Bob Mest, D. U. C. (Doctor of Used Cars) inspected and found an epidemic of "Lot-itis" starting among his stock. Said Mest, "If isolated and in loving hands, any of these cars can be completely cured." Mest further stated that "Lot-itis" is found in used cars that have been on the lot longer than 30 days. Said Mest, "Regardless of lot these cars must be sold. Mest is commonly known as Southern Oregon's most ruthless price cutter."

K. FALLS

KLAMATH FALLS was one of 19 high schools participating at Oregon State College in weekend discussions on student adjustment to college life. Principal Charles Carlson (left) and Paul Angstead, vice principal, traveled to OSC to talk to last year's graduates. Purpose was to learn strong and weak points in the high school training and counseling for college and in the OSC guidance and orientation programs for new students. With the principals are freshmen, from left, Ingram Montgomery, who is enrolled in the lower division of liberal arts; Lou Fredrickson, engineering; and John Godard, agriculture.

Francis P. Leppig, confirmed over 10 children and several adults Tuesday evening. The Glee Club sang for the 90 minute service.

The Pep Step was a complete success. Programs were miniature saddle-shoes, with real "fuzzy" bobby-sox. Red and white streamers decorated the parish hall; cake and punch were served during the intermission and music was provided by the juke-box.

Following the Confirmation service Tuesday, a dinner was held for the team at Sari's. Intra-mural games are now being played during the boys' gym classes. The juniors beat the seniors and the freshmen were defeated by the sophomores in the first series.

Spring seems to have finally arrived for good. Baseball has been started by the girls' P. E. classes. Madrigals will go to Weed, California, Sunday to sing for a banquet there.

Sunday, February 28, is the date set for the intermediate piano recital to be held in the auditorium beginning at 2:30 p.m. Piano, viola, violin and cello pieces are included in the program, along with several songs by the Junior String Ensemble. The public is cordially invited.

Next issue of the "Tinkle," sophomore journalism class paper, will soon be put out. The Tinkle staff visited the Guide Printing Company Tuesday afternoon to learn the mechanics of printing.
