

NEW IDEAS . . . came to Basin BPW members when Ingeborg Bauer, Germany, member of the educational exchange program was honored guest of Business and Professional Women, February 14. Group picture taken at the Presbyterian Church in Merrill. From the left, standing, Kathleen Brickner, Mamie Giacomini, Harriett Fotheringham, Delia Hodges, Lillian Thomas, president; Ingeborg Bauer, Myrtle Beasley, Eva Bowman and Carolyn Loveness.

LV Womens Club To Sponsor Four Benefit Dances

LANGELL VALLEY — The Langell Valley Women's Club met at the home of Mrs. Lester Leavitt 2 p.m. February 12. Business meeting was conducted by president Mrs. Leavitt. A discussion was held on the use of the Community Hall.

Mrs. Marion Lindsay and Mrs. Ray Davis were appointed to attend the meeting at the Community Hall February 25, when all interested persons are to meet for further discussion. The Women's Club will sponsor four dances in the next four months to help put a heating system and new cook stove in the Community Hall. These dances will be for the public and all will be asked for help with the supper, as the heating system which is very necessary, will benefit everyone.

Mrs. Joe Potucek, Mrs. Bill Burnett and Mrs. Jack Wimer were appointed on the committee to divide the community into four parts for the four dances. The first dance will be March 6, and Mrs. Ernest Graves will be in charge. Music by The Three Notes.

Following the meeting, cards were played. High prize in bridge went to Mrs. Jack Wimer, high in pinocle to Mrs. Ed Scott.

Mrs. I. B. Morris of Kenley, former president of the club was given a surprise hankerchief shower by the members.

Cherry pie and coffee was served after cards to Mrs. Maurice Spillane, Mrs. Ray Davis, Mrs. John Harris, Mrs. Marion Lindsay, Mrs. Chris Hood, Mrs. Doug Smelcer, Mrs. Jack Murray, Mrs. Kermit Keyser, Mrs. Harry Martin, Mrs. James Baldock, Mrs. Ed Scott, Mrs. Ernest Graves, Mrs. Bill Burnett, Mrs. I. B. Morris, Mrs. Jack Wimer, Mrs. George Fernlund, Mrs. Bob Colwell, Mrs. Joe Potucek, and Mrs. Leavitt. Next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. George Fernlund on March 18.

Those holding high scores for the evening of play at the Myers' were Mrs. Jim Whitt and Howard Myers. Low scores were held by Mrs. Wilfred Dixon and Had Noakes. Mrs. Dixon won the traveling prize.

Those present at both parties were Mr. and Mrs. Had Noakes, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Whitt, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Dixon Jr. and Mrs. Jim Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Criss and the Gareys and Myers.

4TH BIRTHDAY

CHEMULT — Marilyn Bourne celebrated her fourth birthday last Friday afternoon with sixteen little friends to help her eat Humpty Dumpty birthday cake and ice cream.

Little tots attending were: Diane, Darlene and Debra Evjen, Celeste and Karen Greenal, Shirley Ramsey, Cathie and Dickie Carlson, Kathie Farris, Jimmy, Bobby and Marie Galbreath, Lynda Jessup, Trudy Stockman, Bonnie Taylor and Marilyn's little brother, Donnie.

Favors of tiny watches and snappers containing paper hats were distributed to the small fry. Marilyn's grandmother, Mrs. Fleisher, The Dalles, cut the cake. Marilyn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bourne.

Exchange Teacher From Germany Guest At BPW Tea January 14th

MERRILL — Ingeborg Bauer, member of the educational exchange program from Wiesbaden, Germany, was the honor guest at an afternoon tea, February 1, when members of the Merrill Business and Professional Women's Club entertained in her honor.

Mrs. F. E. Trotman and Mrs. R. E. West were at the tea and coffee service from 4 to 5, and Mrs. Harriet Fotheringham and Mrs. Delia Hodges poured during the final hour.

Musical entertainment was presented by Mrs. Jed Murphy, accompanied by Mrs. L. E. Stewart. Mrs. Lillian Thomas was the accompanist for Carol Poe's vocal solo, and also for a vocal duet by Carol Poe and Yvonne Conner.

The interesting and charming guest told of her travels around the United States, and many interesting sidelights of her native land.

She is co-owner and member of the Business and Professional Women's Club of Wiesbaden; also a member and former secretary of the German-American Women's Club. She is now employed as the secretary in the office of Special Activities, Headquarters U. S. Air Force and left early Monday morning for Seattle, before returning to Washington, D. C.

Aloha Chapter OES Celebrates 'Weyerhaeuser Night' on 23rd

"Weyerhaeuser Night" was observed at the stated meeting of Aloha Chapter 1 OES, Tuesday, February 23. Eastern Star members employed by Weyerhaeuser Timber Co. furnished entertainment, refreshments and decorations for the evening. Host and hostesses greeting the guests were: A. B. Epperson, Lena Dennis, Elizabeth Norris and Ida Grimes. Sprays of pussy willows and daffodils brightened the chapter room.

Seated in the east with Rena Oklunn, worthy matron and Raymond Owens, worthy patron were Rosalie Hoback, worthy matron of Cascade Crest 159 and Lois Gueck, worthy matron and Everett Biehn, worthy patron of Manzanita 172. Other guests introduced were: Grace Johnson, Concordia chapter 329 of Clovis, California; Ellen Lane, Temple Chapter 5, Massachusetts; Harry Pepper, Fidelity Chapter 131, Dunsmuir; Nellie Nicol, Oriental Chapter 5, Lakeview; Laura Vincent, Waverly Chapter 134, Portland; Mebel Merkey, Cordell Chapter, Oklahoma and Louise Zinn, a first time visitor. Delicious refreshments were served from individual souvenir trays which were designed and made by James Hunter. The tables were decorated with wood shavings, pine knots and candle stick holders made from Pres-to-logs. The entertainment committee members assisted by their wives served the refreshments. Mrs. Herbert Haneline was chairman.

Next stated meeting will be held March 9, when birthday night will be celebrated. All Eastern Star members are invited.

Amaranth Court

The theme of the monthly meeting of Amaranth Court held February 17 was a "Welcome Home" for Beatrice Denison, royal matron who presided after a forced absence due to a seige of polio.

She is making a remarkable recovery and thanked everyone for the help given her.

Earl Beeson, former royal patron of Oregon and his wife, from Eugene were in attendance. During a recess of the court the members enjoyed a clever caricature of a Masonic meeting presented by a group of Merrill ladies. This was the 15th birthday of this court and the past royal matrons and patrons served refreshments after the meeting, and each member had an individual lighted birthday cake.

The March meeting will be election so we trust there will be a large attendance.
