

Hi-Y Hosts Organization's First Formal At Reames

All Photos on Page by Kettler

MEMBERS OF HI-Y staged their first formal dance at Reames March 5. Special guests were student body officers at KUHS. The event, chairmanned by HI-Y vice president Stuart Campbell, was invitational.

Pictures on the page include, upper left, Stuart Campbell and Nell Stewart. Next to them, Lois Erbes and Pat Taylor. Chaperones, Delores Bracken and Rex Dye; and upper right, Terry Borgen and Jim Dougherty.

Foursome in center of page, from the left, Joe Meador, Mary Nell Laurhammer, Don Taucher and Sharon Taylor. Lower right, Phyllis Dannelley and Tom Skien. Lower right, top picture, from the left, Martin Kerns, Shirley Ashford, George Knight and Pat Riley. Bottom, same order, Bill Badorek, Royann Plas, Marilyn Nancarrow and David Pepple. Other committee members were Bob Dixon and Doug Campbell.

Here From Lewiston

MRS. CLARENCE D. OUGH (Frances Lee McMullen) and two daughters, Elizabeth Lee (nicknamed "McGee"), seven, and a second grader; and Carolyn Louise, four. They were here at the home of the girls' maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee S. McMullen, 5006 South Sixth, for a week while here for the annual stockholders meeting of the Klamath Production Credit Association. Mr. and Mrs. McMullen drove them to Portland where they were met by husband and father, "Tiny" Ough. He is manager of the Lorenz-Spanglor Lumber Company in Lewiston.

SOCIETY

By Milly Ramsby

HERALD and NEWS
Klamath Falls, Oregon