Tule Second In Tourney

The Tulelake Honkers finished in second place in the Fall River Invitational basketball tournament Friday and Saturday, losing to the host team, 40-37, in the finals.

The Honkers reached the finals with a 37-31 win over Mt. Shasta and a 40-41 win over the tourney favorite, Susanville.

Tulelake tied with Mt. Shasta for the Siskiyou County League title, both with 7-2 records.

Next weekend the Honkers go to Susanville for that city's invitational cage meet.

Jay Allred, Tulelake forward, was named on the Fall River all-tourney team, in addition to being named the "outstanding player" in the tourney.

Pels Capture State Mat Title

Five Klamaths Win Crowns in Tourney

The triumphant Pelicans are home today with the Oregon high school wrestling title and five individual champions after more than 250 matches were run off in two days at Oregon State College Friday and Saturday.

It's the fifth state mat title for Coach Dutch Simons' proteges, a return to the throne after being unseated two years in a row following four straight championships.

In winning the title with 46 points, the Pelicans finished first in five of the 12 weights, won one second place and two thirds.

The champions are Ron Conner in 115-pound class, Larry Dearing at 130, Jay Dearing at 141, Don Biehn at 148 and heavyweight Jack Himelwright.

It was the second straight title for Jay Dearing; he won the 136-pound crown last year.

Don Dexter was the only Klamath Falls matman to lose as six Pelicans earned finals berths. Dexter finished second to Dave Parkhurst of Roseburg in the 157-pound class; Parkhurst is the same boy who whipped Dexter for the Dist. 7 crown here.

Heavyweight Benny Lawver and 168-pound Julio Gonzales won two points each for the Pels (scoring was on a 6-4-2-1 basis) by placing third in consolation finals wins.

Lawver pinned Jack Scott of Albany in 54 seconds of the second round; Gonzales won by forfeit over Don Kemp of Molalla.

Canby was second in the meet with 30 points, followed by defending champion Newberg with 23 points. Molalla had 20 and Roseburg 19 to complete the top five.

Other champions, besides the five Pelicans and Parkhurst, were Keith Schrock, Newberg, in the 98-pound division; Joe Newschwander of Canby, 106; Jay Green of Newberg, 123; Clarence Connelly, Canby, 136; George Krupicka, Molalla, 163; and Jim Dustin, Tigard, 178.

Conner won his title by decisioning Clarence Rohrs of Molalla.

Larry Dearing outpointed John Owings of Canby.

Jay Dearing outscored Les Farmer of Canby.

Don Biehn won the decision over Larry Jones of Newberg.

Himelwright flattened Glen Harris of Canby in 22 seconds of the third round.

Newberg's Green was a repeater in the 123-pound division, while Krupicka of Molalla, 157-pound champion last year, won the 168-pound title, advancing a weight as did Klamath's Jay Dearing.

Nine Earn State 'A' Positions

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Nine teams have qualified for the Oregon class A high school basketball tournament, and the other seven berths will be decided in playoff games this week. The annual tourney opens March 16 at Eugene.

Seven schools won district championships Saturday night, joining two others which had earned tourney spots previously.

Crater of Central Point pulled the biggest upset in Saturday night action, defeating favored Grants Pass 49-41. The teams meet Monday night at Central Point in the third and deciding district 4 playoff game.

The Dalles won the district 2 crown by beating Pendleton 68-59 in the final playoff game. Gary Haynes plunked in 34 points to pace the Indians, who finished third in last year's state tournament.

DISTRICT 3

Madras downed Redmond 71-58 in the district 3 championship at Prineville. Lakeview beat Burns to win third place in the district playoff.

The defending state champion, Marshfield, overwhelmed Myrtle Creek in the district 5 title game 65-32. Marshfield, rated fifth in the Associated Press poll, used 15 players.

Corvallis, No. 2 in the poll, downed Albany 64-49 to win district 7 honors and a tournament spot.

The district 8 crown went to Dallas on a 66-54 victory over McMinnville.

Beaverton won the district 9 title by shading Hillsboro, 43-42. A free throw in the last 15 seconds by Chuck McClure gave Beaverton the championship. It will be Beaverton's first state tournament trip since 1941.

ASTORIA IN

Astoria will represent district 10 in the tournament after brushing Seaside 57-40 in the title game.

Here' show the other districts line up:

Baker, No. 7 in the state, meets Ontario Tuesday at Union for the district 1 championship. Ontario evened the best-of-three playoff series Saturday night with a 58-40 victory.

The district 6 playoff continues Monday with favored Eugene, No. 3 in the poll, meeting Oakridge. Oakridge eliminated Willamette of Eugene Saturday night 76-56.

Monday action in the district 11 playoff matches favored Salem and Silverton. Silverton eliminated Stayton Saturday night 66-51.

