C.E. Convention Officials Ask Housing for 600 Delegates

By ROWENA McDONALD

It is the job of the Housing Committee for the Christian Endeavor Convention to secure free housing for the expected 600 out of town delegates. This is to be on the Harvard Plan.

The need is for lodging for April 29 and 30 and May 1 and breakfasts for the guests the mornings of April 30, May 1 and 2. The other meals for the days of convention are the responsibility of the delegate.

Mrs. Joseph Glodoski, chairman of the Housing Committee, says that a number of churches in the locality have expressed their willingness to cooperate in securing needed housing. Among those which have chosen a chairman from their congregations to assist in this work are the First Christian, Mrs. Gerald Wickersham; Mt. Laki Community, Mrs. Roy LaPrairie; Klamath Temple, Mrs. Palmer Gundersen; First Presbyterian, Mrs. Kit Johnson; Peace Memorial Presbyterian, Mrs. Marie Seddon; Church of the Brethren, Ed Lander; Hope Lutheran, the Rev. John Recher; First Methodist, Mary Beth Rice. Other churches have promised help but have not yet chosen a chairman.

Acting as adviser to the Housing Committee is Mrs. Andrew Collier, who was head of the Housing Committee in 1941 when the State Christian Endeavor Convention was also held in Klamath Falls.

Anyone who has a room available is urged to contact one of the housing committee members. Telephone numbers to call are 6890, 6646, 2-2454, 4065, 9868, 2-1193, 2-2003 and 3588.

The information required by the Housing Committee is:

1. How many beds are available?
2. Do you prefer boys, girls, or either?
3. Hostess' name, address, telephone number if any.
4. Directions on how to reach the address.

The Housing Committee assures the people of Klamath Falls that the persons housed will be young people who are active in church work in their home towns. They will be appreciative of this help and the citizens of Klamath Falls can accept them into their homes without apprehension.

Anyone wishing to help but who does not have rooms to spare, may donate money through the respective chairmen or send it to Mrs. Joseph Glodoski, Rte. 2, Box 441, Klamath Falls. This money will be used for hotel and motel accommodations for the main speakers and for the state C. E. officers.

In response to information made available to the cooperating churches of Klamath Falls March 7, there have already been rooms registered for guest accommodations.

Mrs. Glodoski says the members of the Housing Committee are meeting regularly for work sessions to record and file names and housing needs available.

New Pine Creek

By IRVIN FARIS

Life still goes on but—for the time being—it has lost some of its buoyancy. Reason: one guess? We won't be taking a trip to Eugene when the Honkers go to state for the simple reason—they won't be a-goin'. But, nevertheless, we're sure proud of our boys!

The showing they made against the winning Madras team was very creditable — for that clean-playing, highly inspired quintet of White Buffaloes, seemed unbeatable. It was Madras's first conference title win in 34 years last Saturday at Prineville and it was so decisive and so expertly won that no one begrudged them their victory.

But each of the four teams participating; Madras, Burns, Redmond and Lakeview, vying for this district title, all apparently had the same pre-conference feeling before the final play-off — that since all teams were so even according to the season's record, it was entirely human, feasible and logical for them to think its group might be the lucky ones to get the breaks and capture that elusive title. Madras got no breaks —they won!

Now we shall relax a bit until track season starts—then we'll be out with the boys again upon that ever stimulating field of individual competitive sport.

George Matson, of the Matson Navigation Co., who lives in San Francisco, tarried a few hours here last Friday and Saturday to visit with his nephew and namesake, George Matson. He was en route to the Shriner's Convention in Medford, for which he left Saturday afternoon. Thence he went to Portland on business and returned here Tuesday. He has just recently returned from Manila looking after business interests.

A very pleasant social hour or two followed the meeting where regular ballroom dancing and folk dancing was enjoyed. Mrs. Clarence Tracy and daughter, respectively, provided music on the piano and accordion while Mrs. Richard Buck beat the drums. These get-togethers are just a lot of fun!

