Library Club Program March 8 To Feature Colored Slides of Iris. In time with the spring season, the Library Club program Monday, March 8, will be concentrated on flowers and gardening. W. J. Kessler will show and discuss colored slides of iris, and will speak with authority since he is well-known locally for his iris culture. The Garden Club will be in charge of the arts and crafts exhibit, and Mrs. Fred Karlson, Garden Club president, states that there will be a "suggestion corner" with ideas for spring gardens. The musical program will be provided by Bob Enman, whose violin solo will be the third movement of the Concerto in G Minor by Vrch. He will be accompanied by Judy Hadley. Ten will be arranged by a committee headed by Mrs. Roy Carter, assisted by Mrs. A. W. Porter, Mrs. Joe Thomas, Mrs. Brady Narey, Mrs. Roy Benedict and Mrs. Ronald Carter, who will decorate the tea table. Presiding at the tea table will be Mrs. Glen Evans, Girl Scout chairman for the Library Club; and Mrs. Harry Fredericks, Camp Fire Girl chairman. The hospitality committee for this meeting consists of Mrs. Dean Osborn and Mrs. Fred Hoagland. Mrs. Warren Hunt and Mrs. Will Woods will do the room decorations. Program to start at 2 p.m. in the city library auditorium.

Musical Program Entertains Members of Zuleima Nile Club

Zuleima Nile Club of Klamath Falls welcomed its new officers at the luncheon meeting in the Willard Hotel on March 3. A spring decorating theme was carried out beautifully on the tables in the form of sprays of acacia, potted hyacinths, tulips, and green candles. Several new members and guests were introduced and presented with corsages. New members of Daughters of the Nile are Jean Aldrich, Luella Chilcote, Ellen Wade, and Nell Rethereth. Guests were Vera Hackler, a former member of the club, and Sylvia Wood, a guest from Nydia Temple. Florence West, chairman of the day, introduced her committee as follows: Peggy Chilcote, Alma Cofer, Grace Huls, Vera Land, Geraldine Owsley, Ada Matthews, Olive Riach, Claudine Van Buskirk, Jean Coddington, and Dixie Bebbler. Grace Huls and Olive Riach were in charge of decorations. Special prizes of the day were presented to Mildred Dimbat, Vivian Owens, and Claudine Van Buskirk. The birthday prize was won by Lorene McCollum. Kathleen Ward introduced Ruth Lobaugh and six boys from Fremont Junior High, four of them, a quartet. The audience was highly amused and held entranced by the clever introductions and presentation of the several numbers sung by the group of four, Jimmy Hope, Jan Cox, Tom Ankeny, and Donald Leach. Danny Johnston sang "Irish Lullaby" as a solo. The quartet was accompanied in one number by Lowell Newton. Ruth Lobaugh played a beautiful piano arrangement of Medisohn's "Spring Song". Charlotte Osborn and Midge McLaren assisted Kathleen Ward on the program committee. Members of the club expressed a desire to use the proceeds of the birthday bank for the Outpatient Clinic of the Portland Shrine Hospital. President Peggy Chilcote introduced her standing committee members for the coming year. They are: Sewing, Elfreida Beber; sickness and distress, Grace Huls; temple hostess, Midge McLaren; publicity, Crystal Cloaker; thanksgiving box, Wyoming Stiles and Virginia Mack; Christmas box, Phyllis May; calling, Florence West; cards, Karen Young; birthday bank, Jean Puckett; music,
