nick Mateljan.

The Huskies started fast and held a 30 20 advantage at the intermission. But the Cougars of BYU caught fire at the start of the fourth quarter and narrowed the gap to one point, at 50-49, with less than three minutes left.

Washington started a successful stall and took advantage of Brigham Young fouls to run the margin out to four points before the final buzzer.

The Oregon Collegiate Conference is right back where it started before the weekend—Eastern Oregon on top with a 4-2 mark, Oregon Tech and Oregon College are both hitting .500 and Portland State is in the cellar with 1-3.

Jerry Wyatt scored 28 points Saturday night, 12 field goals and four free throws, to lead the Owls of Oregon Tech to a 71-63 win over Portland State to split the series. The Vikings won Friday night, 82-66.

The Wolves of Oregon College, after upsetting Eastern Oregon 76-61 Friday night, settled for a split in an 88-73 loss to the Mountaineers Saturday night.

FOUR TIES

The Portland State-OTI score was tied four times in the first period after a slow start when two and a half minutes rolled by before either club could find a basket. Dale Stewart was the first to hit to give the Vikings an early lead.

Tech's Don Hubble erased a 14-18 deficit in the first with short pushers to give the Owls an 18-all standoff at the end of the period.

The second quarter was tied at 20, 22, 24 and 26 when Gary Dorn scored on two jump shots for Oregon Tech; Don Porter came to life for the Vikings with five points and the Portlanders enjoyed a 31-30 halftime lead.

10 POINTS

Oregon Tech rolled in 10 points before Portland State scored after intermission. Tech's Keith Thompson fouled out in the third period and Portland State started to roll, closing the count to 44-47 going into the fourth period.

The Vikings evened the count twice early in the fourth, the last at 49-all when Oregon Tech started to hit after Porter, who hit for 31 points Friday night and was held to 20 Saturday, fouled out. It was 62-63 with just 1:58 to go when Wyatt led a rally that wrapped it up for the Owls.

The Owls go to La Grande for a series with Eastern Oregon Friday and Saturday.

Leahy Quits Irish

Health Given As Reason

By TOM BRANAGAN

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—Frank Leahy resigned as football coach at Notre Dame yesterday in a move so startling that it stunned even his assistants—from whose ranks a successor likely will be chosen.

Leahy, 45, announced he was stepping out because of his health. He feared the "possibly fatal" consequences of another attack of pancreatitis, a stomach disorder that put him in bed in the middle of last season.

His exit followed an 11-season career second only to Knute Rockne's in success.

Backfield Coach Johnny Lujack, one of those mentioned as a possible successor, said, "I just can't believe it; I was convinced Frank would never leave Notre Dame."

Lujack knew nothing of the decision until advised by reporters at his Chicago home. Leahy himself indicated he had talked the matter over with only one Notre Dame official—the Rev. Theodore Hesburgh, president of the Catholic university. "I haven't even talked to (Athletic Director) Ed Krause," said Leahy.

LAUGHED

It was Leahy who actually was responsible for the surprise surrounding the announcement. As late as last week, he had laughed off queries about his future at Notre Dame. Many times he had said he wanted to stay at Notre Dame "as long as they want me."

But apparently doctors convinced him coaching was becoming too much of a strain. He said he now is considering three or four business opportunities.

Meantime, speculation began immediately on his successor, and names were falling on the Notre Dame campus like raindrops.

There was no official word on this angle from any Notre Dame official. Neither Father Hesburgh, Krause nor Leahy would name even a possibility.

TRADITION

However, insiders thought the choice would be confined to a Notre Dame man—a tradition at the South Bend school—and very likely would be one of Leahy's seven assistants.

Leahy gave the only hint of a possible course in an interview in Chicago, saying any one of his aides "is capable of taking over."

His assistants are Bob McBride, Terry Brennan, Lujack, Bill Early,

Terry Brennan, Lujack, Bil Early, Joe McArdle, Walt Ziemba and Johnny Druze. All except McArdle and Druze are former Notre Dame stars. These two were picked up by Leahy from Fordham, where he served as line coach in the '30s.

Also given prominent mention were two Notre Dame grads now head-coaching at other schools—Hugh Devore, recently signed by Dayton University, and Bernie Crimmins, a former Leahy assistant who has three more years to go on a contract with Indiana University.

TO STAY

Crimmins has said repeatedly he wants to remain at Indiana. He last made the statement after a recent interview with Texas A&M athletic heads, who were interested in him. However, it is known that he has a gentleman's agreement with Indiana that he may return to his alma mater if and when called.

Of the Irish staff, Terry Brennan and Bob McBride are known to have impressed Leahy greatly. Brennan at 25 is the youngest of the lot. Before joining Leahy last season, he made history in Chicago by coaching Mt. Carmel High School to three straight undefeated seasons and city championships.

McBride, 30, and Brennan played on Leahy's 1946 national championship team.

FABULOUS

Leahy's resignation ended another fabulous era for Notre Dame football. Since assuming the coaching position in 1941, he has compiled a record of 87 wins, 11 losses and 9 ties. Six of his teams were undefeated and four of them were national champions.

Only Knute Rockne, the man whose genius brought Notre Dame its national following, did better. Rockne, who coached Leahy in the late '20s, won 105 games, lost 12 and tied 3 from 1918 until his death in an airplane crash in 1931.

After Hunk Anderson and Elmer Layden successively coached the Irish through the '30s, Leahy showed up with an impressive two-year coaching record at Boston College behind him. His Boston teams won 20 games and lost only two. He previously was line coach at Georgetown, Michigan State and Fordham.

