

... More Winter Brides ... Each is a Member of a Pioneer Family

MRS. WILLIAM H. MOORE ... who was Marjorie Zwanziger before her marriage in St. Augustine's Catholic Church in Merrill, January 23. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Zwanziger, Weed; and her maternal great-grandfather was Senator Abner Weed, who founded that California town. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. William T. Moore, 334 North Fourth Street. (See inside page.)
—Photo by Graham, Henley

MRS. MARION JACK ... the former Betty Lou Gober, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Gober, Henley. Her marriage, February 3, was the first formal wedding in the Mt. Laki Community Church. Her maternal great-grandfather was John Andrew Short, Klamath Basin pioneer, who settled in this vicinity in 1885. The bridegroom is the son of Ray Jack, Hager; and Mrs. Helen Lucas, Ashland. (Further details on inside page.)
—Photo by Ferabee

SOCIETY
By Milly Ramsby

Leaving For Santa Rosa

Installation of Officers

ZULEIMA NILE CLUB OF KLAMATH FALLS ... celebrated its 23rd birthday at the regular luncheon meeting in the Willard Hotel, February 3—and outgoing President Charlotte Osborne installed the new officers. She is pictured back of the new President Peggy Chilcote (left); Vice President Florence West (center); who, as outgoing secretary-treasurer, goes over club records with new officers before turning the books over to newly installed Secretary-Treasurer Jean Coddington. Picture was taken shortly after Charlotte Osborn presented the gavel to Peggy Chilcote.
— Photo by Kettler

TOMORROW ... February 21, marks the day of the last sermon delivered by the Rev. David F. Barnett Jr. from the pulpit of the First Presbyterian Church in Klamath Falls. After ten years with the local church, the popular minister has accepted a call to the First Presbyterian Church in Santa Rosa. The family group includes his charming wife, Helen, who has been closely identified with the church; and, although a busy mother of three children, she has been teaching piano to a dozen pupils; and is a member of PEO. David Ralph, next to his father, is 13, and is an 8th grader at Fremont. Jean Louise, 10, is in the 5th grade, and also leaves many friends in the same school. William Floyd (Billy), is 4, with no school ties to sever.
—Photo by Kettler