Reds Propose Defense Plan

BERLIN (AP)—Soviet Russia proposed Wednesday a non-aggression pact among all the nations of Europe including both Communist East Germany and the Bonn Republic. It would annul the North Atlantic Alliance.

The United States, which has spearheaded the development of Western Europe's defenses, would be excluded from active participation in the treaty organization.

Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov laid the plan for "European security" before the Big Four conference. It was his most detailed effort to torpedo the West European Defense Community.

The proposed 50-year general security treaty would bind all the nations of Europe to "peace." East and West Germany were specifically listed as eligible as individual powers until the nation eventually is united.

Molotov spelled out a treaty that would be open to all states of Europe regardless of "their social systems." He stated the non-aggression terms would be carried out according to these principles of the United Nations charter:

Any attack against one nation in Europe would be regarded as an attack against the entire treaty bloc. All parties would be bound to come to the rescue of the nation attacked, including the use of armed forces.

Republicans Defend Talks

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Dirksen (R-Ill.) said today he does not believe Republican political criticism alone will cause any substantial number of Democrats in Congress to oppose President Eisenhower's legislative program.

Dirksen, who heads the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee, sided with Eisenhower's press secretary, James G. Hagerty, who said he thinks Republicans in Lincoln Day speeches are just "giving the facts." Hagerty said he didn't regard the speeches as attacks.

Many of these speeches centered on alleged Democratic coddling of Communists in past administrations. Democratic leaders have called on Eisenhower to say whether he condones the GOP blasts.

Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) told a Los Angeles audience last night that in the past 29 years, "thanks to the Democrat administration, tolerance of Communist subversion has become a sort of intellectual fashion."

He said millions of Democrats are opposed to communism, but that under Democratic administrations "the Communist conspiracy was allowed to infiltrate all the agencies of our federal government, even up to the White House itself."
