Catholic Rites Unite Couple In Merrill St. Augustine Church

BONANZA—Pale pink and white carnations with lighted tapers were decorations chosen by Gertrude Hoefler for her wedding March 6. The only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hoefler of Bonanza, she became the bride of Gary Freitag, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Freitag, Malin.

The Rev. John Phelan officiated at the 2 p.m. double ring ceremony in St. Augustine's Church in Merrill.

Gertrude was escorted up the aisle by her father who gave her in marriage. Her dress was white lace on satin, floor length with a long train. The light bodice buttoned down the back, and was made with fitted sleeves, and high neckline with tiny stand up collar. Her sweetheart cap of net held in place the finger tip veil of net, with a crown of lilies of the valley. Her bouquet was a white orchid with lilies-of-the-valley, carried on a white Bible.

Maid of honor, Phyllis Lynch, wore a pale blue floor length net over taffeta. Her parasol bouquet was blue and white.

Bridesmaids were Joan Freitag, sister of the bridegroom; and Gloria Hoefler, cousin of the bride; both in pale pink, made identical to the maid of honor's and their parasol bouquets were pale pink and white.

Carol Bishop was best man; and ushers were Paul and Joe Hoefler, brothers of the bride. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hoefler chose a navy blue lace dress with navy accessories and a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Freitag wore a two piece aqua crepe dress with matching accessories and a red rosebud corsage.

Mrs. Ernest Gray played incidental music and the traditional wedding march, and accompanied Mary Mock, soloist. Wedding guests were received in the parish hall. Mrs. Elzie Roberts poured and Mrs. Dan Melhase was at the punch bowl.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Freitag cut the first piece of their beautiful wedding cake, which was then

LAST PLAY MR. ROBERTS MARCH 20

An important and interesting meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club, is planned for Monday, March 15, following the 6:30 p.m. dinner at the Willard Hotel. Every BPW member and guests are welcome.

Dorothy Wick, chairman has arranged a panel discussion on "Operation Buttonhole," club slogan for the Equal Rights Amendment, that every working woman in America is interested in. This is an opportunity to learn more about this vital legislation that affects the lives of all women in this country.

There will also be a discussion on national defense.

This is a meeting where facts, figures and the answers to questions, will be on the agenda.

Eileen Sullivan will play the zither.

Reservations may be made by calling Marjorie Comer, 8159 or Lydia Howard, 5089.

The next and last play of the New York Drama Guild series, Mr. Roberts, will be presented at Mills Auditorium, Saturday, March 20. Bothwell, play chairman announces that no tickets will be sold at the door. Anyone having out of town guests must secure a ticket from Mary Bothwell at the First Federal Savings and Loan Office, prior to play time.

There have been many questions regarding an individual ticket for this play, but it has been determined that only seasonal tickets can be sold at the full price of $6. No single ticket can be sold.

Mr. Roberts had one of the longest runs of any play to appear on Broadway.

VFW Auxiliary Lost River Post

MERRILL—VFW Auxiliary to Lost River Post 4056 met March 3, in the recreation hall, with president Barbara McKeen in the chair. Margaret Loper was elected to serve as president for the coming year.

Other officers are: Kathy Merrilees, senior vice president; Dean Marks, junior vice president; Joan Trotman, treasurer; Mary Catherine Walker, chaplain; Nellie Fleck, conductor; Frances Brandenberg, guard; Bertha McKeen, assistant guard; Marian Knox, two year trustee; Barbara McKeen, three year trustee; Grace Walker, historian; Myrtle Ripplly, flag bearer; Rosemary Crawford, banner bearer; and Mary Frances Hammond, Marjorie Waldrup, Germaine Shelton and Virginia Perry, color bearers.

Nine charter members were present, and 18 members received bars for five years membership in the Auxiliary.

Refreshments were served by hostesses Mary Lou Swisher, Margaret Loper, Lillie Winter and Kathy Merrilees, to the above mentioned, and the following: Vivian Cunningham, Bessie Duncan, Pat Duncan, Millie Fotheringham, Betty Hodges, Marjorie Hodges, Dorothy West, Helen Chaburn, Lucille Whitlatch, Harriet Batty, Lonnie Ralliff, Teresa Calise, Mildred Walker, Glenn Walker and Grace Walker.

PLAYERS CLUB

A large group of Players Club members and guests met Wednesday evening, March 3, in the Library Club room. Of special interest were the colored movies of new spring fashions shown under the supervision of LaPointe's Store and featuring Powers models. Eric Carlson of Underwood's Camera Shop ran the movie and Chloe Alexander of LaPointe's gave a brief introductory background of the picture.

After the movie, Mrs. E. H. Hullman introduced the hostesses for the evening, Mrs. Richard Wilson, Mrs. Chester Clark, Mrs. Herb Pollard and Mrs. Hubert Vanderhoff.

