

MRS. REMO MINATO . . . who was Joanne Weddle before her wedding in Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Catholic Church, Chiloquin. The single-ring morning service was read by the Rev. William Stone at 10 a.m., January 23, in the presence of a number of friends and relatives.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Weddle, and her father gave her in marriage. Bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Anselmo Minato. After a wedding trip to Southern California, they will divide their time between Diamond Lake and Chiloquin, while Minato is working on the Lemolo Falls dam project.

First Formal Wedding In '54 Links Minato-Weddle Families In Catholic Rites January 20

CHILOQUIN—In the first formal wedding in Chiloquin during 1954, Joanne Weddle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Weddle, became the bride of Remo Minato, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anselmo Minato.

The ten o'clock single ring ceremony was read Saturday morning, January 23, at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Catholic church by the Rev. William Stone before a number of friends and relatives of the two families. Baskets of pink and white snapdragons decorated the church. Pews were marked with white satin bows.

The bride, given in marriage by the father, wore a ballerina length gown of white net with inset bands of lace over a bouffant white tulle skirt. The close fitting lace jacket had a yoke of net and sleeves pointed over the hands. The fingertip veil was fastened to a beaming sweetheart crown. The bridal bouquet was of white orchids with tiny white chrysanthemums and stephanotis.

Maid of honor was Jo Anne Sisemore of Fort Klamath and Oregon State College. Jo Anne wore a bluish pink strapless net formal with many rows of net pleats at the bodice. A tiny caplet of pale pink nylon net covered her shoulders. Her headpiece was of pink and white carnations and pink rosebuds matching her bouquet.

Two six year old flower girls were the bride's youngest sister, Susan Weddle, and the bridegroom's niece, Rose Marie Molling. The little girls were dressed alike in green nylon crinkle crepe ballerina length gowns and wore flower head pieces. Their baskets were filled with rose petals.

Best man for the bridegroom was a life-long friend, Howard Luderan. Ushers were a brother of both bride and bridegroom, James Weddle and Feo Minato, the latter of Eugene.

Edda DeBortoli, soloist, sang Schubert's "Ave Maria" and "This Day, Oh Beautiful Mother" accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Paula Bond, who also played the wedding marches.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Weddle wore a pink rosebud corsage on her grey coat, and chose dark accessories. Mrs. Anselmo Minato also wore a dark ensemble with rosebud corsage.

Immediately following the nuptial service, a reception was held in the church basement. Cutting and serving the three-tiered wedding confection which was surrounded by tiny pink rosebuds and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom was Mrs. Howard Luderan, cousin of the bride. Serving punch was Mrs. Ted Mahoney, Merrill, cousin of the bride and at the coffee service was Mrs. Gerald Ward of Klamath Falls. A sister of the bride, Mrs. Allen Hatcher registered the guests.

For her going away outfit the bride wore a royal blue knit suit with red accessories and at her shoulder the orchids from her bouquet.

Following a wedding trip to southern California, the couple will return this weekend and will stay part time in Chiloquin and part time near Diamond Lake where Minato works for Morrison-Knudsen. Both the couple are graduates of Chiloquin High School and Minato is a graduate of Oregon Technological Institute.

Four of town guests at the wedding were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Amanda Ward, an aunt, Mrs.

THE "BIG TOP" THEME FOR THE LIBRARY CLUB WAS "TOPS" . . . and helping with the huge crowd of card players and tea patrons were the above girls: From the left, Linda

"Big Top" Theme Prevails In Outstanding Decorations For Library Club Card-Tea Party

Card players and tea drinkers arriving at the Library Club Benefit Bridge and Tea party on January 30 found themselves literally under the "Big Top." They were surrounded on all sides and even above with circus atmosphere.

The transformation of the Willard Hotel ballroom into a tent was accomplished by draping multitudinous streamers of red and white crepe paper from ceiling to wall. Dangling from the exact center of the ceiling was a monkey (toy) on a flying trapeze (real).

Seals doing a balancing act, going head over heels from a trapeze, elephants doing ponderous tricks, trained horses, lion tamers and their fierce charges — all these were on the of the barber shop variety, composed of John Houston, Milton Ferebee, Benny Loftgaard and Olney Ruud of Tulelake. Their renditions and costumes defy description, but both delighted the audience.

The purpose of all this decoration and entertainment was to raise money for the tonsillectomy program carried out by the Library Club to pay for tonsillectomies on local needy children who couldn't otherwise have them. Success along this line was reported by Mrs. Robert A. Thompson, president, when she totaled the receipts and announced that $367.51 was taken in. This means that many children in the Klamath area may have the blessings of better health because of an enjoyable afternoon spent by many local ladies, preceded by weeks of work by an energetic committee.

When it came time for prize awarding it was natural to have a ring master preside and clown distribute the various prizes — Mrs. Charles Larkin was the most convincing ringmaster, with top hat, cutaway coat and long black whip. The clownish ushers were Ruth and Virginia Roenicke, Sheila Alder, Nancy Clark, Betty Juckeland, Frances Cox and Linda Fyock. Special prizes went to Mrs. Ethel Pankey and Mrs. W. I. Tingley.

