

"SWEETHEART SWING" was the theme for the successful annual Valentine dance at Reames Golf and Country Club, February 13. The clubhouse abounded with crepe paper streamers, red hearts and cupid for the evening of dancing to music by LaMar Jensen's Trio, which preceded the "heartily" midnight supper served by Al and Lottie.

Six of eight committee members who skillfully staged the event are pictured from the left (husbands back of wives), Mr. and Mrs. George Morgan, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brostehous. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Henry, other members — not in picture.

Children Give Valentine Party

FORT KLAMATH — Pupils included in the five grades composing the local elementary school entertained at the schoolhouse on Friday afternoon, February 12, with a gay Valentine party given in honor of their teacher, Mrs. Frank Strahan, and their mothers.

All details involved in planning and arrangements were carried out by the children, who had made the schoolroom bright with colorful decorations in honor of the occasion.

Following a program of recitations, the small hosts supervised games in which their mothers competed, and awarded prizes to the following at the close of the contest: Mrs. Wilbur B. Hescok, Mrs. Frank Kendall, Mrs. Hansford T. (Mike) Williams, Mrs. Clifford Engle, all of Fort Klamath; Mrs. Ruth Bush, Crystal, and Mrs. Edmund Stanton, Chiloquin.

Pre-school age children enjoying the afternoon included Steven Bush, Anne Areni, Mary Brattain, Rex and Wayne Engle, and Wesley E. Stanton.

Chairman of the pupils' general committee was Douglas Van Wormer; ushers were Dale Kendall, Tony Wilder, Lynn Hescok and Richard Veatch. Hostesses for the afternoon were Gretchen Wilson, Barbara Nicholson, Ellen Veatch, James Van Wormer, Mrs. Weston

Jack-Gober Vows Exchanged In the First Formal Wedding At Mt. Laki Community Church

The first formal wedding in Mt. Laki Community Church united Betty Lou Gober and Marion Jack. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Gober, Henley; her husband is the son of Mrs. Helen Lucas, Ashland, and Ray Jack, Hager.

The 7 p.m. candlelight service was held Wednesday evening, February 11, by the Rev. William Ainsley before an altar banked with bouquets of white chrysanthemums and tapers.

The bride was escorted down the aisle by her father. She wore a ballerina length gown of white embroidered nylon over a bouffant skirt of white nylon tulle. The long sleeved bodice buttoned down the back.

Her dark hair was framed by a small crown of seed pearls to which was gathered a white fingertip veil of illusion. She carried a white Bible centered with two white hybrid catalpa orchids surrounded by small white phalaenopsis orchids. The Bible was a gift from the bridegroom.

Maid of honor for her sister was Winifred Ann Gober. She wore a ballerina length dress of pastel pink. The lace bodice was fashioned with a scalloped neckline. The bouffant skirt of nylon tulle was caught at the waist with a wide satin sash. She wore matching pink slippers and carried a bouquet of phalaenopsis orchids with a headpiece of the same flowers.

Other attendants were Carolyn Dickson and Dot Am Fleming, classmates of the bride; and Mrs. Fred Beymer, aunt of the bride. Their dresses were identical in style to that of the maid of honor in a soft shade of green with matching slippers. They carried varied colored phalaenopsis orchids and wore headpieces of the same variety of orchids.

Little Becky Jo and Bill Beymer, niece and nephew of the bride, headed the wedding party carrying small white satin pillows on which were placed the rings for the double ring ceremony. Becky Jo wore a ballerina length dress of pink embroidered organdy. Around each child's neck was an orchid lei.

Starla Sue Beymer, niece of the bride, acted as flower girl. Precisely she placed orchid petals on the aisle before the bride. Starla Sue wore a dress identical to that of her sister, Becky Jo, with matching lei and headpiece.

Gerald Durant, cousin of the bride, was best man. Ushering for the wedding were Jim DeVore, Bill Daly, Delbert Dehlinger, Wallace Gober, all of Henley; and Scott Hartley, Chiloquin.

Mrs. Elbert S. Veatch at the piano accompanied Sherman Carter who sang "Ecce Homo," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." Cora Enman, friend of the bride, played incidental organ music and the traditional wedding march.

Following the ceremony, the new Mr. and Mrs. Jack received the 200 guests in rooms adjoining the sanctuary and cut the first piece of the three-tiered pink and white decorated wedding cake.

