MRS. EDITH BARLEEN
Mother Adviser

BEVERLY OVEREN INSTALLED
AS RAINBOW WORTHY ADVISER

Beverly Overen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Overen, was installed as worthy adviser for the Klamath Falls Assembly of Rainbow for Girls at public installation February 7. Mrs. Edith Barleen is the new mother adviser. Ceremonies were opened by Donna Beckwith outgoing worthy adviser at the Masonic Temple. Mrs. Gabriel Overen gave the address of welcome to all the guests present. Installing officers were: worthy adviser, Donna Beckwith; chaplain, Linda Williams; recorder, Gerry Steiner; marshal, Doris Wallin; and musician, Mrs. Lloyd Murphy. The new worthy adviser, Beverly Overen wore a white formal with a red corsage. She carried a red floral arrangement on a white Bible. The other officers also carried red or white flowers — Beverly's chosen colors for her term. Supporting officers for the ensuing term are: worthy associate adviser, Roberta Wade; Charity, Edith Wallin; Hope, Nancy Tanner; Faith, Nancy Hopson; recorder, Betty Clifford; chaplain, Candy Conner; drill leader, Jackie Paugh; Love, Genevieve Tanner; religion, Marilyn Alter; nature, Shirley Moore; immortality, Gloria Wallin; fidelity, Shirley Barleen; patriotism, Jean Morgan; service, Sylvia Wilber; confidential observer, Remona Woodfork; outer observer, Rosemary Spetz; musician, Gerry Steiner; choir director, Shara Loomis; and choir: Lois Husted, Connie Loy, Darla Montgomery, Charlotte Tracy and Clarise Thompson. Projects Beverly has planned for her term are: food and rummage sales; the Mothers Day Tea; and the grand officers' reception. Mrs. Barleen awarded the girls with the merit bars they had earned and gave token gifts to others for outstanding work. Adendas were given for Beverly, Donna and Mrs. Barleen. Two trumpet solos were played by Bill Steiner. He was accompanied by his sister, Gerry Steiner. Beverly received numerous gifts from various orders and lodges. Visiting guests from out of town were: Mrs. Charles Hamilton, grand deputy of the state of Oregon, from Malin; Martha Beasley, worthy adviser, Malin; Mrs. M. A. Bowman, mother adviser, Merrill; Mrs. V. G. Riemiller, mother adviser, Merrill; Helen Peterson, worthy adviser, Tulelake; Jackie Hinkle, past worthy adviser from Toledo; Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Thomas, worthy matron and worthy patron from Tulelake. Family and friends present were Beverly's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Overen; Barbara and Archie Overen, and Ruth Alexander.

Methodist Women
Meet February 4

Methodist women enjoyed a full day Thursday, February 4, combining business with pleasure when they met at the church for an Epiphany luncheon at 12 noon, followed at 1:30 by the usual general meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service. The luncheon, honoring new members, was served in the upstairs dining room of the church at small tables, each decorated in the Valentine motif. About 90 guests were served. Ruth was hostess circle, with Mrs. Lorena Ward general chairman. Singing of the hymn "The Church's One Foundation," opened the short business session which followed. Mrs. Joe Bramhall, president, called attention to the four weeks study course of the Book of Jeremiah, beginning Tuesday, February 16, at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Lorena Ward, who will conduct the class, announced a threefold purpose in this study: 1. To deepen the understanding of the Bible and its message. 2. To broaden and deepen our knowledge and understanding of the prophet, Jeremiah, and his message to all people. 3. To develop and learn ways in which we can make Christian living practical in its application to our living. Mrs. J. C. Yaden, program chairman, reminded members of a second general meeting in February, the next on the 25th, at which time Mrs. Lorena Ward and Mrs. Leon Stippach will discuss the Negro problem. Mrs. Yaden then presented Mrs. Bert Hegler and Miriam Smith, program chairman for the day. Mrs. Hegler gave the call to worship which was followed by the song, "A Mighty Fortress is our God." Mrs. Redman extended a welcome to the new members. She was assisted by Mrs. Fred Wade, Mrs. Frank Steele, Mrs. Oliver Spiker, Mrs. Lawrence Phelps, Mrs. Bert Hegler and Mrs. M. W. Hoyer members of the membership committee. Mrs. Bramhall reminds circle members that they are also members of the WSCS and as such are invited to attend the next general meeting February 25.

OES VALENTINE PARTY

Beautiful red Valentines and holding streamers of Valentines, decorated the chapter room, parlors and banquet room of the Masonic Temple February 9, when Eastern Star members met for a regular stated meeting and Valentine social. Hostesses for the evening were: Lena Dennis, Elizabeth Norris, Ida Grimes and Clairalce Epperson. Rena Oldham, worthy matron; and Raymond Owens, worthy patron; presided and had as their guest in the east, Harry Desmond, worthy patron, from Chapter 80 of Troutdale, Oregon; and Betty Hunter, grand representative from Pennsylvania of the Grand Chapter of Oregon. Other visitors introduced were: Grace Gongner from Temple Chapter 140, Portland; Evelyn Tice, Adair Chapter 3, Jacksonville; and Helen Wing, associate matron, and Eva Cook, past matron, from Cascade Crest 19, Chiloquin. The friendship and flower girls, performed an impressive drill, ended by the formation of a large heart. With appropriate verse they presented a surprise Valentine gift to the worthy matron. An original poem written by John Rhodes, associate patron, was read by Mrs. Rhodes in his absence. A poem written by James Hunter was also read. During the social hour games and cards were played and delicious refreshments served by the following friendship and flower girls: Coie Brown, chairman; Imogene Boothby, Jean Aldrich, Beulah Baliger, Marian Barker, Mildred Dimbat, Lillian Haneline, Catherine Ligman, Letha Landis, Dulcie Motley, Jean Morrison, Opal McKillop, Olive Thomas, Thelma Short, Arzella Volighi, Hazel Schieferstein, Trudy Bramlett and Jeanine Cogdill.
