Coffee Probe Continued By Senators

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON
 WASHINGTON (AP) - Senators probing high coffee prices may decide today to order New York City coffee exchange members to turn over their lists of traders and speculators.
 Chairman Beall (R-Md.) of a special coffee investigating subcommittee called a closed-door session to consider "subpoenas for books and records of some 50 coffee brokers."
 Gustavo Lobo Jr., president of the New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange, recommended that all members supply trading data to the Senate probers on a voluntary basis.
 Beall said less than 20 of the 50 key members had done this "but two brokers told us they want us to subpoena their records."
 "If we have to do this for two, then to be fair we should do it for all of them," he said.
 Subpoenas - orders backed by congressional authority - presumably would give the brokers some protection against any complaints from customers whose transactions would be disclosed in the records.
 The Senate inquiry, by a Banking subcommittee, began a month ago. Since then retail prices, which had climbed to a dollar a pound or more, have gone up another 5 to 10 cents.
 The Senate group wants to examine books and accounts of the New York exchange to see if excessive speculation has caused any part of the increase.
 Beall said his group also has received "reports that a corner in coffee may be causing some of the increase."
 This is a trade term used when a group or individual acquires enough of a commodity or futures contracts to manipulate prices.
 Lobo and other officials have testified that the New York coffee exchange makes this impossible through its own regulations.
 The Senate has passed a bill that would impose government regulation and supervision of all speculation and futures trading in coffee by the Commodity Exchange Authority.
 Meanwhile, four U. S. clubwomen, who inspected Brazil's coffee situation on a 10-day trip there, have predicted that coffee prices will stay high for the next few years, and may climb even higher.
 The quartet from the General Federation of Womens Clubs were guests of the Brazilian Coffee Institute during their survey.
 And the Foreign Agricultural Service said yesterday available information tends to bear out coffee dealers' contention that the supply is short in relation to demand.
 However, the service said sizable unreported stocks of coffee may be held in the interior of Brazil, the major producer.
 It said current-season production was estimated at 40,300,000 bags of 132 pounds each, while demand is expected to be at least up to last season's 41,300,000 bags.

Rumors Plague Playboy

PAIM BEBENS, 29, of Phoenix, Arizona, who is a playboy-diplomat, plunged back into Palm Beach social life today after an absence of several days from his bride, Wednesday actress Barbara Burton.
 There were reports he had flown to Phoenix, Ariz., to visit an old flame, Lisa Lisa Gibson. But he declared he had gone to his native Democratic Republic on business.
 He flew into Miami Saturday night in a scheduled plane and came immediately to Palm Beach. Yesterday afternoon he was a guest at a cocktail party given by Mrs. Collins Wright.
 Barbara didn't seem the party. She was rumored still having trouble with the ankle she broke in a fall in her bathtub soon after her marriage.
 "My God, how did that start?" Rubirosa asked when a reporter reached him by telephone to inquire about the Phoenix rumor.
 "I have just been down on my Dominican farm in La Vega. My God, be sure to get that right - La Vega, not Las Vegas."
 Airport attendants in Phoenix said a man answering Rubirosa's description left there in a chartered plane Friday. Miss Gabor in Phoenix on location, said she hadn't seen him.

Alturas Woman Dies At Home

ALTURAS - Mrs. Catherine Gysin, 68, died February 21, in her home in Alturas.
 Mrs. Gysin, known as "Nina" to her many friends, enjoyed an evening with her family when she suddenly became faint. She died immediately.
 Rosary was held at Kerr Chapel Tuesday night, with funeral services Wednesday from the Sacred Heart Church in Alturas.
 Surviving are three sons, Leo and Walter of Alturas, and Emile who was visiting here from Oakland; a daughter, Lauretta, from San Francisco, and a sister in Portland.

Teaching Jobs Advertised

ALTURAS - Modoc County School trustees have asked the county office staff to help circulate a description of teacher vacancies to teacher training colleges and placement bureaus throughout the United States again this year.
 Last year the county staff mailed job descriptions of Modoc County teaching vacancies along with a summary of recreational facilities and other Modoc County assets to 650 colleges and placement bureaus and to 200 teachers who had requested such information. In response to this service school trustees received over 500 replies from teachers. More than 20 teachers were hired in Modoc County as a result.
 Because of the alarming shortage of teachers in the United States, and particularly the anticipated shortage in California of over 13,000 teachers each year for the next five years, many trustees feel that vacancies should be made known as early as possible this year.

Reds Level Charge Against America

TOKYO (AP) - Peiping Radio Saturday charged the United States with attempting to take over French interests in Vietnam.
 The Communist broadcast quoted a Red newspaper in Vietnam. The Communists said that it was the American plan to take over French interests in southeast Asia and turn them into war bases.

Newest Member Of Blonde Ranks Gives Views On Life

By BOB THOMAS
 HOLLYWOOD (AP) - Note to the blondes of America: Although Lana Turner has left your ranks, Corinne Calvet has joined up.
 The talkative French pastry is a ravishing blonde these days, and that's not the only thing new in her life.
 "I have also got myself a new agent, a new car, a new wardrobe and I am eating meat for the first time in my life," she says. "And I have a new attitude toward men. When I see one who looks attractive, I can look now."

 Corinne is also entering a new phase of her career. She is making her first television film, a Screen Gems production for the Ford Theater. When I found her on the Columbia studio set, her reddish locks were gone. She was combing her long blond hair.
 She explained that all the changes in her life have come about since the end of her alliance to actor John Bromfield.
 "I would have gone blond sooner," she said, "but he wouldn't let me. You know how men are - they like to keep their women down. They don't want their wives to be too appealing to other men."
 "I like the new look. Before now, I have always been very natural. I had my own shade of hair, I never used false eyelashes and my makeup was very simple. Nothing was artificial. Now I do things differently. I like artifice; I think it is exciting."
 About the meat business - she has not been a strict vegetarian. Following her mother's custom, she ate no red meat, only fish and fowl. Now she's a beef-eater, and she likes that too.
 She regrets the end of her union to Bromfield.
 "We had five wonderful years,"

Soviet Army Reaffirms Red Faith

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
 AP Foreign News Analyst
 A parade of top Soviet general officers this week paid glowing tribute in the Moscow press to the leadership of the armed forces by the Communist party - and Stalin.
 The tributes, coming on the Soviet army day last Tuesday, laid such heavy stress on party devotion that they suggest an internal necessity to impress the point upon armed forces, party and public.
 The intentions of Stalin had just a hint of the unabashed extravagance which attended use of his name in the press during his lifetime, an indication that Stalinism still reigns in Moscow. Although the party's glory has been somewhat dimmed in recent years, the stream of laudatory articles give the impression that the party's present rulers have reached some sort of understanding with the armed forces. The tributes come almost as if all had been dictated by the same source, as if in the discharging of an obligation.
 If the party has the armed forces safely under control, the Kremlin power struggle likely is over, at least for the time being. The struggle reached a climax last July with the arrest of Lavrenty Beria. As head of the interior ministry, he possessed a private army which the regular army officers had no love.
 Col. Gen. A. S. Zhetlov, chief of the political administration of the armed forces, wrote the essay in Pravda.

General Named New West Point Head

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Army said Saturday Lt. Gen. Blackshear M. Bryan, commander of the 1st Corps in Korea, has been named superintendent of the United States Military Academy at West Point.
 He will take over next September when Maj. Gen. Frederick A. Irving retires after more than 37 years of Army service.