Leahy, a personable, handsome man, collapsed between halves of last season's game with Georgia Tech. At first the attack was thought to be a heart seizure and he was given the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church. Leahy said later he was convinced he was dying.

However, it developed that he was suffering from pancreatitis. He was forced to miss two subsequent Notre Dame games.

Hilltoppers Risk Unbeaten Mark Against Bowling Green

By ED CORRIGAN

NEW YORK (AP)—With the campaign just about half over, the list of unbeaten college basketball teams was down to five today and by the time tonight's action is over another of the clubs with unsullied records could topple.

Western Kentucky, winner of 19 games—the highest total among the unbeaten teams — faces Bowling Green, a tough customer in any league. If Bowling Green can't handle the assignment, Stetson and Eastern Kentucky will get pot shots at Ed Diddle's boys later in the week.

If the Hilltoppers get past this week, they should go through the remainder of the season without a smirch on their record.

THREE GAMES

Kentucky, the No. 1 team in the weekly Associated Press poll of sports writers and sportscasters, has three games on tap for the week's action, but no one would dare predict that either Georgia Tech (winless) or Georgia will offer any more than token resistance. The Wildcats have a skein of 13 victories.

Duquesne, which has been fighting the Wildcats for the top spot—and which certainly is the best the East has to offer—figures to make Villanova victim No. 18 tonight. Connecticut, the other major unbeaten, will face a stiff test Wednesday night when it goes up against Fordham, the class of the New York schools with a 12-2 record. The Nutmeggers have won 14.

UNBEATEN

The only other unbeaten is little Norwich, which boasts 12 triumphs. Erskine, another little fellow among the big powers, dropped a 102-85 decision to Belmont Abbey Saturday night and thus fell from the group of unbeatens.

Unless they cover the basket or make him shoot blindfolded, fabulous Frank Selvy of Furman should break the three-year scoring record of 1,888 points held by Kansas' Clyde Lovellette when his crew tackles Clemson tonight. Lovellette set the mark two years ago.

Selvy warmed up to the task Saturday night by dropping 53 points through the hoop as Furman vanquished the Citadel, 114-72. He now has 1,879 with 14 games still to go.

LONGEST

Seattle plays two games this week — tomorrow against Pacific Lutheran and Saturday against Gonzaga. The Chieftains have beaten both earlier in the season; so they don't figure to have any trouble.

The conferences, meanwhile, are getting into the important stage with the winners promised NCAA playoff berths.

Here is a rundown on how they stand:

Big Ten — Indiana still on top with 6-0, but Iowa and Minnesota are close behind with 6-1 and 5-1, respectively. Minnesota plays Indiana in the big one a week from tonight.

Southeastern — Louisiana State, believe it or not, shows a 5-0 mark to Kentucky's 4-0. Tulane has a 4-1 record. The Wildcats don't meet either of them durring the regular season.

CAL LEADS

Pacific Coast — California still leads the Southern Division with 4-0 and Oregon heads the North with 6-2.

Atlantic Coast—Maryland shows 6-1 to top the league, followed by North Carolina with 4-1 and Duke with 3-1. The Blue Devils, who beat Navy 82-65 Saturday for the Middies' first home defeat in 27 games, bear watching.

Ivy League—Cornell still rates as the favorite with a 5-0 record.

Southern—George Washington, 7-0, leads, but Furman is 3-0 and who would have the nerve to bet against Selvy?

Big Seven—Kansas, the favorite, and Nebraska each have 4-0 after having spent the week at midyear exams.

HOME-AND-HOME

Missouri Valley—Oklahoma A&M, which shows 3-0—and an over-all mark of 17-1—must get by Wichita (5-1) Thursday. This is a home-and-home series, so the title probably will be decided on the results of the two games.

Southwest—Texas is riding high with 4-0.

Skyline—Colorado A&M and Wyoming are tied, each with 6-1. They both were defeated by Utah State, incidentally, last week.

In Saturday's big games, Kentucky trounced Vanderbilt 85-63; Duquesne had a rough time of it before edging St. Bonaventure 53-41; and Minnesota defeated Michigan State 79-71.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)— Just five months after she moved from Oregon to Florida, where golf is played all year around, 26-year-old Grace DeMoss Smith emerged Monday as a bright new star in the women's amateur ranks.

The Coral Gables housewife won the Helen Lee Doherty Amateur Tournament Sunday with a 1-up victory over Marlene Stewart, British champion from Fonthill, Ont., in a rugged 36-hole duel over the trap - studded Miami Shores Country Club course.

This would have been scored as a startling upset if Mrs. Smith hadn't previously defeated Mary Lena Faulk of Thomasville, Ga., queen of the American amateurs and winner of the Doherty Cup the last two years, in the semi-finals.

SECRET

What is the secret of the blonde Mrs. Smith's new-found golfing prowess?

"Get married and move to Florida," she replied. "I've been able to get in a lot of practice down here in the warm sun and my game has really sharpened up." Originally, she hailed from Corvallis, Ore.

Grace married Kirby Smith, a Miami attorney and criminal investigator, last August and they honeymooned in Providence, R.I., where Grace played in the National Amateur. That was her last tournament competition before the Doherty.

LUCKY

"I was awfully lucky to win," Mrs. Smith said. "Marlene is the toughest fighter I've ever met and she made it a battle right down to the wire."

Miss Stewart, a student at Rollins College in Winter Park, Fla., declared that Grace "was just too good for me. Those long shots off the tee were hard to overcome."

Champ Base Stealer Dies

RICHMOND, Calif. (AP) — William Cleveland Lane, 61, holder of the Pacific Coast League lifetime record for stolen bases—468—died Sunday.

Lane stole 61 bases in the 1919 season with Oakland, and 60 in 1922 with Seattle.
