Widowed Mother Killed In Crash

CLAY, W. Va. (AP)—A Clay County mother who drew the nation's sympathy when the fourth of her five soldier-sons died in service was killed last night in a highway accident near her home. State police said Mrs. Florida A. Jones, 63, of nearby Bleckmore, a widow, was struck by an automobile about 10 p.m. as she walked along State Route 16. She was dead when the ambulance reached Laird Memorial Hospital in Montgomery. Only one of her five sons survives. He is Air Force Sgt. William L. Jones, who reportedly now is on recruiting duty in the Charleston area. Three of her sons were killed during World War II. Her youngest boy, Eugene, 25, crashed to his death in paratroop training at Ft. Benning, Ga., in 1950. Two days later, the nation acknowledged its gratitude in a letter from Louis A. Johnson, then secretary of defense, offering the discharge of her fifth son from the Air Force. Her simple refusal was: "I am glad that I still have one son in the service of my country."

Crosby Says He May Ease Up Pace After Next Movie

By BOB THOMAS HOLLYWOOD (AP)—For many months, friends have been saying that Bing Crosby plans to ease into retirement. Today he gives some support to those statements. "I have about five or six more pictures to make for Paramount," he says, adding with a laugh, "That should be about enough for me." You can't always cite a trend by a Crosby remark. He tosses 'em off with the greatest of ease and declines to be pinned down on anything. But he left no doubt that he favors a slackening of pace. "I've always said that my favorite kind of picture would be one that opened with a shot of me sitting in a rocking chair on a front porch," he chuckles. "The rest of the picture would be what I saw." His current film is his biggest dramatic challenge to date, but he said it is also one of his easiest chores. He is acting in the film version of the Clifford Odets play "The Country Girl." Bing does the role created by Paul Kelly on Broadway and portrayed by Robert Young on the road. The part is that of a faded, alcoholic stage star who has a last chance to regain theatrical fame. Once Kelly plays his suffering wife, and William Holden is the stage director who tries to mold him back into shape. "They have to do most of the work," Bing said. "I'm the one they're always talking about." There had been reports of protests of the casting of Crosby as a drunk in the film. "There's just one scene in which I'm supposed to get a little tipsy," he assured. "The rest of the time it is merely inferred." Perhaps it was the prospect of leading a slower life. At any rate, I found Bing more relaxed and happy than I have ever seen him. He went through a scene with Miss Kelly and a boy actor who was portraying his son. The boy gave out with a few extra lines and Bing convulsed the set by cracking: "This kid pads his part worse than Hope." Afterwards, he sat on a stool and chatted volubly, gossiping about the Academy Awards and other matters. I asked him if there were any pictures he would like to do. "Three years ago, I wanted the studio to get 'Guys and Dolls' for me and Hope. Paramount owned part of it, but sold out for $65,000. Now I read the asking price is up to $750,000! (Sam Goldwyn bought it for a million.) I wish we could have done it here. "I don't know if Hope and I will do a 'Road to the Moon.' We should have done it a couple of years ago. Since then Abbot and Costello have done a space picture, and Martin and Lewis will probably get in the act too. Who knows? "I've always wanted to do a picture with Judy Garland. We've done a lot of radio programs and Army shows together, and I think she's the greatest female talent in town. As a matter of fact, I think she's the greatest talent, male or female." Bing said he still keeps up his recording schedule. On his lunch hour, he slips over to Decca and knocks off a side or two. The disc company is only a half block from Paramount, and it's very likely that it was so situated for Bing's convenience. His radio show is up in the air right now. "There doesn't seem to be much money left in radio," he says. He has finished his second TV film and he may do more. But, as with everything else these days, he's in no great rush. He will hit the half-century mark May 2. Part of his slowdown may be due to his physical shape. He admits he has a kidney condition, but he has no plans for an operation, as has been rumored.