Cards were then played for the remainder of the evening. High in bridge was awarded to Mrs. Al Kusler; second to Mrs. H. L. Robertson; high in pinocle to Mrs. Sam L. Jones; and low to Mrs. Don Nolan.

Next meeting of the group will be March 17, 8 p.m. in the Library Club rooms.

MERRILL—Mrs. Norman Winter and infant son, Forrest Wayne, were presented a number of gifts February 24, when a group of friends called at the Winter home during the evening. In the group were Mrs. Warren Ochs, Mrs. Fred Taylor, Mrs. Gene Taylor, Mrs. Ralph Daniel, Mrs. Amanda Woods, Mrs. Hilton Wilson, Mrs. Edna Ferguson, Mrs. Herman Ripplly, Mrs. Louise Mitchell, Mrs. Douglas Walden, Mrs. Richard Vaughan, Mrs. Pearl Eberhart, Rachel Headley, Mrs. Forrest Winter, Mrs. M. S. Hargrove, Mrs. Milton Loper, Mrs. H. A. Testerman, Mrs. Frank Testerman, Mrs. Warren Conner and Mrs. Ralph Swisher.

THE FRESHNESS OF SPRING was achieved in the color scheme chosen by Ann Barker for her wedding to Richard William Mace, in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, February 28. Yellow daffodils, white freesias, filmy green organdy for the attendant's frocks; and a pale yellow veil worn by the bride with her white dress of Swiss embroidered organdy were effective factors in the pleasant picture. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Edwin Barker, 17 Pine; and Dick is the son of Mrs. Blanche Mace, East Randolph, New York. Both are students at Southern Oregon College—she a senior, and he, a junior. They returned to school after the wedding and will take their postponed wedding trip during spring vacation. —Photo by Guderian

Ann Barker Becomes Mrs. R. W. Mace In St. Paul's Episcopal Ceremony

A double-ring ceremony in St. Paul's Episcopal Church united Ann Barker, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Edwin Barker, 17 Pine, to Richard William Mace, only son of Mrs. Blanche Mace, East Randolph, New York.

The Rev. Galen Onstad read the service February 28, in the presence of a large group of friends and relatives, including many of the couple's friends from college. Her father gave her in marriage.

For her informal wedding, Ann chose simple spring-like decorations in a daffodil theme. Her wedding dress and veil also were in keeping with the daffodil theme. The gown of embroidered swiss organdy in white was worn with a pale yellow three-quarter veil held with a band of orange blossoms. She carried a cascade arrangement of daffodils and white freesia flowers.

Maid of honor, Elyane Leach, Medford, is a former roommate of the bride at Southern Oregon College. She wore a filmy dress of crisp green shadow organdy.

Bridesmaid was Linda Young, cousin of the bride from Eugene; dressed exactly as the maid of honor; and carrying the same type daffodil bouquet.

The bride's mother wore a two piece dress in blue sheer wool, with pink accessories and corsage. Best man was Bob Smith, Eugene; and ushers were Dean Maddox and Jim Womack, classmates at SOC.

St. Paul's church choir sang "O Perfect Love" before the ceremony. Reception was in the parish hall; and aunts of the bride, Mrs. Lyle Weldy and Mrs. Eldon Young Young from Eugene poured. Mrs. Gordon Barker, from Medford, cut

Judy Vandenberg In Maryhurst College Chorus

FHA Girls Annual Banquet

MERRILL—Basketball players, their parents, and teachers were guests of honor at the annual FHA Girls basketball banquet, March 2, in the recreation hall.

The Rev. G. A. Milne gave the blessing and guests were welcomed by FHA President Carl Poe. John O'Neil gave the response.

Principal H. J. Hendrickson and teacher, Mike Daugherty, were called on for remarks, and coach Ray Rader briefly reviewed the basketball season and introduced the players.

Entertainment during the evening included a skit by the 8th grade girls; vocal solos by Arlene Johnson; and a piano solo by Nancy Dewey.

Women of Moose Merrill Chapter

MERRILL—Susan Williams, senior regent, presided at a regular meeting of the Merrill Chapter of Women of the Moose, March 2. There were 29 present. Bessie Clinger was initiated as a new member.

The lodge's baby-sitting service was in operation for the first time. The program was presented by the social service committee.

Co-workers extended their sympathy to Elizabeth Holland who was called to Texas because of her father's death. Helen Brumley is still in the east where her daughter is hospitalized.

Rose Spolek and Myrtle Kucera represented the Women of the Moose at a Red Cross meeting in the LOOM Hall Tuesday evening. They reported that the Red Cross Bloodmobile will be at the Merrill Recreation Hall, March 29, between the hours of 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

All Moose members are urged to contact all possible donors. The Women of the Moose will provide cookies; members may take cookie donations to one of the following co-chairmen: Susan Williams, Merrill; Rose Van Meter, Malin; or Betty Fund, Tulelake.
