Betty Sterritt Bride Of Bernard Quinowski March 2

Simple and informal was the keynote of the pretty wedding in First Baptist Church, March 2, when Betty Sterritt and Bernard (Bud) Quinowski exchanged vows in a 7:30 p.m. service read by the Rev. E. M. Causey.

The bride chose carnations in varied pastel shades as a perfect complement to her medium blue dressmaker suit, which was accented with darker blue. Her tiny hat was pale pink with a wispy veil of matching net; and horizontal rows of seed pearls outlined the smocking trim. She carried a white Bible topped with a small bouquet of pink roses, white hyacinth florets and streamers of satin ribbon.

LIBRARY CLUB AT MERRILL

MERRILL—Mrs. G. A. Milne, Mrs. George Rankin, and Mrs. J. D. Moore were hostesses for the March 11 meeting of the Merrill Library Club. Mrs. Rankin, Mrs. Frank Howard, and Mrs. Eber Kilpatrick presented an entertaining play "Makers of Dreams."

IRISH THEME OF BPW MEET

Rose O'Leary spoke at the last meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club on "Equal Rights for Women," and all members were urged to write senators and representatives urging support of the legislation that will equalize status between men and women in the U. S.

The speaker was introduced by Dorothy Hedrick, program chairman.

Ingeborg Tex, native of Holland, and an American war bride, spoke on the vast difference in opportunities between women of this country and of Europe. Mrs. Tex, now a citizen of the U. S., elaborated on the heritage and customs that have forced the women of Europe to remain only wives and mothers, with no opportunity for careers.

Ellen Sullivan, a new member, sang four Irish melodies, playing her own accompaniment.

Kathleen Criss donated the table decorations in keeping with the Irish theme.

Imogene Boothby, president, announced the coming district BPW conference in Grants Pass, April 3-4 and the state convention in Portland, May 14-16. The biennial will be held in St. Louis, Missouri, June 26-July 2.

A film, "Survival under Atomic Attack, and What to Do and What Not to Do," was shown.
