

Newest Exponent Of Wiggle Rises On Hollywood Scene

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — It's strange what a little wiggle can do. It was just such a thing that started Lana Turner and Marilyn Monroe on the road to stardom. Now the same thing is happening to a luscious blonde charmer who calls herself Sherree North.

The doll appeared on Bing Crosby's first TV show and played an Irish-like role with Bing and Jack Benny. Toward the end of the show she flung off her skirt and went through a dance routine that sized the cables. Also the sponsor and some irate TV viewers.

"The dance was criticized as a burlesque routine," she recalls. "It wasn't. A girl who was only a burlesque dancer wouldn't have been able to do it."

"Actually, the routine was not as bad as some people made it out to be. It's just that it seemed wild after the easy pace of the show. People are used to a leisurely pace from Bing. When a girl throws off her skirt and does a fast dance number after he has been on, it's something of a shock."

"I realized this, and that's why I picked the most conservative choreographer I knew. The trouble was that I didn't have time to learn the routine. I had been laid up for two months with a broken arch. I had only a couple of hours to rehearse the dance. Then they shot it mostly from the waist up. When you have a girl jitterbugging to the 'One O'clock Jump,' it's bound to look a bit sensational."

That's putting it mildly. But while the protests poured in, so did the offers. The biggest was the possibility of filling out Monroe's "Pink Tights." She was given the most extensive test in recent years—in CinemaScope yet. Two days ago 20th Century-Fox signed her to a contract.

"I was really lucky," she remarked. "With both 'Pink Tights' and 'The Egyptian' postponed, people had nothing to do on the lot. I was given the top director, cameraman and everything."

She gets another lucky break this Sunday. She'll star in the NBC version of "Anything Goes," along with Ethel Merman, Frank Sinatra and Bert Lahr. The show is getting the red-carpet treatment with Leland Hayward doing his first producing job in TV since his sensational Ford anniversary show.

"I don't know whether I'm going to dance on the show," said Sherree. "I'm almost afraid to. I don't want to offend the mothers and fathers of America."

"IT'S ALL OVER" — says this trio of the tired serving crew that shuffled back and forth with platters of food at Malin, Monday night at the chamber of commerce dinner. Left to right, Bob Byrne, new president of the chamber who shucked an apron to take the gavel, Ivan Petrusek, and Jerry Rajnus.

Adenauer Warns Of Russian Aims

BONN, Germany (AP) — West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer warned Thursday that "Sovietization of Europe" is still the supreme goal of Russian policy and called on free Europe to unite quickly to block this threat.

Opening a debate in the Bundestag on the Berlin Big Four conference, the chancellor said:

"The Soviet Union intends to maintain its present advanced position as a jumping off point for the eventual domination of all Europe."

"More than ever now there exists the necessity for Europe to unite its resources. The European Defense Community must become a reality."

Convicted Solon Returns Home

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Bramblett (R-Calif.) Thursday disclosed plans to return home early next week for a two-week visit.

Bramblett was convicted by a Federal District Court jury Feb. 9 on charges of falsifying his office payroll to collect kickbacks from a woman employee.

He is free on $2,500 bond pending a hearing, set for Friday, on defense motions seeking to set aside the jury's verdict on grounds of lack of evidence.

COOPERATION
KARACHI, Pakistan (AP) — Pakistan and the United States agreed Tuesday to team up for a major irrigation project in Punjab province. The project is estimated eventually to cost about 30 million dollars.

He is free on $2,500 bond pending a hearing, set for Friday, on defense motions seeking to set aside the jury's verdict on grounds of lack of evidence.

Warmer Trend Over Nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Fair, mild weather prevailed over most of the southern half of the country Thursday but there were some wet spots in the east and central part of the country.

Light snow fell in the Dakotas, parts of Nebraska, northern Michigan and south of Lakes Erie and Ontario. Rain continued along the Atlantic seaboard from North Carolina to Maine and in Western Washington.

Summer-like temperatures were reported in Southern California and Arizona Wednesday with a top of 91 at Yuma, Ariz., and 89 at Los Angeles.
