

MR. AND MRS. MAURICE KEEP ... after their wedding in First Covenant Church. She is the former Rose Clawson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Clawson; and he is the son of Mrs. Katherine Keep, all of this city.

Picture of the bride reflected in the mirror includes her sister, (next to her) Mrs. Keith Strickler, matron of honor; and far right, Mrs. Glenn Keep, sister-in-law of the bridegroom from Burbank, bridesmaids. Other picture is of the newlyweds cutting the first piece of cake at the reception in the church parlors.

Ceremony in First Covenant Church

Baskets of white carnations and palms illuminated with lighted tapers in tall candelabra formed the background for the January 31st wedding of Rose Clawson to Maurice Keep in First Covenant Church. The Rev. Joel Nordlund read the 4 p.m. service in the presence of a large group of friends and relatives.

The new Mrs. Keep is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Clawson, 2706 Dayton; and her husband is the son of Mrs. Katherine Keep, 800 Mt. Whitney.

The bride was escorted by her father, who gave her in marriage; and was lovely in a sheer nylon eyelid-embroidered dress, made with a sweetheart neckline, long sleeves pointed at the wrists and the graceful skirt tapered from the fitted bodice to a full train. Her full veil was gathered to a halo headpiece trimmed with orange blossoms and seed pearls. The bridal bouquet was a large arrangement of white carnations centered with a lavender orchid.

Organist, Eunice Welman, accompanied soloist, Mrs. Ray Dunn, who sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

Candlelighters were Nancy Cedarleaf in pink, and Yvonne Bullie in rose taffeta. Mrs. Keith (Dorothy) Strickler, matron of honor for her sister, wore a pale green wallis length gown. She wore a carnation tiara, and carried a nosegay of the same flowers.

Bridesmaids were: Mrs. Melvin Clawson, sister-in-law of the bride; and Mrs. Glenn Keep, sister-in-law of the bridegroom. They were dressed in identical dresses of pale pink taffeta — wallis length, and their nosegays were the same as the matron of honor's. Mrs. Wilard Cedarleaf assisted them in dressing.

Glenn Keep served his brother as best man; and Melvin and Harold Clawson, brothers of the bride, were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Clawson chose a dark green shantung suit with brown accessories and she wore pink rosebud corsage. Mrs. Keep wore a pink dress, navy blue accessories and her corsage was the same as Mrs. Clawson's.

Little flower girl was Linda Baile, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Baile. She wore a pale pink gown and flowers in her hair. Ring bearer, George Norseth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Norseth, was dressed as the senior male attendant — in a white dinner jacket.

At the reception in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony, Mrs. Otto Clawson, aunt of the bride, cut the elaborate three tiered cake which centered the table. The confection which was decorated with roses, doves, and angels was illuminated with lighted tapers placed at each side. Rosebuds were also used in the table decor.

Mrs. Eugene Baile was at the coffee service and Mrs. Norman Dwight presided at the punch bowl. Lorlei DePape registered the guests; and Katherine Cosgrove and Linda Ball were at the gift table.

Assisting were Norman Welman, Elsie Eastman, Mrs. Karin Carlson, Mrs. Peter Eastman, Mrs. Paul Norseth, Mrs. Ray Arnold and Marie Arnold.

For travel, Mrs. Keep wore a print dress and a charcoal gray upper and navy blue accessories. She wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet as a shoulder corsage. The couple is at home in Klamath Falls after a honeymoon in San Francisco.

Slices of processed yellow cheese may be used to make pretty garnishes. Cut the cheese thin, with small cutters, cut out stars, diamonds or hearts. Use the cheese cutouts for salads and canapés.
