KURT VON POPPENHEIM (above) will need a supply of vitamins when he teams with Jack Rush Wednesday night against Georges Dusette and John Paul Henning in a tag team match at the Armory.

Tag Bout Promises Mayhem

That Wednesday night's main event at the Armory will produce vicious action is as certain as death, taxes—and wolf whistles for Marilyn Monroe.

The tag team match has Georges Dusette and John Paul Henning on one side against Jack Rush and Kurt von Poppenheim.

Sentimental favorites, of course, are Dusette and Rush, although both were whipped in last week's donnybrooks.

Rush won over Dusette when the popular and powerful full Nelson expert injured his back in a fall out of the ring and couldn't continue.

Henning had all the best of it against Von Pop but the Proud Prussian used the Miami, Fla., lad's trunks as a handle to keep his shoulders to the mat, an illegal gimmick Referee Norval Stockstill didn't see.

Dusette and Henning have promised to use the tag team bout as a means to score two reversals in one.

Tag teaming is the best crowd-pleaser of all and this bout is a natural. Castleberry Drugs, headquarters for advance ticket sales, is expected to do a brisk business.

Roy Wolf, a highly-rated Toronto youngster, is expected to score a bit in the opener against Bronco Lublich.

Hilltop, Lakers In City Wins

Hilltop Cafe and the Beatty Lakers won last night in City League basketball games at Alamosa.

The Hilltoppers whipped Klamath Sons, 65-53; the Lakers breezed by Southern Pacific, 77-54.

Elwood Miller scored 19 points for the losing Sons and Chuck Ruff dumped 16, the same number Dan Mahoney managed for Hilltop.

Hilltop Cafe led by a slim 27-25 margin at the half but scored 23 points in the third quarter to pull away.

Ralph Weiser rolled in 21 points for the Lakers with teammates Davis and Brown adding 18 and 15. Ken Bigby was high for Southern Pacific with 17.

Games Wednesday night pair the league-leading National Guards and Beatty at 7 o'clock while Metters and Klamath Sons clash in the 8:15 afterpiece.

Stanky Likes Royce Lint

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Royce Lint, a 32-year-old gray-haired rookie pitcher, showed up for his first day at the St. Louis Cardinals' spring training camp and favorably impressed Manager Eddie Stanky.

"Good knuckleball, curve, pretty fair fast ball," said Stanky Monday.

Lint, acquired by the Cards in the player draft, won 23 and lost 10 at Portland in the Pacific Coast League last year. A southpaw, Lint has been in organized baseball since 1940 and never been out of the minors.

SPOKANE (AP) — Lightweight Mario Trigo of Mexico and Bobby Woods of Spokane tangled here Tuesday night in the 10-round main event of a boxing card. Trigo boasts wins over Art Aragon and Bernard Docusen. Woods is a Spokane favorite.

Race Winner Disqualified

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Tim Flock of Atlanta has been disqualified as winner of the 160-mile Grand National Circuit race for strictly stock cars and first place has been awarded to Lee Petty of Randleman, N.C.

The National Assn. for Stock Car Automobile Racing announced Tuesday night it was disqualifying Flock on grounds the carburetor of his car had been altered. Flock drove a 1954 Oldsmobile 88.

Petty, who finished one minute and 28 seconds behind Flock, drove a 1954 Chrysler New Yorker, which passed an inspection of NASCAR's technical committee. Flock set an apparent new record of 90.4 m.p.h. traveling the 39 laps over the 4.1-mile beach and road course in one hour, 46 minutes and 11 seconds.

Mountaineers Drub Raiders

LA GRANDE (AP) — Eastern Oregon College of Education took the lead in the opening minutes and was never headed as it defeated Southern Oregon 79-74 in a non-conference basketball game here Monday night.

MELBOURNE (AP) — John Landy, Australia's ace miler, turned in a 4:02.6 clocking Wednesday night at Olympic Park bucking a strong headwind on a track made heavy by a drizzling rain.

Landy's time was just 12 seconds off the world standard of 4:01.4 set by Sweden's Gunder Haegg in 1945.

Pioneers Keep First Place

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Lewis and Clark smothered Whitman 102-78 Monday night to tighten its hold on first place in Northwest Conference basketball standings.

The win at Portland, coupled with Pacific University's 90-71 defeat of College of Idaho dropped Whitman out of a second place tie with Willamette. Pacific University took over the berth, ahead of Willamette, on the strength of the win over Idaho.