PLAYOFF

The district 12 playoff resumes Tuesday at Milwaukie, with semi-final games scheduled. Milwaukie, No. 1 in the state and favored to win district honors, faces Oswego, and West Linn plays Molalla.

Gresham is the team to beat in the double-elimination district 13 playoff at Parkrose. Estacada and Central Catholic of Portland meet Tuesday for the right to play Gresham, which handed Milwaukie its only loss earlier in the season.

Clatskanie in district 14 and Roosevelt of Portland in district 15 are the other teams already in the state tournament.

Two other Portland schools, Cleveland and Benson, meet Tuesday for district 16 honors and the other tournament berth.

Malin Fails in District Bid

Bulldogs Two-Time Mustangs

ASHLAND (Special) — Talent two-timed Malin here Friday and Saturday and pocketed a ticket to the Class B state basketball tournament in Salem March 11-13.

The Bulldogs captured the Dist. 5-B title with a Saturday night 46-36 victory over the Mustangs after capturing the opener 53-37 Friday night.

Talent's speed was the story as the Bulldogs cut the taller Mustangs down to size for the two-straight chore.

Malin was in the ball game until late in the third quarter when Allen Hoffman, Talent's sophomore guard, tossed in two field goals, J. Lloyd Wood added another to give the Bulldogs a 33-26 lead heading into the payoff frame.

BEST OF IT

The fourth quarter was a basketball-trading affair with Talent having the little the best of it to coast in on top with 10 points to spare.

Malin started fast, holding a 14-8 first-quarter lead with Virgil Rick and Glen Steyskal leading the attack.

But Talent bounced back in the second quarter and two long shots by Hoffman late in the period gave Talent a 20-all standoff at intermission time.

Talent jumped into the lead after the rest period with a free throw by Clyde Gett and a field goal by Jack Barrett. Steyskal closed it to 22-23 with a layup, Barrett and Travis traded shots, Barrett and Steyskal traded two-pointers and it was 27-26 Talent before Hoffman and Wood found the range to give Talent a seven-point lead going into the fourth quarter.

Three Talent cagers hit two figures, Hoffman and Barrett with 13 and Jim McAbee with 12. But for the second straight night Malin fell short of a two-figure total; Rod Lyon, who missed eight of Malin's free throws, ended with 9.

Athletics In Playoff Win

The Malin Athletics whipped the Tulelake Inners 59-52, in a playoff last night for first seeding in the Klamath Basin Independent League tournament that opens Tuesday night at Merrill and finishes Thursday night with the finals.

The playoff was necessary after both teams finished with 16-2 records in league play.

In the first round, the Athletics will meet the Dorris Townies, third-place team, and Tulelake faces the Jayhawks, fourth-placer in the KBI league.

Loser meets loser and winner meets winner Thursday night in consolation and championship finals.

Rod Dietrick paced the Malin team with 23 points in the win over the Inners.

Two Portland Coaches Quit

PORTLAND (AP) — Two Portland high school basketball coaches are giving up their jobs.

They are Jim Partlow of Lincoln —who started Wade "Swede" Halbrook in basketball—and Hugh Mullen of Franklin.

Partlow will continue as baseball coach. Mullen will devote his full time to teaching.

Their successors have not yet been named.

Byrne 'Goes Over' In Two-Round KO Win

Southpaws shouldn't worry Jarrin' Jimmy Byrne anymore.

The 218-pound Portland heavyweight, who looks like a college professor in street clothes, faced the first portsider in his fistic career Saturday night at the Armory and turned out the lights for Vallejo's Al Winn in two rounds.

Byrne, whose big hands travel with lightweight - quickness, dropped the 190-pound California Negro at the bell in the first round, then finished him off in 1:45 of the second period with a left hook to the jaw and short right to the solar plexus.

Winn tried to get to his feet at the nine-count but pitched forward on his face again and it took several minutes of feverish work by Manager Guido Giometti and seconds to revive him enough for the trip to the dressing room.

WANT MORE

Boxing fans, who packed the Armory for the first ring show in five months, would like to see more of Byrne—and they probably will. They saw just enough of him Saturday night to whet their appetities for a second helping.

It was Shutout Night for Vallejo.

Giometti brought three tigers with him and they all finished as meek as your Aunt Mary's parlor cat.

Ralph Weiser, the Beatty Bomber, had Don Border down four times before Referee Wally Moss stopped the slaughter in 1:10 of the second round. Border substituted for Kenny Williams, one of Giometti's highly-rated lightweights who ducked out of the match at the last minute with a tummy ache.

Border got "A" for effort but Weiser's two-fisted attack was too much for him.

TWO TIMES

A left to the midsection dropped Border for an eight-count in the first round and a right to the jaw had him down again.

Two vicious left hooks had him down two more times in the second before Moss intervened.

