Oregon, State Tied For Basketball Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Idaho appeared to be a lead pipe cinch to drop the Huskies Saturday night as the Vandals raced to a 52-40 lead midway in the third period. But Captain Don Tripp hit from the corner for Washington and from there on out the Huskies couldn't be stopped.

They trailed by only nine points, at 59-50, going into the fourth quarter and knotted the score at 67-67 with only about two minutes left to go. Jim Coshov connected with a field goal and Tripp added a charity loss while the Vandals got a two-pointer by Jim Sather.

26 POINTS

Washington State's Ron Bennink night but it wasn't enough for the Cougars as they bowed to Oregon State. The Cougars were ahead only once, when Bill Rehder made good on a free throw with the game only two seconds old. Oregon State took over a minute later and won going away.

Long and lanky Swede Halbrook, the OSC flash, potted 23 points to lead the Beavers in scoring. The Beavers had a 36-22 advantage at the half. The Cougars rallied briefly in the third and cut the margin to 44-31 but the rally fizzled and OSC had a 53-35 lead at the end of the third.

Two series are on tap this coming weekend, with Oregon at Idaho Friday and Saturday nights, while the Beavers host Washington the same nights, Washington State is idle.

Both squads have a 7-3 record in loop play and the way they have been going of late it's possible the title don't be decided until they meet headon in the final series of the season for both teams Feb. 26-27.

Washington virtually eliminated third-place Idaho (4-5) Saturday night by rallying to a 70-69 victory, the second in a row for the Huskies over the Vandals. Washington dropped the Idahoans, 65-59, Friday night.

The two victories left the rapidly-improving Huskies with a 3-5 mark in conference play, good for fourth spot above Washington State at 3-7.

Washington State took its seventh defeat Saturday night at the hands of Slats Gill's Beavers in hit the net for 26 points Saturday at Corvallis, 65-54. Oregon was idle.

Trojans, Cal Split

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Southern California Trojans marred the University of California basketball team's perfect Pacific Coast Conference record but the Bears still top the Southern Division with 5 wins and one loss. They split their weekend games at Berkeley.

UCLA, which defeated Stanford twice, tied USC for second place with 3 wins and 3 losses each. Stanford has won one and lost five.

Both California and the Trojans had trouble getting started Saturday night, the half ending 13-12, Cal. However, California began hitting in the second half to win 46-32.

The Trojans beat the Bears Friday 63-49.

Stanford started fast against the UCLA Bruins, but UCLA ran off in the second half to win 77-58 at Los Angeles.

California meets UCLA at Los Angeles and Stanford hosts USC at Palo Alto next Friday and Saturday.

Three bouts will come out of the rubarb. The first two scheduled will come back in the opener. The next two return for the semi-windup clash, while the last two to survive headline the show in the main event.

All will be 30-minute affairs or the best two of three falls.
