

Klamath Union High School Concert Band and Director LaMar Jensen

KUHS Band To Hold Concert

The Klamath Union High School Concert Band, assisted by the KUHS Boys' Glee Club will appear in the high school auditorium, Thursday evening, March 11 in the annual spring presentation for the public. Curtain time will be 8 p.m.

LaMar Jensen, director of the band and Don McKenzie, assistant band director and director of the glee club will handle the batons. The concert band includes 80 members.

The sale of tickets helps purchase band uniforms, choir robes, with cleaning bills, goes to help defray expenses of half time shows during school events and for other miscellaneous expenses of the music department, according to Andrew Loney Jr., director of music education.

Tickets are on sale at Derby's Music Store.

The program and personnel follow:
