

Berry-Vidricksen Names United In Chapel Ceremony At Fort Ord

Parents and relatives of Jeanette Irene Vidricksen and Harold Milton Berry assembled February 6 in the chapel at Fort Ord, where the couple was united in marriage in an afternoon service read by Major C. Koeler, chaplain of the 63rd Infantry Division.

The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Vidricksen, live in Everett. Berry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Ann Berry, 1911 Fargo. Simple, tasteful arrangements of stock decorated the chapel, in keeping with the atmosphere of rustic, quiet charm.

The bridal gown, designed with tiers of pleated nylon over lace, added a Spanish touch to the setting. A rhinestone tiara held her shoulder length veil; and her bouquet was of white roses, white carnations and bouvardia.

Mrs. Deau E. Minor, Monroe, Washington, was matron of honor for her sister and only attendant. She wore a waltz length dress of quilted ecru net. Her corsage was of white phlox and orchids.

Mrs. Vidricksen chose a royal blue ensemble for her daughter's wedding; and the bridegroom's mother wore powder blue. Both wore corsages of white orchids.

Cpl. George Dahl, from Vancouver, fraternity brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushering were, Allan Davidson, Chicago; and Robert Richardson, Boulder, Colorado.

The wedding dinner was served at the Casa Munras, Monterey, historic California landmark built in 1824, originally the home of early California Spaniard, Don Esteban Munras.

From Klamath Falls were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stone (sister of the bridegroom), and their children, Vaughn, Sandra and Milton; and Melvin Berry, bridegroom's brother. Anita Hansen came from Everett for the occasion; and Dean Minor from Monroe.

The wedding cake, served after dinner, was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom which had decorated the 50th wedding anniversary cake of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Vidricksen, Salina, Kansas; and has since been used on five family wedding cakes.

Jeanette, a graduate of Everett High School, is a member of Alpha Delta Pi at the University of Washington; and Harold, after graduation from KUIS, attended the same university where he was affiliated with Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity.

The couple is now living at Seaside, California, while he is stationed at nearby Fort Ord with the Band Training Unit.

IN THE CHAPEL . . . Mrs. Harold Milton Berry (Jeanette Irene Vidricksen) poses after the afternoon service read by Major C. Koeler, chaplain of the 63rd Infantry Division. The marriage vows were said in the quiet setting of the chapel at Fort Ord in the presence of the parents of the couple, and other close relatives.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Vidricksen, Everett; and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Graham Berry, 1911 Fargo. Other picture shows the happy couple arriving at the Casa Munras in Monterey, where the wedding dinner was served to the guests.

They are at home in Seaside, California while Berry is stationed at Fort Ord with the Band Training Unit.

Peggy Chilcote, 5700. Cards will be played after the meeting.

HER WEDDING . . . February 6 in the First Methodist Church to Robert Owen Scoggins was a winter social event.

She is the former Audree Rae Duell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Olson; and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Scoggins.

Pictures include her young brother, Larry, and her cousin, Janice Corbin, in their shared duties as candlelighters; in another, leaving the altar with her husband after the 8 p.m. ceremony; and with her maid of honor, Gerry Moore, with the always fascinating florist's box of bridal flowers for the wedding principals. Green and Pink in Pastel Hues Chosen by Blonde Audree Duell For Wedding in First Methodist

Pink, white and pale green were the colors featured in the church flowers and the attendants' dresses at the wedding of Audree Rae Duell to Robert Owen Scoggins, February 6.

Audree is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Olson, 2110 Ward Street; and parents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Scoggins live at 1335 Sargent Avenue.

Mrs. Earl Redman, organist, accompanied Ronnie Bryan, soloist. Candlelighters were the bride's younger brother, Larry; and her cousin, Janice Corbin.

Pink and white carnations arranged with large sprays of white stock formed the background for the 8 p.m. service read by the Rev. Lloyd F. Holloway in First Methodist Church, in the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives. The bride's father gave her in marriage.

The gown of white Chantilly lace with yards and yards of nylon net over satin gathered to a deep yoke of lace below the waist, was designed with a fitted bodice and a button-up jacket of lace with long fitted sleeves and a Peter Pan collar.

A nylon net crown edged with a single row of orange blossoms held her fingertip veil. She carried a white prayer book centered with a pure white orchid and stock florets tied with satin streamers.

Maid of honor, Gerry Moore, wore pink net with lace inserts; with short sleeved brief bolero of matching lace. Her bouquet was of pale green carnations and white stock, as were the other attendants, Wanda Beste and Iris Carter. Both wore dresses identical in style to the maid of honor's, except that theirs were pale green.

Best man was Jack Ender; and ushers were Stanley (Busty) Duell, Dennis (Bitz) Duell, Bill Hotchkiss and Gary Williams.

Mrs. Olson wore a beige and brown costume to her daughter's wedding, and her corsage was of pink carnations with stock florets. Mother of the bridegroom wore a navy blue suit with navy accessories, and a pink carnation corsage.

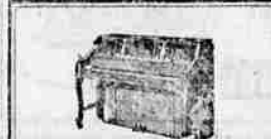

Guests were received at the home of the bride's parents, Roberta McCoy poured; Claudette Allan cut the cake; and Mrs. E. R. Corbin and Mrs. C. D. Stevens assisted.

The blonde bride wore a pink faille suit, pink and white accessories — and a white orchid corsage, when the couple left for a honeymoon trip along the California coast. They are now at home, 425 Mt. Whitney Street.

Clown Cake For Birthday Party

CHEMULT — Denny Jessup was the birthday celebrant at a dessert and theater party Friday evening, February 19. Coming for dessert were: Kenny Farris, Gene Murray, Larry and Normie Masten, Billy and Ernie Taylor, Dickie Cole, Pat O'Brian, John Marvin, Pete Graham, Adrian Stockman and Carl Ramsey.

The cake was in the form of a clown with candies to complete the gala affect. The youngsters were then motored to Olechist to see the film "Sequoia". Denny is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Jessup and was seven February 17.
