

Sailors Saved As Ship Grounds

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Thirty-six crewmen of the freighter Harry Lundberg, which went aground on rocks at the tip of Lower California last Monday, are back in their home port.

The vessel, enroute from San Marcos Island to Long Beach with a load of gypsum, smashed onto the rocks in a calm sea, Chief Mate Arthur McPhail said. He said she apparently was on course when she hit the rocks at 11 1/2 knots in the darkness early Monday.

The bow of the ship was crushed aft for 20 feet. The Santa Flavia picked up the crew an hour after they had put out in lifeboats. Capt. Gerald Reilly of Long Beach and the second mate and radioman remained aboard.

Police Arrest Low Flying Pilot

LORAIN, Ohio (AP) — Martin Zalk, 32, wasn't able to get his four-passenger plane off the ground, but he apparently was flying pretty high anyway.

Municipal Judge Leroy Kelly fined him $200 yesterday after he pleaded guilty to operating an airplane while intoxicated. Highway patrolmen arrested him Sunday when he crashed into a ditch while attempting a takeoff.

VALENTINES are for the young at heart. More than 300 million Valentines will thrill, amuse or please their recipients this year. No matter if those wedding bells have already rung for you; just remind that adorable guy of yours that he's still tops in your book. Don't let him be the only one to show up with a Valentine surprise on February 14. Get his favorite dinner, wear a dress he likes, turn on the record player with his favorite music to greet him as he enters the door. Matter of fact, do all those little thoughtful things often — and have Valentine's Day all year long — all your life together.

Grocer Hopes To Identify Money

DALLAS, Ore. (AP) — Grocer Bill Young has some ashes carefully wrapped in metal foil. He maintains they are worth about $700. At least that was the value of his roll of money—some checks, but mostly currency—before it somehow got tossed into a stove in his store along with waste paper.

Young searched the store when he missed the roll, and finally looked in the stove. He pulled out the ashes carefully, and said he thinks most of the money can be identified clearly enough for it to be redeemed at the federal treasury.

TV NIBBLERS
An increasingly popular way to serve salted French fried noodles is as nibblers, placed in small bowls for TV snacks.

SPRING SALAD

For a spring touch to a winter-time salad, arrange drained cling peach halves on shredded lettuce and fill with cottage cheese which has been mixed with chutney. This is the kind of salad which needs no dressing.

APPLE PANCAKES

To your favorite pancake recipe add 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, and extra tablespoon sugar and a cup of unpeeled, shredded apple. Serve with brown sugar and butter or maple syrup with lemon juice and sugar added, or buttered and rolled around little pig sausages.

Sues Railroad For Not Carrying Bags

BALTIMORE (AP) — Frank E. Kaufman of Baltimore sued the Pennsylvania Railroad for $100,000 damages yesterday in Superior Court.

Kaufman said on a trip from Richmond, Va., last year he was not notified of the train's impending stop in Baltimore and he didn't have time to gather his bags and get off.

He got off at Perryville, Md. With no attendant available, he had to carry his bags through a subway under the tracks to board a returning train.

He said he was 62 and "frail" at the time and the body strain caused "injury, severe and excruciating pain, and agony."

YORKSHIRE PUDDING

This recipe from the American Meat Institute is being repeated upon request. Sift one cup flour; sift again with 1/2 teaspoon salt. Beat two eggs well and stir into flour. Add 1 cup milk and beat with rotary beater until smooth. Pour two teaspoons beef drippings into each of six muffin tins; place in a 500 degree oven for five minutes to heat. Pour in batter and bake at 400 degrees for 40 minutes. Serve with gravy from short ribs. Six servings.

MEAT PIE

For quick filling for meat pie, use canned stew. Add 2 tablespoons red table wine, if desired, 1 crushed garlic clove, 1/4 cup pitted ripe olives, generous pinch of marjoram and pepper. Heat to boiling, turn into casserole and when it reaches boiling point top with baking powder biscuits or pastry top.

SPRING COSTUME for afternoon and cocktails is Triguere's "key dress" and coat costume of black silk grosgrain and black and white silk print — for spring 1954. The dress, named for its adaptability in the wardrobe, is widely-strapped over the shoulders, and narrowly belted in black patent. The coat is roundly yoked front and back. CUP CAKES
Add a half cup of chopped walnuts to the batter of your favorite recipe for cup cakes for improved flavor and nourishment. If they are to be packed in lunch boxes, cut each cake in half and put halves back together with frosting for ease in packing.
