REFLECTIONS FROM

Willy's Mirror

THEIR TURN — was Feb 21 — John and Lael VanDoren were the last in a group of 4 couples who have (in turn) celebrated their 25th anniversaries together — when the other three couples arrived from Berkeley Saturday the 20th — the chain remained unbroken — Carol and Clarence Crooks (she's Lael's sister) — Mabel and Al — strand and Evelyn and George Schultz have been close friends of the VDs for years — and now they're all working on their golden anniversary celebrations — Local friends invited over to meet the Berkeley sextette were Louis and Sherwood Barnum (John's sister) — Canna and Chuck Fyock — Joyce and Willard Ward — Benny and Harry Fredricks and Margaret and Buz Larkin.

POLLY MERRILL — who spends most of her time at Pelican School — dropped by the cubbyhole the other day and mentioned that her cousin Elmer Merrill who lived in Klamath County for 38 years — was postmaster at Merrill for 12 — operated the OK Transfer and was a partner with A. H. Bussman in Murphy's Seed Store — is now living in Ontario (California) — he married Gladys S. Male in that town in October (she's from Ohio) — and she also said that it seems as though prior to the wedding — getting their new home in order — he was moving a big refrigerator when it slipped and fell on him breaking his hip — while here he visited his father — Klamath pioneer Clarence M. Merrill — 2 brothers Gene and John and a sister Edna Book — who invited a group of their mutual friends in for an evening while he was here.

ANOTHER VISITOR — reported by Polly M was Mrs. H. M. Parkhurst who was here from Portland for 3 weeks to greet her new g-dtr Jana Lee Schouboes — 3rd dtr of the R. K. Schouboes Jr. (paternal g-ps the senior Schouboes live here — Mrs. Parkhurst also has another daughter living here — Alice (Mrs. R. J.) Michels.

THOSE CLYTIE KIDS — Lillian and George Hillis — following Apollo as he lights the sky with his "daily dazzle" would NATCHERLY be expected to include Palm Springs as a "must" in their solar sojourn (by trailer) — Recently Lillian was noted in the Desert Sun as a visiting Rotary Ann at a meeting in the resort's Tennis Club Venetian Room — KF was represented at a Shrine Club party at the same club when the Hillises and Josephine and Oscar Kittredge were at the soiree on the 23rd of February — The Kittredges were in Palm Springs for a couple of weeks — and are now in Phoenix Ariz to see dtr Roberta — who's going to prep school — written in a note of levity with a parenthetical "ha-ha" George penned in a note to Wally Larkin that they were next door neighbors of Mamie and Ike — they were there at the time the President's popularity was clearly evidenced by the huge throng of people at the airport when the presidential plane landed — with traffic jammed for miles around the field — no definite "back-home" date reported by the sun-followers.

THE PROCK "INFIRMARY" — on Lakeside Drive was a busy place recently — with Anne Prock specializing all the patients — She had her niece and nephew John 6, and Laurie 4, as houseguests — taking care of them for their mom and dad Ruth Mary and Jack Crawford — when John came down with the chicken pox — dtr Eleanor just up from some malady — maybe virus bug of some kind — when wham! son Jack's down for several days — with mother by now well-launched in her Florence Nightingale role — imagine that when little Laurie gets the chicken pox she'll get 'em at home.

GRANDMA — and grandpa Steele had them all to themselves of course shared with grandpa Laia Steele — Janet 2 1/2 and Mark 9 mos — whose mom and dad left them with Joe and Millie Steele at their Pine Grove home while they (Dolores and Male Epley) went to SF and the Palace Hotel where Male attended the Western Pine Ass'n annual meet — sprouts to be picked up on return trip to home in Portland — where Moe O'Callaghan friend of family is holding forth — and taking care of Epley's dog — an interesting canine character that looks like a bleached huskie (they tell me) — WELL what kind of a dog IS he?

GREAT-NEPHEW — a brand new one for Nora Rinker — born to Betty (Van Emon) and Alan O'Neill at Carmichael — near Sacramento — He was born March 2 — weighed 5 lbs 13 oz and is named James Walter — his sister Norreen was named for Nora.

Birthday Party

BONANZA — Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Brown entertained a group of relatives and friends at dinner February 28, in honor of her mother Mrs. Sadie Hammond and their nine year old daughter, Trudy, who were both celebrating birthdays.

A huge birthday cake centered the table with "Mother and Trudy" inscribed in frosting. Candles and other decorations. Present were Mrs. Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gruell, Rodney and Patty, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Haney, Sandra and Gail, Joanna Bevel, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gibson and Bobby, all of Klamath Falls; and Carol, Bobby, and Linda Holt, Mrs. Ruby Brown, Deanna and Trudy and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown.

TRIO IN THE "SKI HUT" ... with a background dripping prop ski clothes—from the left, Frank Bogatay, George Flitcraft and Don Divens.

MR. AND MRS. BILL KANDRA ... who were also celebrating their 19th wedding anniversary.

THEY CAME EARLY ... and stayed to "the end" ... the crowd at the Yacht Club last Saturday night ... February 27. Especially noted was the number of couples from "down Merrill and Malin way."

The winter sports theme inspired the committee to an all-time high in club decorating, and included clever drawings, life-size figures in winter sports garb; one, the supposed victim of a nasty ski accident, was laid prone at the entrance way.

Adhesive tape was used instead of ribbons as receipts for paid admissions, and were plastered on the men's faces (and the top of some heads). Drawings of a skiing episode showed a novice starting a descent and included the character's awkward gyrations and ended with the inevitable grand spill.

Party started at 9:30 and most of the crowd was there at 1:30 a.m., dancing to music by LaMer Jensen's orchestra. Tenderloin steak sandwiches were served with salad and other dishes by Mike and Beulah at midnight. —Photos by Stoner

EASTSIDE

By MRS. MERLE O'NEIL
Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Patton and family left Saturday after having spent the past week here visiting the Alfred McGuffins and other relatives. They accompanied the McGuffins as far as Klamath Falls where they boarded a plane to fly home to San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvy Bunyard Jr., visited at the Merle O'Neill home Saturday from their home in Alturas. Her sister, Mrs. Elsie Cundiff of New Pine Creek, took care of their little twin daughters while the Bunyards shopped in Lakeview.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Longfellow drove to Alturas Sunday where they visited Gussie's uncle, Willie Milton, who is in the Alturas hospital. Milton has been making his home with a sister, Mrs. Ethel Hobbs of Lake City.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ayoutt and Gloria of New Pine Creek, Mrs. Bernice Wood and Cynthia, and Susan Hampton of Lakeview were Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Delphia Nelson and Ivy.

Mrs. Cora McHann recently returned to the Hartzog ranch after being away for the winter months. She had visited relatives in California, and later had medical checkup at Portland. We welcome her home.

Mrs. Brank Barnes is reportedly improving at the Lakeview hospital. Her two daughters, Mrs. Earl Cogburn and Mrs. Hugo Leyva of Summer Lake, have been staying at the Barnes residence in Lakeview for the past several days. The sisters alternately go to the hospital and help care for their mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bradley accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Nat Smith to Alturas Sunday for a drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Les Duncan were dinner guests of the Merle O'Neils Monday.

The farmers in this district are making the most of the wonderful weather. Some have started plowing while others are making fences and doing other odd jobs.
