

Family Group ... From the "Basin Book"

MR. AND MRS. ERIC MAJORS and their three children. David Wright, standing beside his father, is 12, and a 7th grader at Riverside; William Eric (Bill), is 7, and in the 1st grade at Conger. Muriel Ann, 6, is in the same grade at the same school.

Picture was taken at the Majors home, 128 Grant, which they bought several years ago. They were first residents of Klamath Falls in 1938, when Eric came here with General Motors. He was transferred to Boise in 1940, and later to Cleveland, Ohio. They returned in 1945; have lived here since then. He is at present associated with Parker-Pontiac Company; and is a member of the Klamath Falls Lions Club.

His wife, Helen, follows a busy schedule — she is executive secretary of the Klamath County Tuberculosis and Health Association, a member of the American Association of University Women and Quota Club. A graduate of the University of Oregon, she is affiliated with Pi Beta Phi social sorority.

Weather permitting, much of the Majors' spare time is spent at their Lake o' the Woods summer cottage.

Mrs. W. E. Wright, children's maternal grandmother, lives in McMinnville. Paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Majors, are residents of Burley, Idaho. — Photo by Kettler

Herald and News Goes to a Slumber Party

(... with apologies to Life Magazine)

THEY CALL IT A "SLUMBER PARTY" ... but ask any parent who's survived one ... and replies will include "conversation contest" — "oral marathon" — "thought those sleep-saboteurs would never quiet down" — etc. Here we have three "on-the-spot" pictures, which, to be a true chronicle, should be accompanied with sound to reproduce the last sleepy whisper uttered before "came the dawn".

These particular sleepy-time-gals (ten of 'em not counting Baulah the English bulldog) assembled to celebrate Janna Warren's birthday. Hostess, Susan O'Hair made all the arrangements for the event at the Keith O'Hair residence, 1823 Logan and prepared the quantities of thick juicy hamburgers and salad consumed along with a case of a popular effervescent soft drink.

Next major diversion of the evening was a movie — where they are shown at the box office of the Esquire Theater buying tickets. Third camera shot in the series reveals them all garbed (ostensibly) for sleep — which, of course, was purely incidental. The guest of honor is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Warren, Algoma.

SOCIETY

By Milly Ramsby

"Sleep" is a Shunned Stranger at Slumber Parties

ALL OF THE PARTICIPANTS appear in all of the pictures; and are identified from left to right as they are grouped above. Seated on the sofa, Carolyn Garrison, Margaret Hayden, Nancy Drew, Sue Thompson and Linda Fyock. Standing, Susan O'Hair, hostess; seated on floor, Mary Marq Addison, guest of honor Janna Warren, Deanna Vincze and back of her, Gwen Morris.

— Photos by Floyd

