Past Noble Grands Announce District Convention Committees

Past Noble Grands Club of Prosperity Rebekah Lodge No. 104, met for a 1 p.m. potluck luncheon March 2, at the home of the secretary, Margaret Biden.

During the business meeting members worked on the convention quilt.

Reports on sickness and distress indicated that the following members were absent because of illness: Jennie Hurn, Alice Goehler, Rose Keesee, Ivy Dwy, Beatrice Denison and Alice Lawrence.

Plans are being formulated for the district convention tentatively scheduled for the last week in May, with headquarters in the IOOF Hall.

The club voted to take charge of the noon luncheon; and President Mae Anderson appointed the following committees: decorations, Lina Molschenbacher, chairman, assisted by Sadie Mae Wallace, Harriette Estes, Margaret Biden, Nellie Wattenburg, Alice Lawrence and Georgia Zollman.

Past Noble Grand luncheon, Elizabeth Ramsby, chairman, assisted by Ellen Wade, Mae Anderson, Kate Hogue, Anna Bean, Corinne Larson, Effie Redkey and Margaret Landis.

Visiting committee for March, Mae Anderson and Florence Custer.

Calling committee, Kate Hogue and Zelma Howard.

Next meeting will be April 6, with Kate Hogue, 419 Pine Street.

Past Noble Grands present at the recent meeting included Mae Anderson, Sadie Mae Wallace, Lina Molschenbacher, Alma Cofer, Laura Uerlings, Zelma Howard, Kate Hogue, Anna Bean, Elizabeth Ramsby, Ellen Wade, Nellie Wattenburg, Doris Reed, Ada Sparre-torn, Vera Fritsch, Esther Mast, Bernice McCracken, Florence Custer, Margaret Ward and Margaret Biden.

Special guests of the afternoon were Mildred Largent, Mamie Hutchens and Osa Bradbury.

Members responded enthusiastically to the president's call for embroidery and crochet threads to be sent to the IOOF Home in Portland to augment the fancy-work basket supplies of the women residents; to help them continue their enthusiastic creation of beautiful useful and saleable articles.
