

150 FRIENDS AND RELATIVES AT NUPTIAL RITES

Geraldine Hardman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hardman, 1821 Lancaster, became the bride of Gordon D. Beeson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Beeson, Dorris, in the Church of the Nazarene, January 23.

The double-ring candlelight ceremony was read at 7:30 p.m. by the Rev. Wesley Crist in the presence of 150 friends and relatives. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

White snapdragons and chrysanthemums were featured flowers in the church decorations; and the tapers in the floor candelabra were lighted by Collin Beeson and Johnny Howe.

Mrs. Wesley Crist, accompanied Paul Remmenga, who sang "O Promise Me," "Because," and the "Wedding Prayer."

The bride's gown of heavy slipper satin was made with a sweetheart neckline; and the very full skirt, with panels of lace inserted at each front-side from waistline to hem, extended into a sweeping train. The bodice was trimmed with lace detail at the neckline and the long fitted sleeves were pointed at the wrists.

Her fingertip veil of net was edged with a ruffle of the same material; and a tiara of dainty pearl flowers framed her dark hair. The bridal bouquet was of white carnations centered with a white purple-throated orchid. She wore the traditional blue garter and a lucky penny was placed in her slipper. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, gift from the bridegroom.

Nadine (Mrs. Paul) Remmenga, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her bouquet and headband were of fuchsia carnations; and her gown was multi-colored net over Nile green taffeta worn with a stole of the net.

Corra Hardman, also sister, was bridesmaid, dressed the same as the matron of honor with headband and bouquet in yellow and white. Other bridesmaid, Phyllis Beeson, sister of the bridegroom, was dressed as the other two, with bouquet and headband of yellow and white.

Billy Remmenga was ring-bearer. Flower girl, Sherry Beeson, wore a pale green floor length dress and her flowers were yellow and white.

Jerry Tomseth, Springfield, was best man; and ushers were Mel Hayes and Ron Prose.

Mrs. Hardman wore a rose-pink feille dress with matching hat and black accessories to her daughter's wedding. Her corsage was of pink and white carnations.

The bridegroom's mother chose a winter-white dress with navy accessories; and her corsage was the same as Mrs. Hardman's.

Guests were received in the reception hall of the Congregational Church. Pouring were Aletha Bonner and Jean Hayes. The cake was cut by Margaret Spry; and Marilyn

AN AUGUST WEDDING . . . is planned for Frances Lorraine Bailey, whose father, Alvin E. Bailey, Lakeshore Drive, recently announced her engagement to John O. Emery, son of Walter Emery, San Jose; and Mrs. Louise A. Marlo, Palo Alto. The bride-elect is a graduate of KUHS class of '47; and is now a senior at San Jose Bible College in San Jose. Emery is a junior at the same school.

Legion Visited By District Leader

TULELAKE—District Commander Wynn Price, Central Valley, paid an official visit to Tulelake Post, American Legion 164, Tuesday.

Members of the auxiliary also were in regular session following a potluck supper.

Joe Hicks, Klamath Falls, talked to the auxiliary after being introduced by Mrs. George Kurtz, Americanism chairman.

Hicks spoke on the basic reasons for America's economic success over the rest of the world.

New members of the auxiliary will be initiated at the next meeting, February 23.

The high school chorus entertained with two numbers. Hostesses were Mrs. Paul Tschirky, Mrs. Clayton Rudisill, Mrs. Mike Jamison and Mrs. Elmer Olson.

Texan To Speak To Knife & Fork Club

T. W. (Buckshot) Lane, the terror of Texas badmen, will address the Klamath Falls Knife & Fork Club, next Wednesday evening at a dinner in the Willard Hotel.

Lane, former sheriff for 18 years of Wharton County, Texas, has been widely publicized in the Saturday Evening Post, Life, Time and other national magazines. He captured Pete Norris, for a time public enemy No. 1. He rates next to J. Edgar Hoover in the ranks of crime crushers.

Girl Scouts To Meet In Macdoel

MACDOEL — The Macdoel and Mt. Hebron Girl Scout troop met January 22 for the election of officers.

Patsy Yates was chosen president; Deanna Jones, vice president; Mary Jane Decker, secretary; Marlene Andrus, reporter.

Last Friday, the troop went to the Mt. Hebron home of Dickie Brook to see the pigeon which he has tamed. The scouts are earning their bird badges. Afterwards they held a meeting at the home of Mrs. C. A. Abell.

Valley Groups To Hear Local Band

Two engagements in Ashland and Medford were announced today for Baldy Evans and his band.

The band will play Saturday night at the annual Valentine Day dance at the Elks Club.

Monday night the Klamath Falls musical group will play at the Jackson County Shrine Club dinner dance to be held at the Rogue Valley Country Club.