Mrs. Beryl Carter and Mrs. Grace Short, aunts of the bride, served the cake. Mrs. Dorothy Dehlinger and Della Dalton, also aunts of the bride, presided at the punch bowl and coffee service.

Shirley Faus, the bride's roommate, and Donna Tillman, another college classmate, were in charge of the guest book. Gerri Lee and Ella Beardsley, high school and college classmates, were in charge of the gifts.

For travel, the bride wore a winter white dress with dark accessories, pink coat and white hat. The large orchids from her bridal bouquet were pinned at her shoulder.

Following a week's honeymoon, Mrs. Jack will return to her studies at Southern Oregon College, Ashland; her husband will report back to Fort Ord, California.

Orchids for the wedding were sent from Hawaii by the parents of Millie Okimura, former roommate of Winifred Gober at Southern Oregon College and a frequent houseguest at the Gober residence.

QUEEN CROWNED AT ANNUAL DANCE

BONANZA — The annual Sweetheart Dance given by the Bonanza Parents Patrons Club on February 13 was a most successful event. Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Brown headed the dance committee. Both gym's were decorated with cupid's red hearts and other valentine motifs. The Homer Hols supervised the decorating. Music was by the Hucks for ballroom dancing in the big gym; and Bill Mayhew called and furnished music for source dancing in the small gym. Thelma Schmoose selected the special prize and electric coffee-maker, won by Leonard Scholer.

Lovely Queen Verla Chellis, daughter of the Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chellis of Hildebrand was crowned with red and white carnations at 11:30 p.m., by Charles Dobry. Her king was Richard Burnett, son of the William J. Burnetts of Langell Valley. Both are sophomores at Bonanza.

Other queen candidates were Ruth Ralph, whose escort was Leon Roberts; Ruth Mary Thomas, escorted by Ronnie Worden; and Lois Hobbie was escorted by Terry Chatterton.

All the girls received a wristlet made of red and white carnations, and boys had boutonnieres of red carnations.

Patricia Burk led the procession to the decorated throne. Heart shaped boxes of candy were given each of the girls and boys.

Supper was served at midnight in the cafeteria by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Weiner and their committee.

Here's a simple but attractive way to decorate a cake for a child's birthday party. Arrange frosted animal crackers around the top edge of the frosted cake and place birthday candles inside the circle.

SOME 200 GUESTS witnessed the first formal wedding in the Mt. Laki Community Church, February 11, when the marriage of Betty Lou Gober to Marion Jack was solemnized in a 7 p.m. service read by the Rev. William Ainsley. Pictures above show bride and her father, C. J. Gober entering the church proper preceded by the flower girl, Starla Sue Beymer. Right, Millie Okimura, from the Hawaiian Islands, former roommate at Southern Oregon College of the bride's sister, Winifred. She has spent her Christmas vacations with the Gobers while going to school here; and she had all the orchids and leis sent from the islands for the wedding.

SHOWER FOR MRS. DON BALDWIN

Mrs. Don Baldwin was guest of honor at a pink and blue shower Tuesday evening, February 9, at the home of Mrs. John Berg.

An Italian supper of pizza, salad, fruit and coffee was served following games and entertainment. The guest of honor received many gifts from the assembled guests who were, Mrs. John Anthony, Mrs. Donald Kirkman, Mrs. Louis Andrew, Mrs. Lester Brookshire, Mrs. Richard Melum and Mrs. Noel Wright, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Walter Risse, Bonanza; Mrs. Theone Risse, Grinnell, Iowa; Mrs. Neil Witting was unable to attend.

Mrs. Berg and Mrs. Noel Wright were hostesses. Shuffleboard provided the diversion of the afternoon, at the close of which refreshments were served at a long, white cloth covered table made gay with red and white Valentine decorations, appointments and individual favors. Two decorated birthday cakes were cut and served with ice cream, punch and assorted candies after Richard opened the numerous gifts from his playmates and friends.

In addition to the honor guest, his mother and Mrs. Wilson, the following children enjoyed the party: Jay Williams, Lyle Brewer, David Wilson, Warren Wilder, Albert Wilder, Richard Veatch, Russell (Rusty) Engle, Lynn Hescok, Roger Nicholson, Darla Brewer, Gretchen Wilson, Helen Hescok and Barbara Nicholson.

When you are freezing a cake make sure that you wrap it in a material that is moisture-vapor-proof; strong and tough; odorless and tasteless; and easy to handle, seal and label.
