HENLEY

By PAT BEYMER
The only current news in this community at least from farmers, is the non-existing potato market and the high cost of living. The men always say, "No matter what the prices, weather or season, the women's club must continue!"

Tuesday night, February 9, the C. J. Guber home was filled to capacity with the wedding party and families of Betty Lou Guber and Marion Jack. Guests were seated at individual tables and served buffet supper. After supper members of the wedding party hurried to the rehearsal in Mt. Laki Community Church. Carolyn Dickson, bridesmaid, arrived home from Oregon State College just in time for the dinner.

Enjoying the hospitality of the Gubers were the Rev. and Mrs. William Ainsley, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jack, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dehlinger, Mrs. Eva Short, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Carler, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Short and Jimmy, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beymer and family, Jim Brothman, Donna Tillman, Laddie Lytle, Millie Okimura, Bill

Daly, Gerald Durant, Dot Ann Fleming, Mrs. Elizabeth Short, Delbert Dehlinger, Carolyn Dickson, Mrs. Veach, Marion Jack, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Lucas, Darlene Jack and Della Dalton.

Gerald Durant, USMC, was here on a three day leave to act as best man for Marion Jack. He stayed with his mother, Mrs. Sherman Carler, while here. He is stationed at Point Mugu which is six miles from Oxnard, California.

The community is happy to hear that Mrs. Vernon Durant, who has been ill, is recuperating and back at her household and secretarial duties.

It seems that the mumps are not just a children's disease. Mrs. John Wallin, whose son Gary is a first grader at Henley, came down with them before Gary did. She has been very ill and only able to consume liquids.

The Mt. Laki Ladies Aid has always been very active but each year it takes on larger projects. The money it receives is used for the benefit of the church. Since last March, members have been collecting coffee bands and have purchased two large coffee urns for the church kitchen. Mrs. Flossie Tromblee had charge of the coupon and coffee bands and foraged through many junk piles to rescue coffee bands for the needed amount. She also sews aprons, makes feather corsages and turns the money received from their sale to the Ladies Aid, and the amount has been large. All the women in the Ladies Aid give freely of their time to help carry out projects to make this a better community in which to live. The Ladies Aid has been host for many bridal and baby showers and now has decided to take care of the wedding reception held in the church.

Shari Breithaupt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Breithaupt, went to Crescent City to visit with her grandmother, Mrs. Viola Pollard. Forrest took Shari, Mrs. Fannie Cheyne and some fishing companions to Grants Pass. The men were going to spend several days on the Rogue River fishing for salmon. Mrs. Pollard is meeting Mrs. Cheyne, her mother, and Shari in Grants Pass.

Mrs. Jean Norris entertained the bid or By Bridge Club at her home February 5. Two tables of bridge were in play. Tallies, candy and prizes carried out the Valentine theme. Chocolate chiffon pie and coffee were served to Mrs. Gretchen Thompson, (who won), Mrs. Marjorie Berry (prize winner), Mrs. Muriel Johnson (low), Mrs. Ethel Whitlatch, Mrs. Arlene Gooding, Mrs. Margaret Breithaupt, Mrs. Vivian Wise and Mrs. Pat Beymer.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Berry left Monday for a few days' business and pleasure trip to Pasco, Washington. En route they stopped at Prineville to attend Bob Strader's funeral. While they are gone the children and farm chores are being taken care of by Vern's parents who came from Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Weimer of Bonanza were February 11 luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dehlinger. Before moving to Langell Valley the Weimers lived in this community. Faye is still a member of the Country Cousins Bridge Club.

CHILOQUIN

By DARLENE WOLFF

A number of Chilquin families have just returned from winter vacations. Traveling the greatest distance were Mr. and Mrs. Don Potter, who with relatives from Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Potter, took a three weeks' trip to Mexico City. The two couples entered Mexico by way of Juarez across from El Paso and spent four days driving through the country to the capital city.

They spent three days there with guide service, and drove north by way of the Pan American highway to Nuevo Laredo, south of San Antonio. From there to Carlsbad Caverns where the couples separated, the Don Potters coming on to Chilquin by bus, the Earl Potters going to Oklahoma to visit. During their absence, the Potters, Donald and Dennis, stayed with an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Hengl, in Sprague River. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hall drove home to Laguna Beach, California, visited there for two days and spent the next week in working their way home, visiting with friends and seeing the sights. Lyle, their sixth grade son, stayed with the John Mannings, Janet divided her time between the Dwight Kircher home and with her grandparents, the George Freids, at Modoc Point.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mannings had come home just in time to have Lyle stay with them. They have been in Portland on a five day trip where they attended with Mr. and Mrs. Lou Kellison of Klamath Falls, the annual Copeland Yard managers' convention. Lowell Mannings stayed with the Halls and Gail was in Modoc Point with her friend, Charlynn O'Neill.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Freid are back from a leisurely trip to Reno, Nevada and to San Francisco. During their ten day trip their oldest daughter, Candace, had gone to Portland with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Glenger, who went to visit Mrs. Glenger's parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Leonard Buck. Lydia stayed with the John Jaderholms and with the Robert Doaks. Three-year-old Mark visited the Earl Halls and the John Jaderholms and two-year-old Melissa was with her grandparents, the George Freids. The family had an excellent time just in getting together again after being scattered so widely.

Along with all the vacations there have been other types of news. Mrs. Ruby Peeler had an unexpected and serious operation three weeks ago in Klamath Falls and is now in Ashland undergoing treatment. Her daughters, Mrs. Donald Potter and Mrs. Vern Hengl, made the trip with her and will be gone at least a week. Mrs. Peeler, who has worked at Glenger's store for several years, is still listed as in very serious condition but enjoyed visits from many friends here before leaving for the valley. Mrs. Ida Hoppe is working at the store to Mrs. Peeler's place.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Adams and three children have recently moved to the Gard house directly across from the high school. One of the first grade twins, Kenneth, is now confined to bed with yellow jaundice, but the stay is made a bit more pleasant by the new television set which was installed at his house early this week.
