Crater In; Henley Flunks

MEDFORD (Speical) — Despite the loss of Larry Bigham with a sprained ankle, Crater whipped Eagle Point, 56-51, for the Dist. 4-A2 championship Saturday night to earn a playoff series against Grants Pass, 4-A1 kingpin.

Henley, looking tired and sluggish, lost to Brookings, 61-36, in the consolation finals for fifth place.

Phoenix won third place with a 53-52 squeak over Illinois Valley.

Gordon Carrigan led Crater with 19 points as that team had to come from behind to win, on the short end of 13-10 and 22-21 scores at the first two stops.

Crater forged ahead 38-35 going into the fourth and the Eagles closed it to 51-52 with 35 seconds left. Bill Caldwell scored 15 for Eagle Point, the team that barely got over Henley in opening rounds, 43-41.

Brookings led the Hornets all the way in the consolation finals, holding margins of 19-12, 34-19 and 50-27.

Brookings' Russell scored 19 points.

The Hornets were cold with Dale Searcy and Bob Hill scoring 8 points each.

Palmer Wins Mexico Open

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Johnny Palmer held the Mexican Open Golf championship Monday but he did it the hard way.

"I almost threw it away on the last few holes," said the Charlotte, N.C., shotmaker, recalling his collapse in the Texas Open a week ago when he blew the title after holding a 5-stroke lead going into the final round.

Palmer finished with a 2-under par 286 Sunday and for his efforts he earned $2,910 top money. But it took a dramatic putt on the last hole to salvage the match from the fast-closing Roberto de Vicenzo of Argentina.

Again Palmer held a 4-stroke lead going into the last day. De Vicenzo was three strokes better than him on the final round, but he fell just short of overtaking Palmer. De Vicenzo posted a final round 74 for a total of 287.

Only three players broke or tied par on the tough 6,679-yard, par 72 Club Mexico course. Besides Palmer and de Vicenzo, the defending champion, Johnny Weitsel of Hershey, Pa., who finished third, had a 288, exactly par.

Monty Wins Qualifying

Oakcreek's Fremont (Monty), a golden owned and handled by Norman House of Klamath Falls, captured the qualifying stakes in the Eugene AKC sanctioned retriever trials held over the weekend.

One other Klamath Basin dog, Webb Staunton's Sandyland's Trevellyr, Tulelake, placed third in the Open, won by Timfree Rebel, owned and handled by Merrill Knott of Beaverton.

Fifteen dogs started in the Open, 27 in the qualifying stakes.

5 PCC Clubs In Training

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Five Pacific Coast League baseball clubs including the Oakland Oaks and Manager Chuck Dressen who quit the Brooklyn Dodgers after a contract hassle, started spring training Monday.

The other teams starting early are the Los Angeles Angels at Fullerton, San Francisco at Monterey, Portland at Glendale and San Diego at Ontario.

Dressen and the Oaks also will be at Monterey. Chuck was pilot at Oakland before going up the Dodgers.

A second managerial change from last season finds Jerry Priddy ending his major league playing career to pilot the Seattle Rainiers who start work at Palm Springs on Saturday.

A week from Monday the Hollywood Stars start work at Anaheim and the Sacramento Solons at Santa Cruz.

PAT ON OWN BACK

WAKE FOREST, N.C. (AP)—Athletic Director Jim Weaver of Wake Forest College has his reasons for expecting the Deacon golf team to be a winner this spring. He explains it this way: "Mark this down in your little black book — we're going to be tough, take them all in golf. I wouldn't say our material is so much better. I do think, however, we have superior coaching. I'm the coach."

Partners In Grudge Mat Clash

Kurt Von Poppenheim and Jack Rush, both of whom believe a shortcut to victory is a right to the kisser, tangle in Wednesday night's wrestling main event at the Armory.

The bout is down for one hour or the best two of three falls.

Georges Dusette tangles with Boise's Bill Fletcher and John Paul Henning squres off against Roy Wolf of Montreal in the two supporting bouts, 30 minutes or the best two of three falls.

Von Poppenheim and Rush were partners last week and lost to Dusette and Henning in a tag team match.

