Colored Movies Of NY Models Shown At Reames

Spring came to Reames Golf and Country Club Friday, February 19, with the desert bridge given by the Women's auxiliary. The club was colorful with potted plants of various hues, later given as bridge prizes.

More than 120 people enjoyed seeing the colored movies of the new spring fashion shown under the supervision of LaPointe's store. Brilla Franz gave a brief introductory background to the picture, describing the Powers models; the clothes they wore; and the celebrities shown at the Stock Club in New York.

Mrs. Harold L. Robertson, social chairman of the club, announced an evening bridge party for members and wives scheduled for March 26.

Pythian Sisters

February 19 the Pythian Sisters enjoyed a dinner and social evening at Jen-Ed's, financed by the social club. The many members present were pleased to see Jennie Hurn, who made her first appearance since her release from the hospital. Evening's guest was Delores Phillips, who will be initiated at the next regular temple meeting.

After dinner, diversion was cards, games and fortune telling. Marie Kilgore, the new social club president, and Charlotte Canyon, made most of the evening's plans.

THEY SHARE... most of their time with each other... they share the same natal month... January... and on January 23, they shared a birthday anniversary celebration in the Winema Hotel Empire Room.

Both are eight... Joan Kay, born on the 20th, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Hamilton, 309 North Ninth; and Janette, on the 22nd, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Vlahos, 2022 Main. Mrs. Clark Blair assisted the mothers in successfully planning diversion for the 30-some youngsters.

The "look-alike" attire on the two girls "just happened that way"... and a surprise to both mothers.

JOINT BIRTHDAYS OBSERVED BY TWO JANUARY EIGHT-YEAR-OLDS

The Empire Room of the Winema Hotel was buzzing with a birthday celebration on the 23rd of January, when Mrs. Gus Vlahos and Mrs. Orville Hamilton entertained at a joint party for Mrs. Hamilton's Joan Kay, and Mrs. Vlahos' Janette.

Both of the young misses were January babies eight years ago; Joan Kay on the 20th and Janette on the 22nd. Invitations were issued to Micky and Pat Blair (twins); Rixie and Randy Balsiger (more of same); Susie and Linda Whytal, Roberta Renie, Jay Guek, Janice McCracken, Bobbie and Jimmie Waltrip and Mary Brochis, Jeannie Ledbetter, Micky and Joan Holland, Marsha Canine, Jana Erindson, Richard Yaeger, Donald Yoder, Sandra Willis, Darlene Ward, Ralph Walker, Benjamin Tomlin, Cheryl Rutherford, Kathryn Ross, Grace Norland, Kandice Nevils, Mary Ledford, Charles Kimball, Daniel Kettler, Mary Jean Blackwell and Alice Allen.

A huge birthday cake frosted in pink with deep red frosting roses was inscribed with "Happy Birthday" — and at either side, each girl's name was written in icing.

Various games were planned to entertain the "more-than" 30 youngsters during the party hours.