Not at all awed by the fierce lion directly behind them as they sang, was the "What-For" quartet

Fyock, Virginia Roenicke, Sheila Alder, Frances Cox, Nancy Clark, Betty Juckeland and Ruth Roenicke. —Photo by Kettler

Mrs. H. O. Juckeland, bridge chairman, and Mrs. Andy Brink, tea chairman. Mrs. Juckeland's committee members were Mrs. Louis Serruys, prizes; Mrs. Jack Dutcher, tables; Mrs. Ronald Carter, Mrs. Jesse Litwiler, reservations; and Mrs. Warren Bennet, auxiliary calling.

Mrs. Brink's co-workers were Mrs. C. E. Johnson and Mrs. M. E. Ferebee, decorators; Mrs. John Cox and Mrs. Gene Hooker, serving; Mrs. Joan Ashley, tea table decorations; Mrs. Percy Murray, and Mrs. John Houston, tea table appointments; and Mrs. Dave Liskey, usherettes.

Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Ferebee list their decorations committee as Mrs. John Ashley, Mrs. William Tyler, Mrs. George Blanas, Mrs. Gus Vlahos and Mrs. Andy Brink.

The tally committee was composed of Mrs. Ronald Carter, Mrs. Elbert Stiles, Mrs. H. O. Juckeland, Mrs. George Clark, Mrs. Laurence Brown, Mrs. Paul Dalton, Mrs. Lee Stoner, Mrs. Louis Serruys, Mrs. Neil Black and Mrs. Charles Fyock.

Publicity was handled by Mrs. Charles Houston, and the regular calling committee under Mrs. Gus Vlahos called club membership. From circus major demo to book reviewer is the role played by Mrs. Robert Thompson, since she will present the February 8 program of the Library Club. It will be held as usual in the City Library auditorium, beginning at 2 p.m.

Insurance won't prevent an accident, but it will prevent a lot of grief. Hans Norland Insurance, 627 Pine St.

The committee was headed by

PAST NOBLE GRANDS MEET

Past Noble Grands were entertained at the home of Florence Custer February 2. After the potluck luncheon, the following committees were appointed: Visiting, Alma Coler and Bernice McCracken; membership calling, Nellie Wattenburg and Elizabeth Ramsey.

Other members present were Corinne Larson, Ida Grimes, Margaret Biden, Mae Anderson and Sadie May Wallace.

Next meeting will be March 2, at the home of Mrs. Biden, 303 Riverside.

8 ET 40-SALON 355

Braving the stormy weather of Wednesday, January 27, the 8 and 40, Klamath Salon 355, held their regular meeting at the Memorial Hall, 4th and Klamath.

Due to President Naomi Kurtz's getting in from Tulelake, Julia Williams, first vice president opened the meeting. Naomi Kurtz and other Klamath Salon members of Tulelake, Mrs. Eva Sonnenberg, Mrs. Francis Yost, Mrs. Regina Frye and Stella Watka were delayed for awhile due to slippery roads. Others attending from Tulelake were Mrs. May Rudd and Mrs. Arlene Campbell.

Two new members from Tulelake Kathleen Todd were obligated into Klamath Salon 355. Julia Williams, refreshment hostess assisted by Mrs. Alice Abbott and Mrs. Lillian Osterheim served the members and also the 40 and 8 a joint lunch.

Store Hours: 9:30 to 5:30

your new Olga girdle

Eye-catching new fashions call for a perfect underline. Talented Olga masterminds the very framework needed—here, just two from her new collection, both in lightweight nylon power net and smooth satin lastex. Sizes S, M, L. (near left) slit back gives new freedom to this new high-waist girdle, 12.50.

foundation, second floor

REBEKAHS AT MERRILL

Merrill Rebekah Lodge 151 met in regular session February 1, with Noble Grand Leta Stolt presiding. Refreshments were served by Pearl Moore, Jean Moore, Georgia Moore and Jenny Fugate. Next regular meeting will be February 15.

Miller's Goya
Your Fragrance
"Surprise"

packaged in a sumptuous, lace patterned, gold box $3.00*
*plus tax

1 oz. White Shoulders
1 oz. Golden Shadows
2 1/2 Dr. Gay Diversion
2 1/2 Dr. Enchanting Menace
Colognes

* PICTURE FRAMING Underwood's CAMERA SHOP 700 Main St., Phone 7645

BIRTHDAY PARTY by her mother, Mrs. Victor Sisson. Attending were Jacque and Brent Shoemaker, Sharon and Karen Chase, Eric Wilder, Linda Snelher Klamath Agency friends to help her celebrate at a party given

Beauty Formula

— the pillbox wearing a rose — plus the dusky glow of a velvet cuff that contrasts with the sewn straw. From our important pillbox fashions. 10⁹⁵

