Poultrymen To Hold Meeting

Poultrymen will be interested in a meeting to be held Tuesday, March 9, at 8 p.m., at the Fairgrounds, according to Ray O. Petersen, county agent.

Noel Bennion, extension poultry specialist from Oregon State College will discuss the poultry outlook for 1954 and feeding and management practices that will help to reduce the cost of producing eggs and poultry.

It appears that barley will be one of the cheapest poultry feeds this fall, Petersen stated, and Bennion will explain the results of experiments conducted at the Oregon State College to determine the maximum amount of barley that could be included in both mash and scratch feed for poultry.

Bennion will also be able to answer many other questions on poultry raising. Any one interested in poultry production is invited to attend.

Late Christmas Held For Patient

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—The calendar said March 5, but to 9-year-old Garrie Rawson it was really Christmas.

Garrie was in Shriners' hospital in Chicago last Christmas. She was sent there last Nov. 21 by the Toledo Shriners to have her left foot amputated.

But Christmas is pretty important to a 9-year-old girl and her mother, Mrs. Bernice Rawson, kept the Christmas tree and all of Garrie's presents beneath it until she came home yesterday.

County Coroner Warns Motorists

CANAAN, N. Y. (AP)—Each time deputy sheriffs stopped a speeding driver during a recent traffic check, a soft-spoken gent walked up to the offender and the dialogue went something like this:

"Have you ever met one of the coroners of Columbia County?"

"No."

"Well, let me introduce myself. I'm Barson Johnson, county coroner, and the next time you come through this intersection speeding I'll be seeing you in an official capacity—but you won't be seeing me."
