Camp Fire Group Tour KFLW, H&N

The Snub-Nah camp fire group sponsored by the Sacred Heart Academy toured the Herald and News and KFLW Tuesday morning, accompanied by their leaders, Mrs. R. W. Espersen and Mrs. Fay Waters.

Joy Uatick, pressman, provided the highlight of the tour with a graphic demonstration of how the day's "funnies" are processed. Jack Metz, of the engraving department, gave the fifth graders a glimpse of the 9 o'clock special in metal.

Edith Pieruccini and Bill McSpadden of the KFLW staff explained the workings of the station from the broadcasting booth to the control room. Members of this group are: Patricia Axell, Sandra Espersen, Rosalie Barriell, Gay Carmine, Kathleen Wood, Katherine Thill, Patricia Koras and Rose Waters. Jean Clanton was a guest of the group and lives in Portland, and young Butch Espersen was a special guest.

MALIN — Malin Mariners Club met at the Malin Community Church March 3 for an Irish potluck dinner before the regular meeting.

The Rev. Carl DeMott read a portion of the Scriptures and Mrs. Bonnie DeMott showed slides on Alaska, where the DeMotts lived before coming to Malin.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Long, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Street, the Rev. and Mrs. Carl DeMott, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Monfore, Mr. and Mrs. Hub Wilson, George Montore, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holl, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fowler, Mrs. Francis Gebby of Burbank, California and Mrs. Bonnie DeMott of Los Angeles.

Game Officer Reminds Hunters

Persons with wild game in their possession are reminded that March 30 is the last day this meat can legally be kept.

The law specifically states that waterfowl may be kept in possession 90 days after the closing of the hunting season, and March 30 marks the end of this 90 day period, according to Jim Savage, game management agent of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

Annual Yacht Club Dance Postponed

The annual Yacht Club spring formal scheduled for March 20 has been postponed indefinitely because so many members are out of town during school vacation.

Announcement will be made later by Lee Stoner, social chairman, when a new date has been set.
