

THESE FOUR WOMEN will guide the Fairview PTA through the coming year. Above, left, Mrs. A. W. Dannelley, president, and Mrs. Cecil Haggren, vice president. Below, left, Mrs. C. O. Wamstead, secretary, and Mrs. Don Horn, treasurer. — Photos by Ferebee

Garden Tips

GILCHRIST
By Virginia Taylor

The Gilchrist Community Garden Club, met February 17 in the high school for a program on "Forest Conservation" directed by Dorothy Houston, conservation chairman. Hostesses for the evening were Miss Houston, Anna B. Dollzell and Mr. and Mrs. Vern Rochech, members of the faculty who also are club members.

The program opened with a piano solo, "The Pines," by Judy Wyse.

Dick Ehnlis spoke on the Klamath County conservation program, participated in by students of nearly all classes of all county schools, started in 1949 by Carroll Howe, superintendent of Klamath County schools and Isabelle Brinker, supervisor. The five year plan ended in 1953. The studies covered conservation of bird life, wildlife, soil, water, forests.

Papers presented each year by Gilchrist students have been outstanding. Student this year won 11 awards.

Larry Larson, spoke on activities in which students of the elementary and high schools had participated in the program. Essays, magazine articles, news stories, radio scripts were written, students made posters and appeared as public speakers.

Field trips under direction of Newell Cory, district forest ranger, were taken, and Cory also talked on "Why Forest Conservation?" Others who gave time were James Sowder, of the Deschutes Research Center, stationed at the experimental station, Pringle Falls; Harry C. Parker, ranger naturalist, Crater Lake National Park; Roy A. Johnson, soil specialist; George Larimer, manager, Midstate Electric Cooperative, Lapine; Clarence Humble, Weyerhaeuser Timber Co., active in the "Keep Oregon Green" Association.

A puppet play "Smoky the Bear," was presented by the fifth grade, directed by Mrs. Vern Rochech, depicting destruction of forests, caused by man.

"Forest Conservation," was conducted by Wally Cory, chairman; Jane Brader, spoke on "Selective Cutting," Judy Wyse, "Research," Dick Aenis, "Recreation," and June James, "Re-forestation."

Garden Club sponsored awards went to Beverly Sample, first in the junior high school essay contest; Bobby Thomas, second; Ronnie De Vine, third; Sue Roland, Bobby Garner and Charles Patterson, honorable mention.

First place in the high school poster contest went to Michael Harris; second to Jane Brader; third to Don Gooch.

Margins in judging were very close, according to the judges. Refreshments were served after the meeting with a George Washington, patriot theme predominating.

ELY
An essay contest on conservation in the Ely school for the seventh, eighth and ninth grades, was sponsored by the Ely Garden Club. The first prize of $5 went to Bill Ed Moore, age 13, a seventh grader. His entry will go to Klamath Falls to be judged in the district finals.

The local club has been very active since it was organized last October. Monthly meetings are held at the homes of members.

Dog Dies After Long Life

MONROE, Mich. (AP) — If Lucky Lindy had been human instead of a fox terrier, she would have died at the age of 189.

One year of a dog's life, it is said, corresponds to seven of man's. Lindy was 27 at death. She was named after Charles A. Lindbergh, who landed his Spirit of St. Louis in Paris May 21, 1927, the day the dog was born.

JUNIOR CHAMBER
HONG KONG (AP) — More than 200 delegates from 14 Asian countries opened the fourth Asian regional conference of the Junior Chambers of Commerce International Wednesday.

La Pointe's

They're so new.
so exciting
You'll fall in love
all over again with

WEATHERVANES

tailored by

Handmacher

Who could resist the flattery of Weathervanes' new, more rounded lines. Or their light luxurious fabrics, like the finest imports. And who wouldn't love knowing that the fresh beauty of Weathervanes is there to stay. That they'll hold their shape, resist wrinkles, scorn rainspots. As for fit, as for the tailoring—you know how good for you they are.

They're HANDMACHER

(Above)
Shirt-front suit, plumb-tucked.
Softly molded and belted.
$29.95
As seen in VOGUE January.

(Right)
Button-button collar, and half-moon pockets. Fine welted detail.
$25.95
As seen in the
SATURDAY EVENING POST

(Far Right)
Curved shawl collar suit that makes much of buttons and welting.
$29.95
As seen in April GLAMOUR

Simple perfection with up-and-down pockets,
and long, fluid lines.
$25.95

As seen in February 13th
SATURDAY EVENING POST

That's why
Carstairs tastes
so smooth and mellow!

$3.65
4/5 Quart

The Man who Cares says:

CARSTAIRS
WHITE SEAL

CARSTAIRS BROS. DISTILLING CO., INC., NEW YORK, N. Y.
BLENDED WHISKEY, 86 PROOF, 72% GRAIN NEUTRAL SPIRITS

