REFLECTIONS FROM

Milly's Mirror

THEY WERE SURPRISED—(the four left in the Judge Vandenberg household) — a 3 a.m. (Friday) phone call from Corvallis announced 1 a.m. arrival of son to Mary and Stan Neitling—not named yet—Last weekend the Va. were in Corvallis when Dave and Bonnie and the only two offspring left at home — Cele and John — left mother there to be with Mary—This new arrival is the first grandson — Dave has two girls — and he weighed 7 lbs 8 oz when he made his appearance at the Good Samaritan Hospital — please pass the cigars — Judge — paternal gp's are the Joseph Neitlings—Hillsboro.

YACHT CLUB TONIGHT — is REALLY going to be an evening of something different for members and guests — "The committee has gone all out to have unusual props for the informal winter sports dance — and our operator has overheard buzzin' that sounds like it'll be nothing but fun out there — Also for other occasions and just dropping in the club now has television — Mike and Beulah will have a tough time getting ANYTHING done!

BACK FROM — a month's trip — much of it spent in So California — the G. C. Lorenzen—he was in Palm Springs when President Eisenhower arrived by plane at about 9:45 at night — and reported an amazing crowd had gathered before the President's plane landed — many had, some out 6 hours before—and latercomers (of which G. C. was one) couldn't get to within a couple of miles of the place — It was a wonderful demonstration of "Ike's" popularity — The Lorenzen visited various relatives while gone — included some of hers in Monrovia — his in Santa Barbara — part was spent in La Jolla—Fresno—saw the J. Royal Shaws in Palm Springs — who are now settled in their beautiful new home at that famous desert resort.

THE PARTY—for the departing Weinmairs (the one at Reames last Sunday — the open house for Ruth and Earl) was one of the BEST — and more details will be given later.

SPEAKING OF REAMES — the desert bride was an outstanding success last week—too—colored movies of top N.Y. models—and superb food two contributing factors.

Quota Club Names Ellen Clark As 'Woman of Achievement'

Mrs. George (Ellen) Clark was the honored guest at the February 22 dinner meeting of Quota Club when she was presented with this year's "Woman of Achievement" award by Alice Vilus, past governor of Quota's 14th district.

Mrs. Clark, an active member of the Soroptimist Club, in addition to being a busy wife and mother, assisting in her husband's business and teaching part time at KUHS, has freely donated her time for years to Scouting, parents' organizations, the Republican Club, the American Association of University Women, and to the Red Cross, both in chapter work and the bloodmobile.

Quota attempts to pick a woman each year who has been interested in youth groups, as well as serving her community in other ways, and members were well pleased by this recognition of Mrs. Clark's long period of service.

This meeting, held at the Winema Hotel, was also the observance of the 35th anniversary of Quota International, and a number of Soroptimists were in attendance, including president, Ruth Adams. For the benefit of new Quotarians, and guests, a brief history of Quota from the time of its organization in the east, was presented by Helen Majors, first vice president. Mrs. Majors pointed out that the service club was organized to promote the prestige of women in business and industry, and that it now has over 820 members in the United States, Canada, Mexico and Australia.

Edith Lantz, program chairman for the evening, introduced Phyllis Dannelley, vocalist, and Mary Ann Munson, her accompanist, both KUHS students, who entertained with several musical numbers. Helen Clugston was greeted as a new Quotarian, and the birthdays of Jean Rawlings and Jey Rolf were observed.

The next meeting will be a luncheon at the Winema on March 8, and it was announced by President Nadine Colvin that the 14th district governor, Anna Mae Powers of Spokane, is expected to make her official visit on March 22.
