

REFLECTIONS FROM

AS USUAL — the MEN planned it — prepared it — and dished it up in superb style — that annual but always sensational Elks crab feed for the women relatives of Elks — it's a most fascinating thing to watch — on the day of the feed, unloading the huge crates of the big bright beauties fresh from their briny beds off the Northwest Coast — the assembly line of 80 men (for this one) where each step from emptying the crates, washing — SCRUBBING that is — cleaning off and so on to cracking them before platters are heaped high to be set before the dames with a flourish — and do those femmes love it! — the food AND the flourish! — they come in droves and there is no evidence that a single one is on anything but a diet of crab — and more crab — and AS USUAL — thanks and a bouquet to the boys who so successfully engineered it.

TWO VIPS ARRIVED — recently to two well-known KF families — the first in Seattle on the 18th of Feb — Michael Wayne Elliott — whose grandmother Helen (Mrs. George S.) Blianas got back a couple of days ago from Seattle where she was called much earlier than she planned to leave because the stork and a kidney complication conspired to up the date of Mike's arrival — His mother — Catherine nee Blianas Elliott was just recently released from the hospital — recovering from the kidney upset — and Mike got out of the incubator which he entered on the 18th weighing only 4 lbs. — his mother and father (Will) are both enrolled at U of W — and both are seniors — g-mother reported that the teaching staff was wonderful — and rushed around like mad to provide emergency layette essentials which were to have been "purchased later" — Mike has a great-grandmother — other than the maternal g-p — Mrs. John Kolopoulos — and on the paternal side are grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Elliott — former KF dwellers — now in Newberg, Oregon — the young man is the first grandchild on either side — the proud g-mother Helen Blianas went on a shopping spree and all other spare time from the hosp was spent at the sewing machine finishing a lot of items Catherine had leisurely started — incidentally mams plans on returning to school next quarter.

THE SECOND VIP — to arrive was 8 lb 13 1/2 oz Karen Loren Kittredge — newly dt. born to William A. (Bill) and Janet (O'Connor) Kittredge at Klamath Valley at 1:37 p.m. — March 7 — She also didn't arrive as scheduled — and paternal g-p Oscar and Josephine K were on a trip that was to have been "held" by the time the paternal side — as are Mr. and Mrs. William A. Kittredge — 802 Eldorado — Janet's parents — Mr. and Mrs. John O'Connor — 810 N. 10th — are also beaming with pride as grandparents of the little miss — maternal great-grandparents are Mrs. and Mrs. C. C. Washburn — the little glamor puss still in hosp with mams — will be on deck to meet the Oscar Kittredges when they return — right now they're with dt. Roberts and will stay in Arizona to be with her during spring vacation — who is going to prep school — Brownmoor to be specific.

Starting in April, regular meetings of the club will be held twice monthly, on the first and third Friday afternoons of each month. Special visitors at the meeting were Mrs. Cyril (Eva) Cook and her mother, Mrs. Minnie Hill, both of Klamath Falls. In honor of Mrs. Hill's 82nd birthday which fell on the date of the club meeting, all present sang and sang in unison "Happy Birthday". The financial report for March was given by treasurer, Mrs. William A. Page. Standing and special committee reports given, a general discussion followed. Two readings were given. One, by Mrs. Donald P. Veitch, was an excerpt from a current Saturday Evening Post article on "The GI's Who Fell for the Reds," and the second was by Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley, who read part of an article, "How the Bible is Building Israel," from the Readers Digest. The meeting adjourned, refreshments were served by the hostess of the afternoon, Mrs. William Brewer and Mrs. Marvin Roeder. The table was decked in traditional St. Patrick's green, with crepe paper shamrocks blooming in containers on a wide green crepe paper runner on the white background. The same theme was carried out in appointments and individual favors marking each place. Other special guests of the afternoon were Mrs. Elmer Zumbur, Fort Klamath; and Mrs. Gene Corbin and infant son Duane, visiting here from Stockton with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gray. Club members visiting from out of town were Mrs. T. R. (Lucille) Nicholson, here for the weekend from Ashland; Mrs. Arthur Short, Meford, honorary member of the organization; and Mrs. Harold Wing, Klamath Agency. Fort Klamath members were Mrs. Wilbur Hescocock, Mrs. Bert Gray, Mrs. Donald P. Veitch, Mrs. Harold L. Wimer, Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley, Mrs. Edith Moon, Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson, Mrs. Ober Brown, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Loosley, Mrs. Norman Van Idertine, Mrs. Mitchell (Mike) Beaulieu, Mrs. Gene A. Page and Gayle and Opal; Mrs. Elmore Nicholson and Teresa Ann; and Mrs. William A. Page.