Von Poppenheim caught Rush's knuckles inadvertently in a wierd ending to the bout and the partners traded blows before Dusette wrapped up the Proud Prussian with a full nelson for the win.

There'll be nothing that resembles orthodoxy when the Swastika Swatter and the bald - headed sadist clash.

Dusette should subdue Fletcher without too much trouble. The Boise boy is making a return to the Armory after a long absence.

Roy Wolf, who whipped Bronco Lublich last week, could give Henning, the Miami, Fla., speed merchant, some trouble with his crowding, slugging style.

Reserved tickets are on sale at Castleberry Drugs.

HEAVE HO — Parry O'Brien of Southern California registers anticipation as he follows through on his shot put of 50 feet, four inches, longest on record at National Amateur Athletic Union indoor meet.

Perkins In Ski Victory

GOVERNMENT CAMP, Ore. (AP) — A first in Saturday's downhill and a tie with Don Gassoway of Seattle in Sunday's slalom gave Dean Perkins of Sun Valley, Idaho, the men's championship of the Pacific Northwestern Ski Assn. tournament.

Gassoway was second in the downhill.

Mrs. Dorothy Lynch Modenese of Seattle topped women contestants with a first in the downhill and a second in the slalom. Cameron Hughes of Seattle was first in the slalom.

Win Gives OTI Season 12-12 Mark

Oregon Tech's Owls are looking back today on a so-so basketball season after whipping Southern Oregon College, 67-50, in a king's-X melee in Ashland Saturday night.

The victory over the Red Raiders, the only one in four starts against SOC, gave the Owls a 12-12 record for the season, 6-6 in Oregon Collegiate Conference play for a second-place tie with the surprising Portland State Vikings.

The Vikings needed one win over Oregon College and two over the OCC champion Eastern Oregon team to tie the Owls for second—and that's what they did, slamming the Mountaineers, 100-81, Saturday night for a sweep of the series.

Friday night when Southern Oregon whipped Tech, 81-72, it came with a 33-point fourth quarter splurge.

But the picture was turned around Saturday night, although Tech's scoring binge in the last quarter didn't add up to 33 points. But it was a respectable 21 points, while the Raiders were collecting just seven.

LEAD

Oregon Tech led 17-15 at the quarter but dropped behind 28-30 at the half.

The third quarter was still touch-and-go until Bob Edgren, Don Hubble and Gary Dorn dropped free throws to give the Owls a 46-43 lead heading into the fourth.

When Dorn hit on six of 10 free throws in the fourth, Sutphin scored on a long shot and Wyatt laid one in, the Owls were off and running and Southern Oregon didn't have a chance of catching up.

THRILLER

But until the Owls cooked up that late rally, it was a real thriller.

Wyatt was high again with 18—he scored 27 in the Friday night loss—while Dorn had 15 (with 9 free throws) and Sutphin ended with 13.

Thirteen was the high single performance for the Raiders; center Leon Keefe did it. Lloyd Hoffine had 12 and Bretzel 11.

PORTLAND (AP) — Portland State handed Eastern Oregon, winner of the Oregon Collegiate Conference basketball title, its second straight defeat Saturday, 100-81.

Don Porter, leading collegiate scorer in the Pacific Northwest, led the Portland attack with 42 points, bringing his season total for 24 games to 616.

Larry Pryse had 23 for the losers.

Portland State, which beat EOCE 83-73 Friday, ended the season tied for second place with Oregon Tech. Both schools won six and lost six. Oregon College of Education was last with a conference record of four wins and eight losses.

Devlin Captures Ski Championship

BERLIN, N.H., (AP) — Art Devlin of the Lake Placid, N.Y., Sno Birds held the international ski jump championship Monday after two nearly perfect leaps on the Nansen Ski Club's 80-meter hill.

The 31-year-old New York star, just back from the FIS competition in Sweden, thrilled a crowd of 10,000 Sunday with jumps of 208 and 201 feet to edge his FIS teammate Jacques Charland of Three Rivers, Que.

Devlin gained 212.4 points on form and distance, while Charland —with leaps of 199 and 195 feet —earned 202.4.

A hot early-season Klamath Falls cage team that turned cold lost a chance to tie for second place in the Southern Oregon Big Four Conference Saturday night—and now sends its cage gear to the cleaners until the hoop sport rolls around again in December.