Then in another heat after a tasty potluck supper was served, Mrs. Laura Newton, on the piano and Jim Ogle on the drums beat out some catchy old folk-dance tunes that put a long string of couples through some elegant steps and graceful whirls. They were pretty to watch and even though the couples wore beads of sweat on their foreheads, apparently they were having just a heck-of-a-lotta fun.

Mrs. Lydia Scarborough and children, Joy and Henry, visited at Fall River Mills and McArthur over the weekend. They took in a BB tournament at Fall River and had a big time, watching good basketball. There they also met an old friend, Mrs. Virginia Roberts and children, Denise and Robert, of Etna, California, which added greatly to the enjoyment of the occasion. The Scarboroughs formerly lived at Etna. They returned home Sunday morning.

William Smith must have felt wonderfully cheered-up last week when his home was enlivened with the glad-tidings a family reunion brings. Six of his daughters—(most of whom brought their husbands) and two sons, with their families all got together to feast and visit.

There were the following children present: Mrs. Stella Lish, of Pocatello, Idaho; Mrs. Howard Clock and husband, of Adin, Calif., Mrs. Donna Dean and husband, of Burns, Oregon; Mrs. Sylvia Oppio, of Reno; Mrs. Grace Scrivner and family; Mrs. Viola Thayer and family of Lakeview where the girls also spent some time visiting; Aury Smith and family of Lake City; and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Smith and family of Cedarville. The last of the children assembled left for their respective homes on Monday, all having had a grand visit with their right spry old father.

Carpenters Ed Darst and Ali Ostmo, of Lakeview, who by the way are a couple of fine craftsmen, completed the interior finish work on the Kelton Vincent home five miles south of here, last Thursday. They had been employed there about a month. Kelton is now waiting for the bathroom fixtures to come before his right nice little domicile can be completed. In the meantime, along with the spring farming, he will endeavour to finish the interior painting, install the septic rank and complete the bathrcom. He plans to be moved into his new home within the next month.

The Vets Dance held at the Antler's Hall last Saturday evening was a financial success, according to reports, and the patrons had a pretty fair time. Like many of the local dances, the crowd was a little slow arriving but before the evening was over the rather small hall was jammed.

Gordon Rose, tiny 225 pound ex-University of Idaho football player of Lewiston, Idaho is visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Rose this week.

"Out of a $60-a-week pay check I saved $4,900"

says John A. Walsh of Malden, Massachusetts

He did it through the Payroll Savings Plan

AND SO CAN YOU!

Have you been thinking you just can't save money? Well, you can. And eight million working folks have proved it for you. Just take the case of one of them—John Walsh, a widower with three children. He saved $4,900 in less than ten years out of a $60-a-week pay check!

How? The same way you can do it. By investing in U. S. Savings Bonds on the simple, systematic Payroll Savings Plan.

Whatever your savings goal, you can reach it through Payroll Savings!

Want a new house . . . a car . . . a farm . . . or a business of your own? You can get it through Payroll Savings—and here's how simple it is to start this successful saving system:

Just go to your company's pay office today and sign up. You say how much you want to save out of each check (it can be as little as a couple of dollars a payday). The money will then be automatically saved for you—before you even draw your pay. When enough has been accumulated, it will be invested in a U. S. Series E Savings Bond, in your name, and the Bond will be delivered to you. After that your savings earn more —because each Series E Bond pays you interest averaging 3% per year when held to maturity.

When Uncle Sam makes saving so simple, and so safe, why not give the plan a try? Sign up today where you work or, if you're self-employed, join the Bond-A-Month Plan where you bank. Get on your Plan, stay on your Plan—and you'll get where you want to go!

How you can reach your savings goal on the systematic Payroll Savings Plan

	If you want approximately
	$5,000	$10,000	$25,000
Each week for 9 years and 8 months, save	$8.80	$18.75	$45.00
Each week for 19 years and 8 months, save	$3.75	$7.50	$18.75

This chart shows only a few typical examples of savings goals and how to reach them through Payroll Savings. You can save any sum you wish, from a couple of dollars a payday up to as much as you want. The important thing is, start your Plan today!