The third Vallejo battler, Scott Croquette, did a lot of fancy dancing—but little more — to lose a unanimous decision to Bonanza's Georgie Bray in one of the four-rounders.

Bray lost the last round on what Moss called a low blow—and Croquette got a two-minute rest. But both judges and Moss gave it to Bray after the warriors finished out the 30 seconds that was left after the low blow.

Bray, improving with every start, had Croquette in trouble several times but the Negro's bicycle saved him.

TROUBLE

Eddie Brown of Beatty had Klamath's Darrell Harrington in trouble in the last round but Harrington had built up too big a lead and got another three-vote decision in the six-round special event.

A good majority of the fans, whose memory took in just the sixth round when Brown's left hand had Harrington in trouble and staggered him at the bell, jeered the decision.

But Harrington, who hurt Brown with a hard right to the heart in the first round, had the fight won going into the last period and Brown's only chance was a knockout. He may have got it if the fight had gone another minute or so.

SMOTHER

About all Brown did up to the last round was smother Harrington in clinches when Harrington had him in trouble with overhand rights.

Phil Jackson won on a TKO over Junior Riddle in the opening four-rounder when Riddle, from Whisky Creek, couldn't answer the third bell.

Riddle's face was covered with blood when seconds threw in the towel before the ten-second buzzer for the third round.

'B' Cage Lineup Complete

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The eight-team lineup is set for the state class B high school basketball tournament, opening Thursday at Salem.

Five teams won district championships and tournament berths Saturday night to complete the slate.

Knappa defeated Tillamook Catholic 60-52 for the district 1 title, and will meet Powers of district 4 in the tournament's opening round.

Mill City captured the district 2 championship with a 49-41 victory over Corbett. Mill City faces undefeated Ione of district 7 in the tourney's first round. Ione will carry the best record, 22 straight victories this season, into the state tournament.

The district 5 champion, Talent, won its title by downing Malin 46-36. Talent now meets Elgin, the district 8 champ, in the opening round. Elgin won its district championship with a 56-35 decision over Harper Saturday night.

Heppner whipped St. Mary's of The Dalles 47-37 in the district 6 championship game. Heppner will meet Harrisburg, district 3 title winner, in first-round tournament action.

The pairings for the first round Thursday:

2:30 p.m.—Harrisburg vs. Heppner.
3:45 p.m.—Powers vs. Knappa.
7:30 p.m.—Elgin vs. Talent.
8:45 p.m.—Mill City vs. Ione.

Beavers Even Series With 65-47 Victory

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Southern California's Trojans go into Monday night's Pacific Coast Conference basketball decider against Oregon State in their old familiar role—that of the underdog.

To win they'll have to stop the taller Beavers and also get back on the beam in the shooting department.

Oregon State had things all to itself in squaring the two-of-three playoff Saturday night by swamping the Trojans 65-47 after losing the opener 53-48. The Beavers came up with a tight man-to-man defense and sank 47 per cent of their field goal attempts, going ahead to stay in the second quarter.

Coach Slats Gill of the Beavers switched his strategy for the second game and assigned 7 foot 3 Wade Halbrook to guard USC's hook shot artist Roy Irvin. The change paid off as Irvin was held to only eight points. The night before Halbrook had been used primarily as a rebounder.

The Trojans, who had averaged more than 40 per cent of their field goal attempts in winning the Southern Division title from UCLA and in the first playoff game, could hit on only 29 per cent in the losing effort.

Henning, Von Pop In Main

Matchmaker Mack Lillard today completed his Wednesday night wrestling card with John Paul Henning and Kurt Von Poppenheim clashing in the main event at the Armory.

Top drawing card, however, will probably be Eric Pedersen, the strutting muscleman, who faces Bill Fletcher of Boise in the semi-windup.

Georges Dusette and Juan Hernandez open the show.

The first two bouts are 30-minute matches or the best two of three falls.

Henning and Von Pop wrestle for one hour or the best of three pins.

Fletcher is expected to give Pedersen, the vain ex-weightlifter, all he can handle after tussling to a draw with Dusette last week.

Reserved tickets are on sale at Castleberry Drugs.

Pat Lesser Golf Winner

ORMOND BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Pat Lesser, Seattle University's National Intercollegiate champion swept five of the last six holes Sunday to win the Women's South Atlantic Amateur Golf Tournament 6 and 5 over Joyce Ziske.

Rain Saturday had interrupted the 36-hole final round with Miss Lesser leading 4 up after 10 holes. Miss Ziske, 19-year-old from Waterford, Wis., playing her shots up and, for distance despite a stiff breeze, cut that lead to 1 up at the end of 25 holes.

Miss Lesser, 20, resumed command at that point, however, and closed Joyce out with a masterful assortment of chip shots.