With Ashland trimming Medford 76-74 in a thriller Saturday night, the Pelicans could have tied the Tornado for second place with a repeat win over Grants Pass.

But the Cavemen, who went into the series with the Dist. 4-A1 title nailed down, bounced back with a 62-48 win over the Klamath five after dropping a 56-41 decision Friday night.

Medford, in its split with Ashland (the Tornado won Friday night, 64-55) finished the season with a 6-6 record, behind Grants Pass with 10-2.

Klamath Falls, winner of its first four conference games, managed to win just one of the next eight, to end up with 5-7 for third place. Ashland took up the rear with 3-9.

But for some early sparring when Ed Barron opened the scoring Saturday night with a free throw and Don Mills put the Klamaths ahead again with a shot from the outside for a 3-1 lead, the Cavemen led most of the way.

Gene Barbour tied it at 3-3, Bill Hansen put the Cavemen ahead at 4-3 with a charity toss, Mills tied it up at 4-all, then Sam Dean's hook shot gave Grants Pass a 6-4 advantage and the Cavemen took it from there, leading 14-10 at the quarter post.

Jim Bevans on a layup and Jim Dougherty on a jump shot tied the score in the second canto at 20 and 22 but when Jim Reid hit from the side to give the Cavemen a 24-22 lead, the Pelicans never caught up, although they made it close until Hansen caught fire in the third quarter.

Mills scored on a jump shot and Guy Munsell added a free throw to close it to 34-38 midway in the third, but the Cavemen quickly built up a 14-point lead at 38-34 when Gary Sutphin hooked one in, Hansen scored, Sutphin again on a layup, Hansen twice more and it was all over but the fourth quarter, the third chapter ending 49-38 Grants Pass.

RESERVES

It would have taken a couple of Frank Selvys to catch the Cavemen then so Klamath Coach Paul McCall started pouring in reserves, using 15 players in all.

Grants Pass Coach Ray Davis employed 10 players but six carried the load until Davis pushed in four reserves late in the game with a safe margin.

Hansen, scoring six field goals and a pair of free throws in the last half, finished with 19 points, with three other players adding two-figure totals.

Munsell was high for the Pelicans with 13; Mills had 11.

Klamaths Eye State Crown; 7 Win Titles

Winning their fifth state high school wrestling title won't be an easy chore—but the Klamath Pelicans have 13 hands for the job that comes up Friday and Saturday at Oregon State College, Corvallis.

That's the number the Pelicans qualified for the Oregon mat showdown in the Dist. 7 meet that closed down at Oregon Tech Saturday afternoon.

Coach Dutch Simons, veteran high school wrestling coach, counted seven district champions and six runners-up when all the muscle-straining was over.

Roseburg had three district champions, Grants Pass one and Medford one. The Roseburg Indians will send five matmen to the state tournament, Grants Pass four and Medford two.

Sutherlin and Rogue River, the other two schools in the district scramble, failed to earn an entry.

In piling up seven firsts, six seconds, four thirds and one fourth (on a 6-4-2-1- scoring basis), plus scoring 23 falls in the meet, the Pelicans added up 98 points to win their fifth district title hands down.

Roseburg was second with 56 points, followed by Grants Pass with 35, Medford with 23, Sutherlin with 7 and Rogue River 2.

Klamath Falls champions are Don Tilman in the 98-pound class, Ron Conner 115, Larry Dearing 130, Jay Dearing 141, Don Biehn 148, Elvis Mitchell 178 and heavyweight Jack Himelwright.

Bob Kennedy, 106-pounder; 157-pound Dave Parkhurst and Jim Schaeffer at 178 pounds are Roseburg's champs. Grants Pass' Don Jaynes won the 123-pound division, while Medford's Bob Reaves outclassed the field in the 136-pound division.

Pelicans earning state positions with second - place finishes are Kent Plug at 98 pounds, Richard Berg 115, Dave Leeling 141, Don Dexter 157, Julio Gonzales 168 and 275-pound Benny Lawver.

Summary:

98 pounds — Tilman KF pinned Williams S, 1:31 first round (championship); Plug KF outpointed Williams, 4-0 (second place); Schweppe R fourth.
