Damage Suit Filed For Death Of Wife

PUEBLO, Colo. (AP)—Claiming an automobile accident caused the death of his wife—although she was not in the accident—Vernon E. Grothe filed suit in District Court yesterday asking $22,500 from William Dean Ward and John Joseph Perko.

He said he was a passenger in an automobile driven by Perko last June 30 when it was in collision with a car he said was operated by Ward.

He said he was injured and that when his wife learned of the accident she died of a heart attack.

Fort Klamath

By MYRTLE WIMER

Mr. and Mrs. William Zumbrun returned this month from Porterville, California, where they spent two months visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown. During their stay in the South, their local residence was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer (Dutch) Zumbrun and Billy, who have moved into one of the rental houses owned by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O. Dycke.

Friends will be glad to hear that Elmer is steadily improving from a fractured hip socket sustained in car accident there in October. He is now able to get around without use of crutches.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gray observed their 36th wedding anniversary this month by giving a small informal dinner party at their home February 6. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Strahan, the Gray's daugher and two little boys, Mrs. Gene Corbin, Hyall and Duane, visiting here from Stockton, California, Gray's sister, Miss Alice Gray.

Contrary to a previous item appearing in this column, William A. Page is not yet able to be back on the job at the Rainbow garage. Although improving slowly from recent surgery undergone at Klamath Valley Hospital in Klamath Falls, he is still unable to resume work.

While in the correction department, an error was made in the account of the death of former resident, Mrs. John E. Gribble, Medford. Listed among her survivors was a son, John Jr. It has since been learned that he was a casualty of a February 11, 1937, airplane accident at Cuehl Training Port, San Antonio, Texas. A daughter, Mrs. John Lynch, is a resident of Medford, instead of California, as erroneously stated.

Voters Not Delayed By Lack Of Ballot

CAMDEN, N. J. (AP)—A school board official walked into a polling place yesterday where Camden voters were balloting on a 2½-million - dollar school budget and noticed the voting machine was blank.

Election officials had forgotten to indicate on the machine the seven items being voted on. But that hadn't stopped 44 voters who had preceded the official. They had cast their votes—yes or no—anyway.

Judge Unable To Tell Which Dog Bit

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Superior Judge Charles W. Fricke, who has been a jurist for 28 years, appeared in his courtroom yesterday with his left hand bandaged. He explained to associates that he was bitten when he tried to stop a fight between his own dog and one owned by his daughter.

"The worst of it is," he said, "that after being critical for many years of witnesses who couldn't be sure just what they saw, I cannot tell which dog bit me."
